President (2009-2017 : Obama), Barack Obama, 2010 The Book of Hard Choices James A. Autry, Peter Roy, 2006-12-26 There are a thousand acts of duplicity and dishonesty every day some large and some small some of which undoubtedly take place in your workplace The question for all of us is Are we going to resist or just play along the path of least resistance The first hard choice a person of integrity must make is to choose to live both personally and professionally in a way that embodies integrity The power of this book comes from the real life in the workplace experiences that these executives have been so generously willing to share None had easy choices but that's the point Integrity is not about easy choices it's about the courage to make the right choices From The Book of Hard Choices All of us like to think that in any given situation we'd act with integrity and do the right thing But what happens when we get to work each morning Do the same rules we follow in our personal lives apply to our work lives The lines between right and wrong become blurred when we must weigh our obligations to our employer against our own ideas about what is right and wrong Should altruism trump profit even to the detriment of the organization When should you step in to protect an employee and when should the employee be left to take the heat If the CEO is up to some unethical accounting should you always risk your job and the company's reputation to sound the alarm These are the hard choices the dilemmas that put your integrity to the test and require you to look beyond organizational policy and industry precedents to find an answer that reflects your personal sense of justice The Book of Hard Choices goes to the heart of these difficult decisions James Autry and Peter Roy experienced executives themselves interviewed numerous leaders about the tough decisions they've made on the job They spoke with people like former Starbucks president Howard Behar Iowa Cubs owner Michael Gartner and Governor Tom Vilsack of Iowa as well as entrepreneurs military officials members of the clergy and a whole host of leaders The authors dig into the thinking process these people went through as well as the emotional strain the self doubt and the fear of a wrong decision's impact on their business family or coworkers Not everyone in this book made the right choice but all of them were forced to examine their values and make decisions in complicated circumstances The result is hard won wisdom on how to navigate the ethical gray areas of work life from daily challenges to possible career ending choices and make the best possible decisions in the most difficult situations Keepers of the Children Laura M. Ramirez, 2004 Keepers of the Children subtitle Native American Wisdom and Parenting uses little known Native American secrets to teach parents how to raise children who know their nature and use their strengths to create lives of meaning and contribution By raising children to unfold the uniqueness in their hearts parents touch the depths of their own By teaching children the secrets of genuine fulfillment they grow up to lead purposeful lives and cherish their parents for this gift Keepers of the Children is the first in a trilogy of parenting books GRIT 4 LIFE David Douglas, The book is a daily devotion for those who wish to change the relationship they have with their life It was originally designed for use within an addiction recovery facility We found that many others were improving the quality of their life through these God inspired devotions They are simply written and easy to understand therefore easily applied to your life If we allow God into our lives He will help us with our Relationships Living in God s will for our lives gives us the Integrity to walk through life with our head held high And last but not least we need to find the Truth We must put in the work to find the Truth and stop accepting what the world tells us We can use this G R I T FILTER to help us on the journey of changing the relationship we have with our lives By asking four simple questions we can avoid many of the potholes of life Those four questions are Have I invited God into my decision process How will my decision affect my Relationships What will my decision do to my Integrity Have I done the research and found the Truth before I react Living a life with G R I T will give you joy as you Transform the relationship you have with your life If you believe you have a terrible life it will be terrible If you work to change your outlook and become grateful for what you have every day becomes a blessing It is my sincere hope that these devotional messages will be a blessing to you as you start to live with G R I T
