Victims, Crime and Society Pamela Davies, Peter Francis, Chris Greer, 2007-11-18 Focusing on key issues themes and concepts within victimology this edited collection provides an accessible and comprehensive critical analysis of crucial areas within victimisation The main theories are related to and integrated with empirical research in an engaging style Dr Anette Ballinger Keele University This book achieves the rare feat of helping its readers without patronising them The aids to the reader tables boxes glossaries questions and suggestions for further reading will prove genuinely helpful to students and their teachers but they appear within a text that is theoretically informed as well as comprehensive and up to date in its coverage It deserves to be widely read and used in the teaching of criminology victimology and criminal justice Professor David Smith University of Lancaster UK Organized around the intersecting social divisions of class race age and gender the book provides an engaging and authoritative overview of the nature of victimisation in society In addition to a review of the major theoretical developments in relation to understanding aspects of victimization in society individual chapters explore the political and social context of victimisation and the historical comparative and contemporary research and scholarly work on it Each chapter includes the following Background and glossary Theory research and policy review Thinking critically about sections Reflections and future research directions Summary and conclusions Annotated bibliography Victims Crime and Society is the essential text on victims for students of criminology criminal justice community safety youth justice and related areas

Rights for Victims of Crime Irvin Waller, 2010-12-16 When the victims of injustice lose faith in their justice system the crime they've endured cuts only deeper adding insult to injury The time has come to face the truth that most victims of crime will not have their needs met and often won't experience our systems of justice as just This short book makes its readers experts in advocating rights for victims of crime It empowers taxpayers voters and potential victims of crime to make the case to rebalance justice and support victims Written for the millions of victims of crime and their friends and families it helps to transform an antiquated system of criminal and civil justice into a modern system that is just and fair shifting from neglect to respect and support While some laws in the USA and elsewhere do support victims by providing assistance compensation and protection from the accused this book also sheds a harsh light upon their inadequate implementation Police services must catch crooks but make victims their client Courts must balance rights for defendants and victims Services for women children and elderly victims must be adequately funded Restitution from offenders must be ordered and collected not overlooked Fair compensation from the state must change from a secret to a given The prevention of victimization must be the budget priority not mass incarceration Despite the speeches and the United Nations norms governments still leave most victims of crime without basic information support and assistance let alone respect and remedies in courts If you are not yet one of those victims of crime social responsibility requires you to ensure that your country's systems of justice are fair to those who are and for them this book provides an answer 'Hate crime' and the city Paul Iganski,2008-07-09 The impression often conveyed by the media about hate crime offenders is that they are hate fuelled individuals who in acting out their extremely bigoted views target their victims in premeditated violent attacks Scholarly research on the perpetrators of hate crime has begun to provide a more nuanced picture But the preoccupation of researchers with convicted offenders neglects the vast majority of hate crime offenders that do not come into contact with the criminal justice system This book from a leading author in the field widens understanding of hate crime by demonstrating that many offenders are ordinary people who offend in the context of their everyday lives Written in a lively and accessible style the book takes a victim centred approach to explore and analyse hate crime as a social problem providing an empirically informed and scholarly perspective Aimed at academics and students of criminology sociology and socio legal studies the book draws out the connections between the individual agency of offenders and the background structural context for their actions It adds a new dimension to the debate about criminalising hate in light of concerns about the rise of punitive and expressive justice scrutinizing the balance struck by hate crime laws between the rights of offenders and the rights of victims

Good Practice with Vulnerable Adults Jacki Pritchard,2001 Addresses key problems and dilemmas in working to protect vulnerable adults such as the elderly or those with physical disabilities from abuse and to support those who have already experienced abuse or neglect Contributors make practical suggestions for working with both victims and abusers

The Prevention and Management of Violence Masum Khwaja,Peter Tyrer,2023-05-11 This book provides a comprehensive overview of and best practice evidence based guidance on the prevention and management of aggression and violence by patients with mental disorder across a variety of different settings and specialist patient groups General aspects of violence management are covered alongside both pharmacological and psychological interventions In this second edition first edition chapters have been fully revised and greatly expanded with new chapters on working with violence in children criminal and youth justice liaison and diversion systems forensic psychiatry and adult inpatient secure settings the relationship between violence and mental health inequality in the Black Asian and Minority Ethnic communities service user involvement in training and engagement with patients and carers It will be of use to a wide range of mental health professionals working in community in patient and forensic including prison settings as well as clinicians dealing with potentially violent incidents day to day

Reparation and Victim-focused Social Work Bryan Williams,2001-09-18 The contributors to this book bring together research material from the wide range of disciplines involved and present an overview of the information needed for effective practice They examine the practicalities of reparation orders family group conferencing restorative cautioning schemes and the workings of youth offending teams Imagining The Victim Of Crime Walklate, Sandra,2006-10-01

Concern for the victims of crime first emerged with the formation of the Criminal Injuries Compensation Board in 1964 This has continued with the increase in crime rates since the 1970s and 1980s and in the aftermath of a number of high profile trials In this book Sandra Walklate offers an introduction to the key theoretical methodological and substantive issues in victimology and criminal victimization She situates the contemporary preoccupation with criminal victimization within the broader social and cultural changes of the last twenty five years Written in the context of post September 11 and alongside the events in Madrid of 2004 and London in July 2005 it questions who can be considered a victim of crime and what the response to such victimization might look like BOOK JACKET The Rehabilitation of Partner-Violent Men Erica

Bowen,2011-03-07 THE REHABILITATION OF PARTNER VIOLENT MEN Informed by theory and evidence this text offers a full account of a pressing social problem Professor Clive Hollin School of Psychology The University of Leicester UK This is a book which clearly sets out the history theoretical developments interventions and possibilities for the future within a UK context It is an excellent source of good information about where we are and an excellent springboard for future developments in both research and practice Professor Liz Gilchrist Department of Psychology Glasgow Caledonian University UK Erica Bowen s book The Rehabilitation of Partner Violent Men is a timely and important contribution to the literature of effective interventions The content would be of interest to students researchers and practitioners Dr Nicola Graham Kevan School of Psychology University of Central Lancashire UK Violence within intimate relationships is not just a modern occurrence yet while the nature of the abuse has changed little over hundreds of years great strides have been made in dealing with male perpetrators of domestic violence in the UK The Rehabilitation of Partner Violent Men presents an historical account of the policy changes that have led to the provision of rehabilitation programmes for male perpetrators of intimate partner violence within the British criminal justice system Drawing on both national and international literature the book provides an overview of the theoretical foundation behind current approaches to rehabilitation as well as a critical examination of evaluation methodology and an appraisal of the effectiveness of current practices While probing deeply into the nature of intimate partner violence The Rehabilitation of Partner Violent Men offers rich and revealing insights into the efficacy of intervention programmes and their profound influences on the lives of millions of women around the world each year Applied Psychology Graham C. Social Work in Juvenile and Criminal Justice Settings Albert R. Roberts, David W. Springer, 2007 In this completely revised and updated classic Professors Roberts and Springer along with 51 justice oriented and forensic experts have set the standard of care for mental health treatment and the delivery of social services to crime victims juvenile and adult offenders and their families The second edition of Social Work in Juvenile and Criminal Justice Settings was published almost ten years ago in 1997 and was also translated to Chinese Now Dr Roberts Dr Springer and their team of 51 prominent chapter authors have done such a thorough job of updating and finding new authors that the end result is a comprehensive new book In this third edition 16 of the 31 chapters are new and specially written for this book A growing number of mental health professionals are recognizing the need to examine current evidence based program developments assessment and treatment practices with crime victims and offenders This book focuses on the multiple roles and practices of justice social workers also known as forensic social workers and crisis counselors Many professional social workers counselors and field placement students work in corrections and probation forensic mental health addictions treatment juvenile justice victim assistance and police social work settings In the words of Dean Barbara W White former President Council on Social Work Education and NASW in her laudatory Foreword to this edition This groundbreaking book provides the necessary blueprints and guidelines for best practices with crime victims as well as juvenile and adult offenders in institutional community based diversion and aftercare programs This is the first all inclusive authoritative exceptionally well written volume on social policies and social work practices in both juvenile justice and criminal justice settings This book is a landmark achievement An increasing number of offenders and victims have been found to be

SOCIAL WORK IN JUVENILE AND CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEMS (4th Ed.) David W. Springer, Albert R. Roberts, 2017-05-16 Social Work in Juvenile and Criminal Justice Systems sets the standard of care for mental health treatment and the delivery of social services to crime victims juvenile and adult offenders and their families The chapters all authored by experts in the field and all committed to the mission of social justice are written with the clear understanding that we cannot study criminal justice in a vacuum Therefore a major focus of the book is on the renewed growing sense of the profession s obligation to social justice Each chapter interconnects with the various components of juvenile and criminal justice Another prominent aspect of the book is that it is strength based It views those involved in the criminal and juvenile justice systems as individuals rather than inmates or criminals each with unique positive talents and abilities The book is divided into four sections The first section discusses forensic social work including crime and delinquency theories trends and ethical issues The second section prepares social workers for practice in correctional institutions and explores crisis intervention with victims of violence reentry of adult offenders in society and aging in prison The third section covers assessment and intervention in child sexual abuse mental health and substance abuse interpersonal violence and prevention child welfare and juvenile justice The final section presents an overview on social work in the twenty first century which includes restorative justice and the justice system new ways of delivering justice domestic violence neighborhood revitalization race and ethnicity and social work practice with LGBTQ offenders This book will be the best single source on social work in criminal justice settings and will prove to be an invaluable resource for the many professionals who have responsibility for formulating and carrying out the mandates of the criminal justice system

The Psychology of Honor Abuse, Violence, and Killings Roxanne Khan, 2024-11-28 This important book provides a much needed exploration and examination of honor abuse violence and killings from a psychological perspective Written by a leading authority on the subject the book draws on a wide range of research and theory on victims and perpetrators to bridge the gap between research and practice Presented in two parts the book begins with a focus on teaching research and practice issues in forensic psychology and related criminal justice fields integral to studying and working with victims and perpetrators of honor abuse violence and killing The second part provides an overview of the main issues relevant to the psychology of honor abuse violence and killings These include definitions prevalence crime characteristics victims and perpetrators The final chapter presents a new explanatory three phase model of honor based abuse perpetration Firsthand personal accounts and detailed cases studies are interwoven throughout giving a voice to victims and bringing their real life stories to the forefront As the first psychologically based book to synthesize existing and new knowledge on honor abuse the book is a must read for anyone working with victims and or perpetrators of honor abuse and domestic violence including criminal justice professionals mental health practitioners policymakers support agencies emergency workers and activists It is also relevant for any students or researchers of gender based violence and racially minoritized communities Debates in Criminal Justice Tom Ellis, Stephen Savage, 2013-03-01 This innovative new book recognises that while criminal justice studies is a core component of all criminology criminal justice undergraduate degrees it can be a confusing overwhelming and a relatively dry topic despite its importance Taking an original approach this book sets out a series of ten key dilemmas presented as debates designed to provide students with a clear framework within which to develop their knowledge and analysis in a way that is both effective and an enjoyable learning experience It is also designed for use by lecturers who can structure a core unit of their courses around it Debates in Criminal Justice provides a new and dynamic framework for learning making considerable use of the other already available academic key texts press articles web sources and more
