Good Times Stories:

Better Times Stories Ellen Olney Kirk, 1889 All We Have Is the Story James Kelman, 2024-04-30 Novelist playwright essayist and master of the short story Artist and engaged working class intellectual husband father and grandfather as well as committed revolutionary activist From his first publication a short story collection An Old Pub Near the Angel on a tiny American press through his latest novel God's Teeth and other Phenomena and work with Noam Chomsky Between Thought and Expression Lies a Lifetime both published on a slightly larger American press All We Have Is the Story chronicles the life and work to date of Probably the most influential novelist of the post war period The Times Drawing deeply on a radical tradition that is simultaneously political philosophical cultural and literary James Kelman articulates the complexities and tensions of the craft of writing the narrative voice and grammar imperialism and language art and value solidarity and empathy class and nation state and above all that it begins and ends with the story One of the things the establishment always does is isolate voices of dissent and make them specific unique if possible It's easy to dispense with dissent if you can say there's him in prose and him in poetry As soon as you say there's him him and her there and that guy here and that woman over there and there's all these other writers in Africa and then you've got Ireland the Caribbean suddenly there's this kind of mass dissent going on and that becomes something dangerous something that the establishment won't want people to relate to and go Christ you're doing the same as me Suddenly there's a movement going on It's fine when it's all these disparate voices you can contain that The first thing to do with dissent is say You're on your own you're a phenomenon I'm not a phenomenon at all I'm just a part of what's been happening in prose for a long long while James Kelman from a 1993 interview Books for Boys and Girls in the Free Public Library, Newark, New Jersey ... Newark Public Library, 1912

South,2005-04-04 Publisher Description Catalogue of Books in the South End Branch Library of the Boston Public Library Boston Public Library. South End Branch,1883 Writing Vietnam, Writing Life Tobey C. Herzog,2009-05 Phillip Caputo Larry Heinemann Tim O Brien and Robert Olen Butler four young midwestern Americans coming of age during the 1960s who faced a difficult personal decision whether or not to fight in Vietnam. Each chose to participate. After coming home, these four veterans became prizewinning authors telling the war stories and life stories of soldiers and civilians. The four extended conversations included in Writing Vietnam and Writing Life feature revealing personal stories alongside candid assessments of each author's distinct roles as son, soldier, writer, and teacher of creative writing. As Tobey Herzog's thoughtful interviews reveal, these soldier authors have diverse upbringings, values, interests, writing careers, life experiences, and literary voices. They hold wide-ranging views on, among other things, fatherhood, war, the military, religion, the creative process, the current state of the world, and the nature of both physical and moral courage. For each author, the conversation and richly annotated chronology provide an overview of the writer's life, the intersection of memory and imagination in his writing, and the path of his literary career. Together, these four life stories also offer mini tableaux of the fascinating and troubling time of the 1960s and 1970s America. Above all, the conversations reveal that each author is linked forever to the Vietnam War, the country of Vietnam, and its people.
