Taylor, 2022 In the 1500s British ships plied the seas laden with precious spices Spanish silver war materiel and adventurous souls Many went to the bottom leaving only tantalizing hints sparse records and a few legends This unique collection of logs data and narratives from 1547 1603 brings them to life      Heroes of the Goodwin Sands Thomas Stanley Treanor, 1892      Ships and Shipwrecks of the Early Stuart Dynasty James D. Taylor Jr., 2023-10-01 This unique book encompasses in a single volume data including lists of ships and ship types in the service of King James I and Charles I as well as the East India Company The bare facts are enlivened by logs and narratives from shipwreck survivors relating the perils of seeking the Northwest Passage or sailing to India The author has found that many facts have been distorted on informative websites as a result of incomplete and embellished information This book attempts to correct those errors For each of the wrecks contained in this book Mr Taylor has attempted if the wording of the documents is ambiguous to determine the fate of these ships based on only the facts as they were recorded at the time If in doubt he would explain his reasoning In his efforts to collect and share all sailing and wreck related data in this volume Mr Taylor has reviewed hundreds of electronic and hard copy manuscript archival collections and travelled to view rare and wonderful sometimes hand illuminated manuscripts that have not been digitized However as much as he would like to believe he has uncovered everything it is easy to imagine that more details could come to light at some time Treasure has different meanings to different people Some of these wrecks contain Spanish reales pieces of 8 jewels gold and silver bars that could not be recovered at the time and have since been forgotten Written records of such events were reviewed by fewer people over the centuries and ended up buried in dark archives until now But some of us define treasure as knowledge ensuring that facts are presented correctly to future generations This is the goal Mr Taylor strives for in these volumes

The Remembrances of Elizabeth Freke 1671-1714 Elizabeth Freke,2001 In writing and then rewriting autobiographical remembrances recalling three decades of marriage and ensuing years of widowhood Elizabeth Freke strikingly redefines the relationships among self family and patriarchy characteristic of early modern women s autobiography Suffering and sacrifice dominate an extensive ledger of disappointment and bitterness that reveals over time the complex emotions of a Norfolk gentry woman seeking significance and even vindication in her hardships and frustrations The infirm woman who eventually found herself utterly alone remained to the end a contentious melodramatic yet formidable figure a strong willed even sympathetic person intent upon asserting herself against what she perceived as familial neglect and legal abuse By making available both versions of the remembrances in their entirety this new multiple text edition clarifies the refashioning inherent in each stage of writing and rewriting recovering with unusual immediacy Freke s late seventeenth and early eighteenth century domestic world

Our Sea-coast Heroes, Or, Stories of Wreck and of Rescue by the Lifeboat and Rocket Achilles Daunt,1887

Shipwrecks in 100 Objects Simon Wills,2022-10-07 The history of shipwrecks involves many shocking episodes from men who saw shipmates eaten by sharks to castaways who ate each other Learn about the cowardly captain who deserted his passengers on a sinking ship the obstinate ship designer who took 480 men to their deaths and the first mate who wrecked his own ship for insurance money Historian and genealogist Dr Simon Wills is maritime adviser to BBC s Who Do You Think You Are program In this fascinating book he uses objects associated with real incidents as touchstones for every tale Our ancestors believed that sea monsters destroyed ships but better established causes include storms war pirates human incompetence fire and ice The pages of this book are packed full of tales of dramatic rescues and miraculous survivals and as well as the stories of the innovations that have improved safety at sea Meet the man shipwrecked three times within an hour a coastguard still diving overboard to save lives at 79 and the lifeboat inventor who endured someone else taking credit for his work Ships can have character too refusing to sink despite overwhelming odds or even returning to haunt us as ghost ships The dangerous life afloat stimulated pioneers to create the lifeboat service offshore lighthouses and lifejackets Vessels lost at sea also inspired rewards for bravery and artists and writers such as J M W Turner William Wordsworth and Yann Martel the author of Life of Pi Featuring famous wrecks such as Mary Rose and Titanic this book introduces other less well known but equally remarkable events from our nautical heritage some of which seem almost too extraordinary to be true Cornish Wrecking, 1700-1860 Cathryn J. Pearce, 2010 Shows how the image of Cornish wreckers as villains deliberately luring ships on to the rocks is a myth Highly Commended in Class 6 Non Fiction History and Creative Arts of the Holyer an Gof Awards 2011 Although the popular myth of Cornish wrecking is well known within British culture this book is the first comprehensive systematic inquiry to separate out the layers of myth from the actual practices Weaving in legal social and cultural history it traces the development of wreck law the right to salvage goods washed on shore and explores the responses of a coastal populace who found their customary practices increasingly outside the law especially as local individual rights were being curtailed and the role of centralised authority asserted This groundbreaking study also considers the myths surrounding wrecking showing how these developed over time and how moral attitudes towards wrecking changed Overall the picture of evil wreckers deliberately luring ships onto the rocks is dispelled to be replaced by a detailed picture of a coastal populace poor and gentry alike who were involved in a multi faceted sophisticated coastal practice and who had their own complex popular beliefs about the harvest and salvage of goods washing ashore from shipwreck CATHRYN J PEARCE holds a PhD in Maritime History from Greenwich Maritime Institute A former associate professor of history with the University of Alaska Anchorage s Kenai Peninsula College she is now with University Campus Suffolk where she continues to research on the relationship of coastal people with the sea
