Defining the New Testament Logia on Divorce and Remarriage in a Pluralistic Context Yordan Kalev

Zhekov,2009-01-01 Christian marriage is a permanent union which requires the commitment of both spouses for its maintenance through fulfillment of its stipulations The failure of the fulfillment of the latter provides legitimate grounds for divorce and remarriage of the innocent party This work employs a fourfold approach for the development of NT ethical argumentation based on Richard B Hays Moral Vision of the New Testament The author establishes the proper contextual grounds for the NT study through formulation of the Old Testament perspective on marriage as covenant The relevant NT passages are examined through historical critical and narrative critical methods A critical study of the main Christian traditions leads to an ecumenical formulation of the theological conclusions Pragmatic implementation of the thesis follows an examination of the contemporary pluralistic context and applications in both Christian communities and the larger society within its legislative system

Creating Christianity - A Weapon Of Ancient Rome
Henry Davis,2018-10-06 A profound and controversial investigation of a complex theme the war that led to the fall of Jerusalem and the creation of the Christian religion The religious and political battle between the people of Judea and the Jewish and Roman aristocracies is presented in an unconventional narrative which investigates ancient evidence quotes from the work of respected authorities on the subject and states controversial opinions openly Its main conclusion is that the New Testament the new law was created by a powerful senatorial family called the Calpurnius Pisos who had the full support of their relatives the Herodian royal family the family of Herod the Great and the Flavian emperors with the Piso family hiding their name within the Koine Greek scriptures The result is a book that is both provocative and compelling Using valuable feedback from Cambridge and Oxford University professors Henry Davis explains why the supposed Jewish Historian Flavius Josephus never existed how the Book of Revelation presents the name of the Piso family member who oversaw the creation of the Christian scripture and the reason the number 666 was changed to 616 Davis also explains the facts behind the personal and political reasons that led to the Roman and Jewish royal families creating a new religion and how the Piso family used the literary techniques of the aristocracy to insert their names into the scriptures I found his selection of evidence to be both interesting and compelling Creating Christianity A Weapon Of Ancient Rome is a thoughtful work of historical non fiction by author Henry Davis Anyone with a knowledge of the history of the Roman Empire knows that its conversion from a pagan belief system to widespread Christianity was a significant political and military move for the Empire as much as it was a religious decision and this book focuses on the specific details and clues as to how that really came about Davis searches for the real identity of the Christian Messiah and argues for a potentially Roman author of the modern New Testament one who had a view to creating a new religion for his own reasons as much as those of Rome Readers Favorite Mark's Other Gospel Scott G. Brown,2006-01-01 Did the evangelist Mark write two versions of his gospel According to a letter ascribed to

Clement of Alexandria Mark created a second more spiritual edition of his gospel for theologically advanced Christians in Alexandria Clement's letter contains two excerpts from this lost gospel including a remarkably different account of the raising of Lazarus Forty five years of cursory investigation have yielded five mutually exclusive paradigms abundant confusion and rumours of forgery Strangely one of the few things upon which most investigators agree is that the letter's own explanation of the origin and purpose of this longer gospel need not be taken seriously Mark's Other Gospel Rethinking Morton Smith's Controversial Discovery calls this pervasive bias into question After thoroughly critiquing the five main paradigms Scott G Brown demonstrates that the gospel excerpts not only sound like Mark but also employ Mark's distinctive literary techniques deepening this gospel's theology and elucidating puzzling aspects of its narrative This mystic gospel represents Mark's own response to the Alexandrian predilection to discover the essential truths of a philosophy beneath the literal level of revered texts
