Gospel Journey:

Heart and Mind Alexander John Shaia, Michelle L. Gaugy, 2013 This important book recovers the ancient way of reading the four gospels as four steps in a transformative process While being rooted in the history of the Early Church it moves beyond focus on the historical Jesus and recovers the practice of uniting heart and mind with a living dynamic Christ It s a rare treat to have someone show you a previously undiscovered layer of meaning and import Alexander Shaia has given us a tremendous resource Brian D McLaren Speaker activist author of A New Kind of Christianity The liveliest presentation of the gospels that I have seen in a very long time Phyllis Tickle Author of The Great Emergence Eye opening intelligent and practical This will transform the way you read scripture and reveal a path for a vibrant Christian way of life Diana Butler Bass Author of Christianity for The Rest of Us Wayfaring Margaret Silf, 2002-09-10 This informal inspiring book teaches readers how to create a personal spiritual retreat through readings prayer and their own imagination Trained by the Jesuits to accompany and guide others in prayer Margaret Silf brings her experiences and insights to a guide that will help all spiritual seekers whether they are steeped in Christian tradition or have no background in prayer retreat and meditation make their own journeys of prayer In Wayfaring Silf takes readers step by step through the Gospels examining and elucidating the teachings they contain Like a personal spiritual trainer she deftly encourages readers to tap into their own hearts and minds and discover how the life of Jesus can help them shape their own paths through life Sil s previous books have garnered critical acclaim and have attracted a wide enthusiastic audience in the United Kingdom Wayfaring the first of her books to be published by a mainstream publisher in America is a valuable contribution to spiritual literature sure to be embraced by many on this side of the Atlantic The four-Gospel journey as a guide for the spiritual life Alexander J. Shaia, 2010 Soulmates Journey to Heaven Thomas 'n DiAnnie, 2021-05-18 Life is vibrating with romance and love a guide through the unseen world where angels go freely Near death experiences have brought Herb and DiAnnie to a new understanding and appreciation for life Helping others unconditionally and giving love through the word of God You re free you know get some rest and let it go and do not think of me follow the path that God has laid for you and me When we had taken God s hand and heard God s call We came together to laugh love work and to play Accepted God s grace that brought us together this way We found that piece at the close of each day Our parting has not left a void for a reason we remember the joy A friendship shared laughing and a kiss that we look forward to one day Oh yes these things we do miss However we are not burdened with a time we have spent together through God s holy grace and all the things we have in common that have brought us together one day My friend I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow that will show you happiness and no sorrow My life s been full and savored a dream of this love of my friend and the good times one day will never draw to an end A tear a touch our hearts that felt so much Perhaps our time together seems so long and we do not lengthen it now with our miraculous belief We lift our spirits with peace for one another and together Journey's End Kathryn J. Riss

Longing for the Good Life: Virtue Ethics after Protestantism Pieter Vos, 2020-11-12 This book argues that Protestant theological ethics not only reveals basic virtue ethical characteristics but also contributes significantly to a viable contemporary virtue ethics Pieter Vos demonstrates that post Reformation theological ethics still understands the good in terms of the good life takes virtues as necessary for living the good life and considers human nature as a source of moral knowledge Vos approaches Protestant theology as an important bridge between pre modern virtue ethics shaped by Aristotle and transformed by Augustine of Hippo and late modern understandings of morality The volume covers a range of topics going from eudaimonism and Calvinist ethics to Reformed scholastic virtue ethics and character formation in the work of Søren Kierkegaard The author shows how Protestantism has articulated other centered virtues from a theology of grace affirmed ordinary life and emphasized the need of transformation of this life and its orders Engaging with philosophy of the art of living Neo Aristotelianism and exemplarist ethics he develops constructive contributions to a contemporary virtue ethics

Yearning for the Vast and Endless Sea Chris Russell, 2024-01-31 Evangelism is a contentious word conjuring up all sorts of assumptions It can create suspicion or imply tribalism or can be seen as a desperate response to falling numbers For some the term has become irredeemably polluted But what if we recovered an authentic understanding of evangelism as good news that enables people to know that they are drenched in the love and grace of God And how do we do that This is a book for everyone who wants to share the gospel but who cannot relate to what evangelism has become Its title is taken from Saint Exupery If you want to build a ship don t drum up the people to gather wood and give orders Instead teach them to yearn for the vast and endless sea Drawing on writers like Bonhoeffer Newbigin and Pope Francis landmark Euangelii Gaudium Chris Russell aims to redeem evangelism from its present predicament He sets it in a deeper and richer theological context asks how the church and individual Christians can communicate the love of God in language and action and explores how the good news is received Dining in the Kingdom of God Eugene LaVerdiere,1994 In the Galilean ministry On the way to Jerusalem The Last Supper At table with Jesus the Lord Dining in the Kingdom of God

Ecological Aspects of War Anne Elvey, Keith Dyer, Deborah Guess, 2017-08-10 In this book Australian biblical scholars engage with texts from Genesis to Revelation With experience in the Earth Bible Project and the Ecological Hermeneutics section of the Society of Biblical Literature contributors address impacts of war in more than human contexts and habitats in conversation with selected biblical texts Aspects of contemporary conflicts and the questions they pose for biblical studies are explored through cultural motifs such as the Rainbow Serpent of Australian Indigenous spiritualities security and technological control the loss of home and ongoing colonial violence toward Indigenous people Alongside these approaches contributors ask how do trees participate in war Wow do we deal with the enemy What after texts of the biblical text speak into and from our contemporary world David Horrell University of Exeter UK responds to the collection addressing the concept of herem in the Hebrew Bible and drawing attention to the Pauline corpus The volume asks can creative readings of biblical texts contribute to the critical task of living together peaceably and sustainably

Touching the Hearts of Students George Van Grieken, 1999 This volume is a resource for teachers administrators board members and all who are engaged in Lasallian educational ministries today It reflects on the life and times of De La Salle and the early Institute and their significance in today's educational world There are questions at the end of each chapter along with a description of the Lasallian School as found in the tradition The book contains an extensive annotated bibliography of Lasallian resources as well as a glossary of Lasallian terms A model Lasallian Mission and Vision Statement gives any Lasallian group an excellent example of such statements

The Disciple Investing Apostle Rod Culbertson, 2018-08-02 When we think of the ministry of discipleship or what I call disciple investing we often conclude that the focus of discipleship involves one individual intentionally helping only one other individual often called one to one ministry We think we have to choose one person to whom we must give our attention However as we observe the Apostle Paul's ministry the reality is that he devotes time and effort with all sorts of people both individuals and groups people whom he meets in various contexts The Apostle Paul willingly and actively invests in multiple relationships as seemingly he is open to most anyone the Lord sends his way And Paul goes out of his way both to lead others to Christ as well as to deepen believers in their walks with Christ The Disciple Investing Apostle Paul's Ministry of Relationships provides an overview of the many and varied relationships that the Apostle Paul develops as he helps others grow in Christ In the book you will meet the people Paul meets and you also will watch him build meaningful disciple investing relationships with these friends And in doing so you may learn some lessons for your personal ministry with others as well
