An Infinite Prologue Mark Reiner, 2025-02-09 The main character Fred is Everyman and a part of him is within us all This novel has dramatic external conflicts to hold interest but those are not key elements Like most of those who would read this book Fred had deeply moving spiritual experiences some would call miracles and is learning human life as opportunity even as he appears to live a mundane incarnation As he purifies his life he sees and experiences divine synchronicities and beneficence in the growth of humanity and within all the main characters The plot of this novel is based upon the development of the characters in the previous novel Chapter X Fred enters into a maelstrom of chaos as he takes over the raising of a nephew This is complicated by discovering a family heirloom is found to have significance beyond its antique value which unknown others are trying to get by violent means This takes place as he recognizes the need to relinquish his attachment to the past and his fears for the future Although he is desperate to renew his communion with spiritually advanced beings he is forced to recognize doing so will require his own spiritual growth As we all face similar problems his issues may reflect yours Like Fred and his nephew we have different abilities and talents but are all equal in this school Thus as you read not only relate your own thoughts with the characters but also follow them back to their motivations and forward to their implications The main characters choices and actions have to be backed up with an unbreakable commitment to the Absolute Whether you call that God the Christ or the Universe you will begin to consciously recognize every event as an opportunity to merge with the divine
