Handbook of Qualitative Research in Education Michael R. M. Ward, Sara Delamont, 2020-08-04 This updated second edition extends the discussions surrounding the key qualitative methods used in contemporary educational research. Featuring comprehensive coverage of research across all stages of education, it provides sophisticated and concise discussions on both the building blocks of the field and the latest advances in research. Bringing together international scholars, this Handbook offers exceptional insights into the theories and disciplinary approaches to qualitative study and the processes of data collection, analysis, and representation, offering fresh ideas to inspire and reinvigorate researchers in educational research. Blending the ideas of both emerging authors and established academics, this Handbook explores research in formal, informal, and non-formal education settings internationally. Informative and comprehensive, this Handbook is crucial reading for academics and graduate students in educational research in search of exciting opportunities and avenues for new projects in the field. It will also be useful for practitioners and policymakers in educational settings who need a fresh and diverse illustration of the latest research.

Qualitative Research in Education Marilyn Lichtman, 2023-01-31 The fourth edition of this reader-friendly book offers an accessible introduction to conducting qualitative research in education. The text begins with an introduction to the history, context, and traditions of qualitative research and then walks readers step by step through the research process. Lichtman outlines research planning and design as well as the methodologies, techniques, and strategies to help researchers make the best use of their qualitative investigation. Throughout, chapters touch on important issues that impact this research process, such as ethics and subjectivity, and making use of technology. The fourth edition has been thoroughly revised and updated, featuring new examples, an increased focus on virtual and digital data collection, and the latest approaches to qualitative research. Written in a practical, conversational style and full of real-world scenarios drawn from across education, this book is a practical compendium on qualitative research in education, ideal for graduate and advanced undergraduate research methods courses and early career researchers alike. Hear Marilyn discuss what inspired her to write this fourth edition and what readers can expect. In this podcast episode of The Qualitative Report, she discusses the various types of qualitative research and what defines quality and rigor, as well as current issues in education and how qualitative research methods can be used to address them. Finally, she shares her thoughts about technology and the future of qualitative research.

The SAGE Handbook of Qualitative Research in the Asian Context Safary Wa-Mbaleka, Arceli Rosario, 2022-05-05 Qualitative research is growing in Asia and globally. In an Asian context, this requires an awareness of a completely different set of norms, practices, and expectations than those covered by books from a Western perspective. This handbook truly celebrates these differences. Spanning the full research process from philosophy and ethics to design and methods and through data collection, management, analysis, and dissemination, it focuses specifically on the practicalities needed to conduct effective and culturally responsive research in the Asian context. This handbook extends beyond researchers actually in Asia and also speaks to researchers working with Asian participants researching in Asian immigrant neighbourhoods and studying the larger global topics like socioeconomic challenges climate change or technological advancement This is the first book to focus specifically on qualitative research in the Asian context and includes diverse contributors from Asia such as the Philippines Singapore Thailand India Oman China South Korea Indonesia Kazakhstan Hong Kong and from other continents such as North America South America Africa Europe and Oceania
