It covers virtually all the basic information that childhood educators need to know in order to be effective teachers and communicators. Which Way for Our Children? Alberta Munkres, 1936 Children's Spirituality, Second Edition Kevin E. Lawson, Scottie May, 2019-06-13 The Society of Children's Spirituality Christian Perspectives launched in 2003 with its first conference held at Concordia University Chicago in River Forest Illinois. An earlier edition of this book composed of chapters based on presentations from that conference was published in 2004. In 2018 a decision was made to revise this book from the inaugural conference updating some chapters and providing a new perspective on the ongoing work of the organization now called the Children's Spirituality Summit. For example, given the advances in what we are learning from brain research, a chapter on this topic has been extensively updated. What this revised volume provides is a collection of chapters offering theological perspectives, social science research and insights on ministry practice about the spiritual lives of children, how they relate to God, how this relationship grows and what helps in promoting the spiritual formation and vitality of children in the home, church and school. This book offers twenty-three chapters by professors, graduate students, social science researchers and ministry leaders from different denominational traditions addressing a wide range of issues in theory, research and ministry practice with children. This second edition offers much to learn from, stimulate your thinking and improve your practice. International Handbook of Education for Spirituality, Care and Wellbeing Marian de Souza, LESLIE J. FRANCIS, James O'Higgins-Norman, Daniel G. Scott, 2009-10-13 Acknowledging and understanding spiritual formation is vital in contemporary education. This book explores the dynamic relationship between education and wellbeing. It examines the theory underpinning the practice of education in different societies where spirituality and care are believed to be at the heart of all educational experiences. The book recognizes that regardless of the context or type of educational experience, education is a caring activity in which the development of the whole person, body, mind and spirit is a central aim for teachers and educators in both formal and informal learning. The chapters in this handbook present and discuss topics that focus on spirituality as an integral part of human experience and consequently essential to educational programs which aim to address personal and communal identity, foster resilience.

empathy and compassion and promote meaning and connectedness      Enduring Connections Janice A Haywood,2007-06-01 Enduring Connections gives churches and ministers significant guidelines for establishing a quality childhood ministry with preschoolers and grade schoolers Enduring Connections is especially helpful to ministers and directors of childhood ministry that are called from the laity to staff positions By focusing on building a childhood ministry that intentionally connects children to God and the community of faith through paths that are driven by relationship rather than programs Janice Haywood has produced a resource that will help churches of any size design their own unique ministry for children A TCP Leadership Series title      I Am Special Joan Ensor Plum,Paul S. Plum,1999-04      The Psychology of Religion, Fourth Edition Ralph W. Hood, Jr.,Peter C. Hill,Bernard Spilka,2009-07-15 Scholarly and comprehensive yet accessible this state of the science work is widely regarded as the definitive graduate level psychology of religion text The authors synthesize classic and contemporary empirical research on numerous different religious groups Coverage includes religious thought belief and behavior across the lifespan links between religion and biology the forms and meaning of religious experience the social psychology of religious organizations and connections to morality coping mental health and psychopathology Every chapter features thought provoking quotations and examples that bring key concepts to life New to This Edition Revised and updated with the latest theories methods and empirical findings Many new research examples Restructured with fewer chapters for better fit with a typical semester More attention to the differences between religion and spirituality Covers emerging topics genetics and neurobiology positive psychology atheism and more      How We Learn Klaus Issler,Ron Habermas,2002-05-17
No one fully understands how learning works but educational psychologists understand a great deal about what works The collaborative team of Klaus Issler and Ronald Habermas has assembled an integration of theology and instructional theory in Teaching for Reconciliation Foundations and Practice of Christian Educational Ministry Now they expound on one aspect of educational theory theology to help teachers choose the method that best reaches particular learners in a specific learning situation How We Learn demystifies the principles of educational psychology The book identifies means and barriers in learning motivational factors that make learners receptive learning s outcome in attitudes spirituality and behavior Application sections special exercises and examples plus dozens of figures and tables aid understanding of learning effectiveness age related development individual learning style special education and other issues      The Mystery of the Child Martin E. Marty,2007-04-23 Much of today s writing on children treats the child of any age as a problem or a set of problems to be solved effectively reducing the child to a complex of biological and chemical factors explainable in scientific terms or regarding children as objects of adult control In contrast Martin Marty here presents the child as a mystery who invokes wonder and elicits creative responses that affect the care provided him or her Drawing on literature as new as contemporary poetry and as old as the Bible The Mystery of the Child encourages the thoughtful enjoyment of children instead of the imposition of adult will and control Indeed Marty treats the impulse to control as a problem and highlights qualities associated with children responsiveness receptivity openness to wonder that can become sources of renewal for adults The Mystery of the Child represents a new tack for Martin Marty universally respected as a historian theologian and interpreter of religion and culture but displays the same incisive erudite quality marking the fifty plus books and thousands of articles that he has previously written Marty's broad thoughtful perspective will inspire readers to think afresh about what it means to be a child and to be a caregiver This book is sure to claim a wide readership parents grandparents schoolteachers theologians historians engaging anyone wanting to explore more fully the profound realm of the child Nurturing

Children's Spirituality Holly Allen, 2008-03-01 Children's spiritual development is currently a hot topic in Christian circles as well as in other fields and disciplines such as educational psychology medicine developmental psychology education and sociology The key question for Christian scholars and educators is How do Christian beliefs and practices uniquely interrelate with children's spirituality In 2003 and again in 2006 a national conference entitled Children's Spirituality Conference Christian Perspectives examined children's spirituality from a distinctly Christian standpoint This book is a collection of the best materials from the 2006 conference The first half of the book addresses definitional historical and theological concerns related to spiritual development in children The second half explores best practices for fostering spiritual growth among our children in our homes families churches Christian schools and among special populations of children from a wide spectrum of Christian scholars and practitioners The volume closes with John Westerhoff's moving keynote address and Catherine Stonehouse and Scottie May's eloquent culminating plenary address Nurturing Children's Spirituality provides a rich cross section of the current research and writing by Christian scholars on children's spirituality Contributors Holly Catterton Allen Michael J Anthony Stacy Berg Chris J Boyatzis MaLesia Breeding Marilyn Brownlee Linda V Callahan Jane Carr Mara Lief Crabtree Karen Crozier James Riley Estep Jr Jeffrey E Feinberg Stephanie Goins Judy Harris Helm Dana Kenamer Hood Sungwon Kim Kevin Lawson Scottie May Marcia McQuitty Heidi Schultz Oschwald Donald Ratcliff Pam Scranton Timothy A Sisemore Catherine Stonehouse La Verne Tolbert T Wyatt Watkins John H Westerhoff III

Teaching for Reconciliation Ron Habermas, 2001-11-28 Teaching For Reconciliation is an introductory resource that connects foundational issues of theology and the social sciences with practical topics of how to teach It is organized according to a comprehensive theory created by the educational philosopher William K Frankena The overarching objective is first reconciliation with God then with ourselves others and creation itself A Curriculum Design Manual for

Re-Enchanting Education and Spiritual Wellbeing Marian de Souza, Anna Halafoff, 2017-09-14 Education is in a constant state of renewal internationally where it responds to a number of pressing social political and cultural issues Processes of globalization a number of conflicts and acts of terror economic and environmental crises have led to large waves of migration and asylum seekers arriving in countries with the hope of finding safer and more stable places to settle This in turn has led to cultural and religious pluralism being a key characteristic of many societies with corresponding issues of belonging and identity As well for many people there has been a shifting influence of and allegiance away from traditional religious frameworks with the emergence of new religious movements both peaceful and violent and a rise in popularity of spirituality and non religious worldviews which provide alternate frameworks for living healthy and ethical lives In order to prepare today s student for tomorrow s world one which is confronted by a range of risks and crises and which is being shaped by rapidly changing technologies educators and researchers are investigating new ways of equipping students to deal with these challenges and opportunities including the nurturing of spiritual wellbeing This book brings together the voices of many experienced educators to discuss ways to re enchant education and re enliven learning programs in response to these 21st century issues in an increasingly global and interconnected world It examines a range of international contexts including secular and religious educational settings and provides an avenue for visionary voices that identify problems and offer solutions to help shape a more promising education system that will prepare children more constructively and beneficially to flourish in their future worlds
