Handbook of World History. Concepts and Issues. D. by Joseph Dunner,...., 1967 The Oxford Handbook of Cities in World History Peter Clark, 2013-02-14 In 2008 for the first time the majority of the planet's inhabitants lived in cities and towns Becoming globally urban has been one of mankind s greatest collective achievements over time and raises many questions How did global city systems evolve and interact in the past How have historic urban patterns impacted on those of the contemporary world And what were the key drivers in the roller coaster of urban change over the millennia market forces such as trade and industry rulers and governments competition and collaboration between cities or the urban environment and demographic forces This pioneering comparative work by leading scholars drawn from a range of disciplines offers the first detailed comparative study of urban development from ancient times to the present day The Oxford Handbook of Cities in World History explores not only the main trends in the growth of cities and towns across the world in Asia and the Middle East Europe Africa and the Americas and the different types of cities from great metropolitan centres to suburbs colonial cities and market towns but also many of the essential themes in the making and remaking of the urban world the role of power economic development migration social inequality environmental challenge and the urban response religion and representation cinema and urban creativity Split into three parts covering Ancient cities the medieval and early modern period and the modern and contemporary era it begins with an introduction by the editor identifying the importance and challenges of research on cities in world history as well as the crucial outlines of urban development since the earliest cities in ancient Mesopotamia to the present The Longman Handbook of World History Since 1914 Chris Cook, John Stevenson, 1991 A reference work for teachers and students of modern world history from 1914 to the late 1980s It brings together chronological statistical and tabular information and covers not only political and diplomatic events but the broader fields of social and economic history The Russian Empire 1450-1801 Nancy Shields Kollmann, 2017-02-09 Modern Russian identity and historical experience has been largely shaped by Russia's imperial past an empire that was founded in the early modern era and endures in large part today The Russian Empire 1450 1801 surveys how the areas that made up the empire were conquered and how they were governed It considers the Russian empire a Eurasian empire characterized by a politics of difference the rulers and their elites at the center defined the state s needs minimally with control over defense criminal law taxation and mobilization of resources and otherwise tolerated local religions languages cultures elites and institutions The center related to communities and religions vertically according each a modicum of rights and autonomies but didn t allow horizontal connections across nobilities townsmen or other groups potentially with common interests to coalesce Thus the Russian empire was multi ethnic and multi religious Nancy Kollmann gives detailed attention to the major ethnic and religious groups and surveys the government's strategies of governance centralized bureaucracy military reform and a changed judicial system The volume pays particular attention to the dissemination of a supranational ideology of political legitimacy in a variety of media written sources and primarily public ritual painting and particularly architecture Beginning with foundational features such as geography climate demography and geopolitical situation The Russian Empire 1450 1801 explores the empire's primarily agrarian economy serfdom towns and trade as well as the many religious groups primarily Orthodoxy Islam and Buddhism It tracks the emergence of an Imperial nobility and a national self consciousness that was by the end of the eighteenth century distinctly imperial embracing the diversity of the empire s many peoples and Hand Book of World History Sunjoy K. Singh, 2015 The Oxford Handbook of European History, 1914-1945 Nicholas Doumanis, 2016-05-05 The period spanning the two World Wars was unquestionably the most catastrophic in Europe's history Despite such undeniably progressive developments as the radical expansion of women's suffrage and rising health standards the era was dominated by political violence and chronic instability Its symbols were Verdun Guernica and Auschwitz By the end of this dark period tens of millions of Europeans had been killed and more still had been displaced and permanently traumatized If the nineteenth century gave Europeans cause to regard the future with a sense of optimism the early twentieth century had them anticipating the destruction of civilization. The fact that so many revolutions regime changes dictatorships mass killings and civil wars took place within such a compressed time frame suggests that Europe experienced a general crisis The Oxford Handbook of European History 1914 1945 reconsiders the most significant features of this calamitous age from a transnational perspective It demonstrates the degree to which national experiences were intertwined with those of other nations and how each crisis was implicated in wider regional continental and global developments Readers will find innovative and stimulating chapters on various political social and economic subjects by some of the leading scholars working on modern European history today Teaching World History: A Resource Book Heidi Roupp, 2015-03-04 A resource book for teachers of world history at all levels The text contains individual sections on art gender religion philosophy literature trade and technology Lesson plans reading and multi media recommendations and suggestions for classroom activities are also provided The Oxford Handbook of the History of Nationalism John Breuilly, 2013-03-07 The Oxford Handbook of the History of Nationalism comprises thirty six essays by an international team of leading scholars providing a global coverage of the history of nationalism in its different aspects ideas sentiments and politics Every chapter takes the form of an interpretative essay which by a combination of thematic focus comparison and regional perspective enables the reader to understand nationalism as a distinct and global historical subject The book covers the emergence of nationalist ideas sentiments and cultural movements before the formation of a world of nation states as well as nationalist politics before and after the era of the nation state with chapters covering Europe the Middle East North East Asia South Asia Southeast Asia sub Saharan Africa and the Americas Essays on everday national sentiment and race ideas in fascism are accompanied by chapters on nationalist movements opposed to existing nation states nationalism and international relations and the role of external intervention into nationalist disputes within states In addition the book looks at the major challenges to nationalism international socialism religion pan nationalism and globalization before a final section considering how historians have approached the subject of nationalism Taken separately the chapters in this Handbook will deepen understanding of nationalism in particular times and places taken together they will enable the reader to see nationalism as a distinct subject in modern world history A Companion to World History Douglas Northrop, 2014-12-15 A COMPANION TOWORLD HISTORY This new volume offers insightful reflections by both leading and emerging world historians on approaches methodologies arguments and pedagogies of a sub discipline that has continued to be in flux as well as in need of defining itself as a relevant alternative to the traditional national regional or chronological fields of inquiry Choice The focus on the practicalities of how to do world history probably gives it its edge Its thirty three chapters are grouped into sections that address how to set up research projects in world history how to teach it how to get jobs in it how to frame it and how it is done in various parts of the globe It is an actual handbook in other words as opposed to a sample of exemplary work English Historical Review A Companion to World History offers a comprehensive overview of the variety of approaches and practices utilized in the field of world and global history. This state of the art collection of more than 30 insightful essays including contributions from an international cast of leading world historians and emerging scholars in the field identifies continuing areas of contention disagreement and divergence while pointing out fruitful directions for further discussion and research Themes and topics explored include the lineages and trajectories of world history key ideas and methods employed by world historians the teaching of world history and how it draws upon and challenges traditional approaches and global approaches to writing world history By considering these interwoven issues of scholarship and pedagogy from a transnational interregional and world global scale fresh insights are gained and new challenges posed With its rich compendium of diverse viewpoints A Companion to World History is an essential resource for the study of the world s Johann Christoph Blumhardt, Life and Work Dieter Ising, 2009-08-01 Johann Christoph Blumhardt 1805 1880 was a past pastoral counselor and theologian of hope His theology and pastoral approach shaped as they were by the awakening in his congregation and numerous incidents of faith healing provoked earnest and lively debate and the controversy continues today Ising s work mines the original sources the product of an interaction with Blumhardt s life and work that goes back many years He has drawn a portrait that explores the shadows as well as its bright side Readers are invited to enter fully into the nineteenth century Blumhardt's century yet are constantly reminded that the problems of that day have lost none of their currency within the altered mental horizons of today Resources in Education ,1999 Central Asia and the Silk Road Stephan Barisitz, 2017-04-28 This book offers a comprehensive overview of the pre modern economic history of Central Asia and the Silk Road covering several millennia By analyzing an abundance of sources and materials it illustrates the repeated economic heydays of the Silk Road during which it linked the Orient and Occident for many centuries Nomadic steppe empires frequently dominated Central Asia molded its economy and influenced trade along the Silk Road The book assesses the causes and effects of the wide ranging overland trade booms while also discussing various internal and external factors that led to the gradual economic decline of Central Asia and eventual demise of the Silk Road Lastly it explains how the economic decline gave rise to Chinese and Russian colonialism in the 18th and 19th centuries Detailed information e g on the Silk Road's trajectories in various epochs is offered in the form of numerous newly drafted maps Global Entanglements of a Man Who Never Traveled Dominic Sachsenmaier, 2018-05-29 Born into a low level literati family in the port city of Ningbo the seventeenth century Chinese Christian convert Zhu Zongyuan likely never left his home province Yet Zhu nonetheless led a remarkably globally connected life His relations with the outside world ranging from scholarly activities to involvement with globalizing Catholicism put him in contact with a complex and contradictory set of foreign and domestic forces In Global Entanglements of a Man Who Never Traveled Dominic Sachsenmaier explores the mid seventeenth century world and the worldwide flows of ideas through the lens of Zhu s life combining the local regional and global Taking particular aspects of Zhu s multiple belongings as a starting point Sachsenmaier analyzes the contexts that framed his worlds as he balanced a local life and his border crossing faith At the local level the book pays attention to the intellectual political and social environments of late Ming and early Qing society including Confucian learning and the Manchu conquest questioning the role of ethnic and religious identities At the global level it considers how individuals like Zhu were situated within the history of organizations and power structures such as the Catholic Church and early modern empires amid larger transformations and encounters A strikingly original work this book is a major contribution to East Asian transnational and global history with important implications for historical approaches and methodologies Emerging Powers in Eurasian Comparison, 200-1100, 2022-11-07 This book compares the ways in which new powers arose in the shadows of the Roman Empire and its Byzantine and Carolingian successors of Iran the Caliphate and China in the first millennium CE These new powers were often established by external military elites who had served the empire They remained in an uneasy balance with the remaining empire could eventually replace it or be drawn into the imperial sphere again Some relied on dynastic legitimacy others on ethnic identification while most of them sought imperial legitimation Across Eurasia their dynamic was similar in many respects why were the outcomes so different Contributors are Alexander Beihammer Maaike van Berkel Francesco Borri Andrew Chittick Michael R Drompp Stefan Esders Ildar Garipzanov J rgen Paul Walter Pohl Johannes Preiser Kapeller Helmut Reimitz Jonathan Shepard Q Edward Wang Veronika Wieser and Ian N Wood African Economic Development Christopher Cramer, John Sender, Arkebe Oqubay, 2020 This book challenges conventional wisdoms about economic performance and possible policies for economic development in African countries Its starting point is the striking variation in African economic performance Unevenness and inequalities form a central fact of African economic experiences The authors highlight not only differences between countries but also variations within countries differences often organized around distinctions of gender class and ethnic identity For example neo natal mortality and school dropout have been reduced particularly for some classes of women in some areas of Africa Horticultural and agribusiness exports have grown far more rapidly in some countries than in others These variations and many others point to opportunities for changing performance reducing inequalities learning from other policy experiences and escaping the ties of structure and the legacies of a colonial past The book rejects teleological illusions and Eurocentric prejudice but it does pay close attention to the results of policy in more industrialized parts of the world Seeing the contradictions of capitalism for what they are fundamental and enduring may help policy officials protect themselves against the misleading idea that development can be expected to be a smooth linear process or that it would be were certain impediments suddenly removed The authors criticize a wide range of orthodox and heterodox economists especially for their cavalier attitude to evidence Drawing on their own decades of research and policy experience they combine careful use of available evidence from a range of African countries with political economy insights mainly derived from Kalecki Kaldor and Hischman to make the policy case for specific types of public sector investment A Global Radical Waterfront Holger Weiss, 2021-07-05 This volume investigates the ambition of the Red International of Labour Unions to radicalize the global waterfront during the interwar period The main vehicle was the International Propaganda Committee of Transport Workers replaced in 1930 by the International of Seamen and Harbour Workers as well as their agitation and propaganda centres the International Harbour Bureaus and the International Seamen's Clubs The book scrutinizes their solidarity campaigns in support of local and national strikes as well as on their agitation against discrimination segregation and racism within the unions their demands to organize non white maritime transport workers and their calls for engagement in anti fascist anti war and anti imperialist actions Forged in Genocide William Blakemore Lyon, 2024-07-22 Forged in Genocide traces the early history of colonial capitalism in Namibia with a central focus on migrants who came to be key to the economy during and as a result of the German genocide of the Herero and Nama 1904 1908 It posits that Namibia far from being a colonial backwater of the early 20th century became highly integrated into the labor flows and economies of West and Southern Africa and even for a time was one of the most sought after regions for African migrants because of relatively high wages and numerous opportunities resulting from the war s demographic devastation paired with an economic frenzy following the discovery of diamonds In highlighting the life stories of migrants in Namibia from regions as diverse as the Kru coast of Liberia the Eastern Cape of South Africa and the Ovambo polities of Northern Namibia this work integrates micro history into larger African continental trends Building off of written sources from migrants themselves and utilising the Namibian Worker Database constructed for this project this book explores the lives of workers in early colonial Namibia in a way that has hereto not been attempted Global Agricultural Workers from the 17th to the 21st Century ,2022-12-19 Agricultural workers have long been underrepresented in labour history This volume aims to change this by bringing together a collection of studies on the largest group of the global work force The contributions cover the period from the early modern to the present a period when the emergence and consolidation of capitalism has transformed rural areas all over the globe Three questions have guided the approach and the structure of this volume First how and why have peasant families managed to survive under conditions of advancing commercialisation and industrialisation Second why have coercive labour relations been so persistent in the agricultural sector and third what was the role of states in the recruitment of agricultural workers Contributors are Elise van Nederveen Meerkerk Josef Ehmer Katherine Jellison Juan Carmona James Simpson Sophie Elpers Debojyoti Das Lozaan Khumbah Karl Heinz Arenz Leida Fernandez Prieto Rachel Kurian Rafael Marquese Bruno Gabriel Witzel de Souza Rog rio Naques Faleiros Alessandro Stanziani Alexander Keese Dina Bolokan and Janina Puder
