subject from the perspective of European Union law and constitutional law

The European Arrest Warrant and EU Citizenship Joske Graat, 2022-09-09 This book offers an in depth analysis of the relationship between EU citizenship the European arrest warrant EAW and the legality principle It focuses on the role of the EAW in relation to two foreseeability problems with which EU citizens especially those who exercise free movement rights could be confronted These problems concern the foreseeability of specific national criminal laws at the time of the offense on the one hand and forum decisions on the other The first part of the book addresses the extent to which these foreseeability problems and the role of the EAW therein are viewed as legality problems at the EU level and in three national legal orders the Netherlands Germany and England and Wales In turn the second part of the book critically examines the current scope and content of the legality principle in light of the EU s objective to offer its citizens an Area of Freedom Security and Justice AFSJ in which both safety and free movement are guaranteed As EU citizens often encounter foreseeability problems when exercising their free movement rights it is argued that they should be protected by a transnational framework of fundamental rights The book subsequently makes recommendations for a transnational interpretation of the legality principle one which fits the normative context of the AFSJ as described in Article 3 2 TEU On the basis of the evolution of EU citizenship over time the book also develops two EU citizenship narratives and explains how they could contribute to transnational fundamental rights protection and a solution to foreseeability problems With regard to arriving at concrete solutions the book offers recommendations for EU legislation that could adequately remedy foreseeability problems and the role of the EAW therein

Crime within the Area of Freedom, Security and Justice Christina Eckes, Theodore Konstadinides, 2011-01-20 The Europeanisation of the fight against crime is a broad and much contested notion This in depth analysis of the role of the EU in fighting crime within the area of freedom security and justice explores the impact of EU policies in the Member States the progressive convergence of Member States criminal law systems the emergence of mutual recognition as an alternative to harmonization and the incremental development of the ECJ s jurisdiction The essays also explore the limitations inherent in EU counter crime policies and the changes brought about by the introduction of the Treaty of Lisbon These changes are discussed both collectively and within individual substantive areas in which the EU has taken an active role in fighting crime such as corruption money laundering terrorism organised crime and extradition

International Criminal Law Ilias Bantekas, Susan Nash, 2009-06-02 Providing an introduction to and detailed examination of substantive enforcement and procedural aspects of international criminal law this book s examination of international and transnational crimes under treaty and customary law has been fully updated and revised Exploring the enforcement of international criminal law through an investigation of the practice of the Security Council based tribunals for Yugoslavia and Rwanda the International Criminal Court and other hybrid tribunals such as those for Cambodia Sierra Leone Lockerbie and truth commissions the authors look at terrorism offences against the person piracy and jurisdiction and immunities amongst a variety of other topics New to this edition are four additional chapters on various forms of liability and participation in international crime war crimes crimes against humanity genocide and illegal rendition This is an ideal text for undergraduate and postgraduate students of law or international relations practitioners and those interested in gaining an insight into international criminal law

Proportionality in Crime Control and Criminal Justice Emmanouil Billis, Nandor Knust, Jon Petter Rui, 2021-04-22 This edited volume seeks to reassess the old and to analyse and develop novel approaches to the notion of proportionality in criminal matters and the new security architecture The discourse is not limited to conventional constitutional constellations and standard problems of sentencing in traditional criminal proceedings Rather the book offers an interdisciplinary and cross jurisdictional exploration of highly topical proportionality related issues pertinent to penal theory and legal philosophy criminalisation policies security and anti terrorism strategies alternative types of justice delivery and supranational enforcement as well as human rights and international criminal and humanitarian law In today's global risk society with its numerous visible and invisible enemies of the state and the individual balancing freedom and security has become nothing less than an attempt at untying a Gordian knot Against this background the proportionality of measures of crime prevention and repression is unquestionably an issue of utmost importance which basic research and legal policy in rule of law based systems are urgently called to address The timely and fascinating contributions in this book covering jurisdictions from both the common law and the civil law as well as hybrid and international jurisdictions will appeal to academics researchers policy advisers and practitioners working in the areas of national and international criminal law comparative criminal justice criminology and legal philosophy as well as constitutional and security law

European Evidence Warrant John A. E. Vervaele, 2005 The transnational gathering and use of criminal evidence is a complex and sensitive matter that affects basic principles inherent in national criminal justice systems Replacing the mutual assistance regime letters rogatory by a mutual recognition regime intends to facilitate the admissibility of evidence obtained from the territory of another Member State How much harmonization of criminal procedure is needed to guarantee the free movement of criminal evidence in the EU Do we have to develop common procedural safeguards in the EU or can we build in human rights clauses or procedural public order clauses by which respect for fundamental rights can be a ground for the non recognition non execution or postponement of the order from the issuing state John Vervaele is Professor in Economic and Financial Criminal Law at the University of Utrecht and Professor in European Criminal Law at the College of Europe of Bruges The main topics in his research field are enforcement of Union law standards of due law procedural safeguards and human rights criminal law and procedure an regional integration comparative economic and financial criminal law He has realized a lot of research in these areas both for Dutch Departments and European Institutions and also worked as a consultant for them
