Mohr, Kirsten Sandrock, 2025-03-31 Perhaps more timely than ever Margaret Atwood's Aesthetics offers novel perspectives on both contemporary and canonical topics in Margaret Atwood's work with a special focus on the intersections of literature and politics Arguably one of the most political writers of our times Atwood's oeuvre subtly and overtly entangles readers in the dialectics of personal and political power asymmetries intrinsic to her aesthetic practices The collection takes its cue from the concept of the artpolitical as coined by Crispin Sartwell whose afterword addresses Atwood's aesthetic and imaginative material world construction and explores the interrelationship between literatures and aesthetic as well as political systems in Atwood's works Individual chapters of

Feminism and the Postmodern Impulse Magali Cornier Michael, 1996-07-03 Michael analyzes the intersections between feminist politics and postmodern aesthetics as demonstrated in recent Anglo American fiction While much has been written on various aspects of postmodernism and postmodern fiction and of feminism and feminist fiction very little attention has been given to the postmodern aesthetic strategies that surface in post World War II feminist fiction Feminism and the Postmodern Impulse examines ways in which many widely read and acclaimed novels with feminist impulses engage and transform subversive aesthetic strategies usually associated with postmodern fiction to strengthen their feminist political edge The author discusses many examples of recent feminist postmodern fiction and explores in greater depth Doris Lessing's The Golden Notebook Marge Piercy's Woman on the Edge of Time Margaret Atwood's The Handmaid's Tale and Angela Carter's Nights at the Circus She shows that feminist postmodern fiction's emphasis on the material historical situation the link to activist politics and commitment to enacting concrete changes in the world and thus the need to reach a large reading public often results in a blending and transformation of postmodern and realist aesthetic forms Moreover feminist fiction uses deconstructive strategies not only to disrupt the status quo but also to create a space for reconstruction particularly of recreating new forms of female subjectivities and feminist aesthetics

Tolerance and Risk Mitra Rastegar, 2021-09-07 How apparently positive representations of Muslims in U S media cast Muslims as a racial population Portrayals of Muslims as the beneficiaries of liberal values have contributed to the racialization of Muslims as a risky population since the September 11 attacks These discourses which hold up some Muslims as worthy of tolerance or sympathy reinforce an unstable good Muslim bad Muslim binary where any Muslim might be moved from one side to the other In Tolerance and Risk Mitra Rastegar explores these discourses as a component of the racialization of Muslims where Muslims are portrayed as a highly diverse population that nevertheless is seen to contain within it a threat that requires constant vigilance. Tolerance and Risk brings together several case studies to examine the interrelation of representations of Muslims abroad and in the United States. These include human interest stories and opinion polls of Muslim Americans, media representations of education activist Malala Yousafzai, LGBTQ activist discourses, local New York controversies surrounding Muslim-led public projects, and social media discourses of the Syrian refugee crisis. Tolerance and Risk demonstrates how representations of tolerable or sympathetic Muslims produce them as a population with distinct characteristics, capacities, and risks, and circulate standards by which the trustworthiness or threat of individual Muslims must be assessed. Tolerance and Risk examines the ways that discourses of liberal rights, including feminist and LGBTQ rights discourses, are mobilized to racialize Muslims as uncivilized, even as they garner sympathy and identification with some Muslims.
