Cinema of Disorientation Dominic Lash, 2020-07-06 Precisely perhaps because they are so immediately absorbing narrative films can also be profoundly confusing and disorienting This fascinating book neither proposes foolproof methods for avoiding confusion nor does it suggest that disorientation is always a virtue Instead it argues that the best way to come to terms with our confusion is to look closely at exactly what is confusing us and why At the heart of the book are original close readings of four important recent films David Lynch's INLAND EMPIRE 2006 Leos Carax's Holy Motors 2012 Pedro Costa's Colossal Youth 2006 and Jean Luc Godard's Goodbye to Language 2014 Clearly written but critically and theoretically bold The Cinema of Disorientation Inviting Confusions explores both how we get or fail to get our bearings with respect to a film and what we might discover by and while doing so

The Rebirth of Suspense Rick Warner, 2024-09-17 Typically films are suspenseful when they keep us on the edge of our seats when glimpses of a turning doorknob a ticking clock or a looming silhouette quicken our pulses Exemplified by Alfred Hitchcock's masterworks and the countless thrillers they influenced such films captivate viewers with propulsive plots that spur emotional investment in the fates of protagonists Suspense might therefore seem to be a curious concept to associate with art films featuring muted characters serene landscapes and unrushed rhythms in which plot is secondary to mood and tone This ambitious and wide ranging book offers a redefinition of suspense by considering its unlikely incarnations in the contemporary films that have been called slow cinema Rick Warner shows how slowness builds suspense through atmospheric immersion narrative sparseness and the withholding of information causing viewers to oscillate among boredom curiosity and dread He focuses on works in which suspense arises where the boundaries between art cinema and popular genres such as horror thriller science fiction and gothic melodrama become indefinite including Chantal Akerman's La captive Apichatpong Weerasethakul

s Memoria Jonathan Glazer s Under the Skin Kelly Reichardt s Night Moves Lucrecia Martel s Zama Kiyoshi Kurosawa s Creepy and David Lynch s Twin Peaks The Return Warner investigates the pivotal role of sound in generating suspense and traces how the experience of suspense has changed in the era of digital streaming The Rebirth of Suspense develops a fresh theory history typology and analysis of suspense that casts new light on the workings of films across global cinema The Royal Wulff Murders Keith McCafferty,2013-01-29 The first novel in the clever and fast paced Sean Stranahan Mystery Series A Death in Eden the seventh in the series is now available When a fishing guide reels in the body of a young man on the Madison the Holy Grail of Montana trout rivers Sheriff Martha Ettinger suspects foul play It s not just the stick jammed into the man s eye that draws her attention it s the Royal Wulff trout fly stuck in his bloated lower lip Following her instincts Ettinger soon finds herself crossing paths with Montana newcomer Sean Stranahan Fly fisher painter and has been private detective Stranahan left a failed marriage and lackluster career to drive to Montana where he lives in an art studio decorated with fly tying feathers and mouse droppings With more luck catching fish than clients Stranahan is completely captivated when Southern siren Velvet Lafayette walks into his life intent on hiring his services to find her missing brother The clues lead Stranahan and Ettinger back to Montana s Big Business fly fishing Where there s money there s bound to be crime
