Cultures of Diplomacy

and Literary Writing in the Early Modern World Tracey A. Sowerby, Joanna Craigwood, 2019-06-20 This interdisciplinary volume explores core emerging themes in the study of early modern literary diplomatic relations developing essential methods of analysis and theoretical approaches that will shape future research in the field Contributions focus on three intimately related areas the impact of diplomatic protocol on literary production the role of texts in diplomatic practice particularly those that operated as textual ambassadors and the impact of changes in the literary sphere on diplomatic culture The literary sphere held such a central place because it gave diplomats the tools to negotiate the pervasive ambiguities of diplomacy simultaneously literary depictions of diplomacy and international law provided genre shaped places for cultural reflection on the rapidly changing and expanding diplomatic sphere Translations exemplify the potential of literary texts both to provoke competition and to promote cultural convergence between political communities revealing the existence of diplomatic third spaces in which ritual symbolic or written conventions and semantics converged despite particular oppositions and differences The increasing public consumption of diplomatic material in Europe illuminates diplomatic and literary communities and exposes the translocal as well as the transnational geographies of literary diplomatic exchanges Diplomatic texts possessed symbolic capital They were produced archived and even redeployed in creative tension with the social and ceremonial worlds that produced them Appreciating the generic conventions of specific types of diplomatic texts can radically reshape our interpretation of diplomatic encounters just as exploring the afterlives of diplomatic records can transform our appreciation of the histories and literatures they inspired

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2004 Imagination and Fantasy in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Time Albrecht Classen, 2020-08-24 The notions of other peoples cultures and natural conditions have always been determined by the epistemology of imagination and fantasy providing much freedom and creativity and yet have also created much fear anxiety and horror In this regard the pre modern world demonstrates striking parallels with our own insofar as the projections of alterity might be different by degrees but they are fundamentally the same by content Dreams illusions projections concepts hopes utopias dystopias desires and emotional attachments are as specific and impactful as the physical environment This volume thus sheds important light on the various lenses used by people in the Middle Ages and the early modern age as to how they came to terms with their perceptions images and notions Previous scholarship focused heavily on the history of mentality and history of emotions whereas here the history of pre modern imagination and fantasy assumes center position Imaginary things are taken seriously because medieval and early modern writers and artists clearly reveal their great significance in their works and their daily lives This approach facilitates a new deep structure analysis of pre modern culture

Duin, Craig J. Hansen, 2013-11-05 In this volume methodological cultural technological and political boundaries felt by writers are analyzed translated and challenged in a way that will appeal to researchers theorists graduate students instructors and managerial audiences Instead of extracting rules from previous research the contributors working from multidisciplinary perspectives describe and analyze the social and technological contexts surrounding nonacademic writing Their essays present a formative rather than summative outlook toward future research on nonacademic writing Collectively these chapters articulate a unique perspective toward nonacademic writing that considers The centrality of emerging communications technologies in nonacademic writing research and the need for a socio technological perspective New technologies reshape the concept of text and significantly impact the writing process and written products in nonacademic settings The relationship between the academy and the workplace A number of chapters challenge us sometimes from opposing perspectives to scrutinize our role as writing educators in preparing students for the workplace Should we support the interests of corporate employers or should we resist those interests Should we enculturate students in workplace writing practices by placing them in these environments or should we examine the tacit knowledge gained by workplace professionals and deliver this via classroom instruction New theory new research agendas Contributors from diverse fields offer new theoretical lenses or use established lenses in innovative ways expanding the agenda for nonacademic writing research This volume represents the vision the social landscape demands for research and pedagogy in nonacademic writing

Freedom, Imprisonment, and Slavery in the Pre-Modern World Albrecht Classen, 2021-04-19 Contrary to common assumptions medieval and early modern writers and poets often addressed the high value of freedom whether we think of such fable authors as Marie de France or Ulrich Bonerius Similarly medieval history knows of numerous struggles by various peoples to maintain their own freedom or political independence Nevertheless as this study illustrates throughout the pre modern period the loss of freedom could happen quite easily affecting high and low including kings and princes and there are many literary texts and historical documents that address the problems of imprisonment and even enslavement Georgius of Hungary Johann Schiltberger Hans Ulrich Krafft etc Simultaneously philosophers and theologians discussed intensively the fundamental question regarding free will e g Augustine and political freedom e g John of Salisbury Moreover quite a large number of major pre modern poets spent a long time in prison where they composed some of their major works Boethius Marco Polo Charles d Orl ans Thomas Malory etc This book brings to light a vast range of relevant sources that confirm the existence of this fundamental and impactful discourse on freedom imprisonment and enslavement Prof Albrecht Classen is the joint winner of The Literary Encyclopedia book prize for 2023 Literatures written in languages other than English for this book https://www.litencyc.com/book/prizes/book_prizes_2023.php

Visual Culture and Mathematics in the Early Modern Period Ingrid Alexander-Skipnes, 2017-01-06 During the early modern period there was a natural correspondence between how artists might benefit from the knowledge of mathematics and how mathematicians might explore through advances in the study of visual culture new areas of enquiry that would uncover the mysteries of the visible world This volume makes its contribution by offering new interdisciplinary approaches that not only investigate perspective but also examine how mathematics enriched aesthetic theory and the human mind The contributors explore the portrayal of mathematical activity and mathematicians as well as their ideas and instruments how artists displayed their mathematical skills and the choices visual artists made between geometry and arithmetic as well as Euclid s impact on drawing artistic practice and theory These chapters cover a broad geographical area that includes Italy Switzerland Germany the Netherlands France and England The artists philosophers and mathematicians whose work is discussed include Leon Battista Alberti Nicholas Cusanus Marsilio Ficino Francesco di Giorgio Leonardo da Vinci and Andrea del Verrocchio as well as Michelangelo Galileo Piero della Francesca Girard Desargues William Hogarth Albrecht D rer Luca Pacioli and Raphael
