Enchanting The Eye Dutch Paintings Of Th:

Enchanting the Eye Christopher Lloyd, 2004 The Royal Collection contains some of the finest Dutch paintings of the 17th century in existence This book provides the reader with an accessible and illustrated guide to the subject and to the major works from the period in the Royal Collection Art, Ethics and the Human-Animal Relationship Linda

Johnson, 2021-09-20 This book examines the works of major artists between the seventeenth and nineteenth centuries as important barometers of individual and collective values toward non human life Once viewed as merely representational these works can also be read as tangential or morally instrumental by way of formal analysis and critical theories Chapter Two demonstrates the discrimination toward large and small felines in Genesis and The Book of Revelation Chapter Three explores the cruel capture of free roaming animals and how artists depicted their furs feathers and shells in costume as symbols of virtue and vice Chapter Four identifies species beliefs between donkeys and horses Chapter Five explores the altered Dutch kitchen spaces and disguised food animals in various culinary constructs in still life painting Chapter Six explores the animal substances embedded in pigments Chapter Seven examines animals in absentia in the crafting of brushes The book concludes with the fish paintings of William Merritt Chase whose glazing techniques demonstrate an artistic approach that honors fishes as sentient beings The Routledge Companion to Race in Early Modern Artistic,

Material, and Visual Production Nicholas R. Jones, Christina H. Lee, Dominique E. Polanco, 2025-05-30 This companion analyzes frames and provokes race in insightful ways that center non white communities artistic and visual expression in the early modern period rather than presenting the bias of European artistic and visual depictions of the colonization enslavement and subordination of People of Color The organization of the book moves chronologically taking a conceptual and thematic framework This collection provides a spectrum of object ased case studies of artistic production bjects and object types rom six continents between the 1400s and 1800s Contributions take an art historical approach characterized by a close analysis of form function and meaning with a particular focus on questions of cross ultural dialog and provenance Additionally there is an emphasis on material culture The book will interest scholars working in African diaspora studies art history visual culture material culture Indigenous studies Renaissance studies musicology early modern studies decolonial studies and race and racism studies Back to Nature Robert Watson, 2013-05-29 Selected by Choice magazine as an Outstanding Academic Title Sweeping across scholarly disciplines Back to Nature shows that from the moment of their conception modern ecological and epistemological anxieties were conjoined twins Urbanization capitalism Protestantism colonialism revived Skepticism empirical science and optical technologies conspired to alienate people from both the earth and reality itself in the seventeenth century Literary and visual arts explored the resulting cultural wounds expressing the pain and proposing some ingenious cures The stakes Robert N Watson demonstrates were huge Shakespeare s comedies Marvell s pastoral lyrics Traherne s visionary Centuries and Dutch painting all illuminate a fierce submerged debate about what love of nature has to do with perception of reality Imagining Organizations Paolo Quattrone, Nigel Thrift, Chris Mclean, Francois-Regis Puyou, 2013-06-17 Organizations rely extensively upon a myriad of images and pictorial representations such as budgets schedules reports graphs and organizational charts to name but a few Visual images play an integral role in the process of organizing This volume argues that images in organizations are performative meaning that they can be seen as performances rather than mere representations that play a significant role in all kind of organizational activities Imagining Organizations opens up new ways of imagining business through an interdisciplinary approach that captures the role of visualizations and their performances Contributions to this volume challenge this orthodox view to explore how images in business organizing and organizations are viewed in a static and rigid form Imagining Business addresses the question of how we visualize organizations and their activities as an important aspect of managerial work focusing on practices and performances organizing and ordering and media and technologies Moreover it aims to provide a focal point for the growing collection of studies that explore how various business artifacts draw on the power of the visual to enable various forms of organizing and organizations in diverse contexts Amorous Intrigues and Painterly

Refinement : the Art of Frans Van Mieris Quentin Buvelot, Frans van Mieris, Otto Naumann, E. de Jongh, 2005 This lavishly illustrated book includes all of van Mieris 35 paintings and ten of his drawings reproduced in full color and accompanied by brief explanatory commentaries Included are essays on the artist s life the development of his oeuvre and appreciation of his work through the centuries The Art Quarterly of the National Art Collections Fund ,2005 Dutch Landscapes
