Selling Black Brazil Anadelia Romo,2022-01-18 In the early twentieth century Brazil shifted from a nation intent on whitening its population to one billing itself as a racial democracy Anadelia Romo shows that this shift centered in Salvador Bahia where throughout the 1950s modernist artists and intellectuals forged critical alliances with Afro Brazilian religious communities of Candomblé to promote their culture and their city These efforts combined with a growing promotion of tourism to transform what had been one of the busiest slaving depots in the Americas into a popular tourist enclave celebrated for its rich Afro Brazilian culture Vibrant illustrations and texts by the likes of Jorge Amado Pierre Verger and others contributed to a distinctive iconography of the city with Afro Bahians at its center But these optimistic visions of inclusion Romo reveals concealed deep racial inequalities Illustrating how these visual archetypes laid the foundation for Salvador's modern racial landscape this book unveils the ways ethnic and racial populations have been both included and excluded not only in Brazil but in Latin America as a whole

Tales of the Enchanted Islands of the Atlantic Thomas Wentworth Higginson,1898 Hawthorne in his Wonder Book has described the beautiful Greek myths and traditions but no one has yet made similar use of the wondrous tales that gathered for more than a thousand years about the islands of the Atlantic deep Although they are a part of the mythical period of American history these hazy legends were altogether disdained by the earlier historians indeed George Bancroft made it a matter of actual pride that the beginning of the American annals was bare and literal But in truth no national history has been less prosaic as to its earlier traditions because every visitor had to cross the sea to reach it and the sea has always been by the mystery of its horizon the fury of its storms and the variableness of the atmosphere above it the foreordained land of romance Thomas Wentworth Higginson

Flagging Patriotism Ella Shohat, Robert Stam, 2013-10-18 The question Why do they hate us is one of the most oft cited puzzles of contemporary American affairs yet it's not clear to whom they or us refers nor even what hate means In this bold new work Ella Shohat and Robert Stam take apart the hate discourse of right wing politics placing it in an international context How for example do other nations love themselves and how is that love connected to their attitudes toward America Is love of country monogamous or can one love many countries When can a country's self love be a symptom of self hatred Drawing upon their extensive experience with South American European and Middle Eastern societies the authors have written a long engagement with a problem that refuses to go away Flagging Patriotism considers these complex features of being patriotic and in so doing insists that the idea of patriotism instead of being rejected or embraced be accorded the complex identity it possesses
