Enchantment Of Modern Life Attachments Crossings And Ethi:

The Enchantment of Modern Life Jane Bennett, 2016-11-22 It is a commonplace that the modern world cannot be experienced as enchanted that the very concept of enchantment belongs to past ages of superstition Jane Bennett challenges that view She seeks to rehabilitate enchantment showing not only how it is still possible to experience genuine wonder but how such experience is crucial to motivating ethical behavior A creative blend of political theory philosophy and literary studies this book is a powerful and innovative contribution to an emerging interdisciplinary conversation about the deep connections between ethics aesthetics and politics As Bennett describes it enchantment is a sense of openness to the unusual the captivating and the disturbing in everyday life She guides us through a wide and often surprising range of sources of enchantment showing that we can still find enchantment in nature for example but also in such unexpected places as modern technology advertising and even bureaucracy She then explains how everyday moments of enchantment can be cultivated to build an ethics of generosity stimulating the emotional energy and honing the perceptual refinement necessary to follow moral codes Throughout Bennett draws on thinkers and writers as diverse as Kant Schiller Thoreau Kafka Marx Weber Adorno and Deleuze With its range and daring The Enchantment of Modern Life is a provocative challenge to the centuries old narrative of disenchantment one that presents a new alter tale that discloses our profound attachment to the human and nonhuman world

Slow Culture and the American Dream Mary Caputi, 2022-06-01 Is the USA hospitable to the slow movement The land of fast food get rich quick schemes and 24 7 news feeds In Slow Culture and the American Dream A Slow and Curvy Philosophy for the Twenty First Century Mary Caputi argues that the slow movement has much to teach the United States at this moment in time Although slow philosophy is in many ways opposite to the prevalent American Dream the current cultural setting demands that we heed its teachings The climate crisis should make us rethink our fast paced ever accelerating lifestyle so that we can lighten our carbon footprint and decelerate if not reverse the damage done to the planet Equally important however is the movement s mandate that we slow down and savor life focusing on quality beauty and calm rather than quantity and speed Slow Food Cittaslow slow cities slow fashion slow travel and slow parenting are examples of a philosophy that seeks to shift our focus away from progress as currently understood and revalue quality of life issues

Drawing deeply on her involvement with Slow Food and Cittaslow the author advocates mainstreaming the philosophy of slow and thus reprioritizing the American Dream in ways that sustain the planet and teach Americans to develop a more refined aesthetic principle

The Enchantments of Mammon Eugene McCarraher, 2019-11-12 An extraordinary work of intellectual history as well as a scholarly tour de force a bracing polemic and a work of Christian prophecy McCarraher challenges more than 200 years of post Enlightenment assumptions about the way we live and work The Observer At least since Max Weber capitalism has been understood as part of the disenchantment of the world stripping material objects and social relations of their mystery and magic In this magisterial work Eugene McCarraher challenges this conventional view

Capitalism he argues is full of sacrament whether one is prepared to acknowledge it or not First flowering in the fields and factories of England and brought to America by Puritans and evangelicals whose doctrine made ample room for industry and profit capitalism has become so thoroughly enmeshed in the fabric of our society that our faith in the market has become sacrosanct Informed by cultural history and theology as well as management theory The Enchantments of Mammon looks to nineteenth century Romantics whose vision of labor combined reason creativity and mutual aid for salvation In this impassioned challenge to some of our most firmly held assumptions McCarragher argues that capitalism has hijacked our intrinsic longing for divinity and urges us to break its hold on our souls A majestic achievement It is a work of great moral and spiritual intelligence and one that invites contemplation about things we can't afford not to care about deeply

Commonweal More brilliant more capacious and more entertaining page by page than his most ardent fans dared hope The magnitude of his accomplishment an account of American capitalism as a religion will stun even skeptical readers Christian Century

Material Spirituality in Modernist Women's Writing Elizabeth Anderson, 2020-03-19 For Virginia Woolf H D Mary Butts and Gwendolyn Brooks things mobilise creativity traverse domestic public and rural spaces and stage the interaction between the sublime and the mundane Ordinary things are rendered extraordinary by their spiritual or emotional significance and yet their very ordinariness remains part of their value This book addresses the intersection of spirituality things and places both natural and built environments in the work of these four women modernists From the living pebbles in Mary Butts's memoir to the pencil sought in Woolf's urban pilgrimage in Street Haunting the Christmas decorations crafted by children in H D's autobiographical novel The Gift and Maud Martha's love of dandelions in Brooks's only novel things indicate spiritual concerns in these writers' work Elizabeth Anderson contributes to current debates around materiality vitalism and post secularism attending to both mainstream and heterodox spiritual expressions and connections between the two in modernism How we value our spaces and our world being one of the most pressing contemporary ethical and ecological concerns this volume contributes to the debate by arguing that a change in our attitude towards the environment will not come from a theory of renunciation but through attachment to and regard for material things

Wordsworth's Ethics Adam Potkay, 2015-03-15 A comprehensive examination that breathes new life into Wordsworth and the ethical concerns that were vital to his nineteenth century readers Why read Wordsworth's poetry indeed why read poetry at all Beyond any pleasure it might give can it make one a better or more flourishing person These questions were never far from William Wordsworth's thoughts He responded in rich and varied ways in verse and in prose in both well known and more obscure writings Wordsworth's Ethics is a comprehensive examination of the Romantic poet's work delving into his desire to understand the source and scope of our ethical obligations Adam Potkay finds that Wordsworth consistently rejects the kind of impersonal utilitarianism that was espoused by his contemporaries James Mill and Jeremy Bentham in favor of a view of ethics founded in relationships with particular persons and things The discussion proceeds chronologically through Wordsworth's career as a writer from his juvenilia through his poems of the 1830s and 40s providing a valuable introduction to the poet's work The book will appeal to readers interested in the vital connection between literature and moral philosophy

Critical Theory Ethics for Business and Public Administration David M. Boje, 2008-09-01 The purpose of this book is to develop those ethical traditions For example Horkheimer's books Eclipse of Reason and Critique of Instrumental Reason and his early and now classic essay Materialism and Morality ask for a reformation of Kantian ethics The reform sought is that categorical imperative in an individualism capitalism serves to worsen the difference between business ethics and moral philosophy That is it is not enough to try to be good or ethical as individuals when it is the systemic processes that must be dealt with Therefore

Horkheimer asks that the maxim that would be made universal be done at the level of people organizing with others to change the social system that is producing the unethical behaviors The book is organized into several sections The first section sets the stages beginning with a challenge to the field of social responsibility in business and public administration Jones Ten bos Parker have a new book out that is smashing Then we turn to Carr and to Zanettic who each have done critical theory work in public administration This is followed by Heather Hopfl who edited an issue on ethics of goodness and does the kind of writing that makes deep connections The next set of chapters make topic connections rhizomatics dialogics of co experience story narrative and postmodern The third set of topics focus on application technofuturist international business economics university environment accounting spirituality strategy and ending with Mills work on silence of race ethnicity in business and public administration ethics writing

Resonant Matter Lutz Koepnick,2020-12-10 In Resonant Matter Lutz Koepnick considers contemporary sound and installation art as a unique laboratory of hospitality amid inhospitable times Inspired by Ragnar Kjartansson s nine channel video installation The Visitors 2012 the book explores resonance the ability of objects to be affected by the vibrations of other objects as a model of art s fleeting promise to make us coexist with things strange and other In a series of nuanced readings Koepnick follows the echoes of distant unexpected and unheard sounds in twenty first century art to reflect on the attachments we pursue to sustain our lives and the walls we need to tear down to secure possible futures The book s nine chapters approach The Visitors from ever different conceptual angles while bringing it into dialogue with the work of other artists and musicians such as Lawrence Abu Hamdan Guillermo Galindo Mischa Kuball Philipp Lachenmann Alvin Lucier Teresa Margolles Carsten Nicolai Camille Norment Susan Philipsz David Rothenberg Juliana Snapper and Tanya Tagaq With this book Koepnick situates resonance as a vital concept of contemporary art criticism and sound studies His analysis encourages us not only to expand our understanding of the role of sound in art of sound art but to attune our critical encounter with art to art s own resonant thinking

Border Ecology Ila Nicole Sheren,2023-03-10 This book analyzes how contemporary visual art can visualize environmental crisis It draws on Karen Barad s method of agential realism which understands disparate factors as working together and entangled Through an analysis of digital eco art the book shows how the entwining of new materialist and decolonized approaches accounts for the nonhuman factors shaping ecological crises while understanding that a purely object driven approach misses the histories of human inequality and subjugation encoded in the environment The resulting synthesis is what the author terms a border ecology an approach to eco art from its margins gaps and liminal zones deliberately evoking the idea of an ecotone This book is suitable for scholarly audiences within art history criticism and practice but also across disciplines such as the environmental humanities media studies border studies and literary eco criticism

Elemental Ecocriticism Jeffrey Jerome Cohen,Lowell Duckert,2015-12-23 For centuries it was believed that all matter was composed of four elements earth air water and fire in promiscuous combination bound by love and pulled apart by strife Elemental theory offered a mode of understanding materiality that did not center the cosmos around the human Outgrown as a science the elements are now what we build our houses against Their renunciation has fostered only estrangement from the material world The essays collected in Elemental Ecocriticism show how elemental materiality precipitates new engagements with the ecological Here the classical elements reveal the vitality of supposedly inert substances mud water earth air chemical processes fire and natural phenomena as well as the promise in the abandoned and the unreal ether phlogiston spontaneous generation Decentering the human this volume provides important correctives to the idea of the material world as mere resource Three response essays meditate on the connections of this collaborative project to the framing of modern day ecological concerns A renewed intimacy with the elemental holds the potential of a more dynamic environmental ethics and the possibility of a reinvigorated materialism

New Media Caucus 2015 CAA Conference Edition New Media Caucus, 2015-09-10 Each year the New Media Caucus an affiliate of the College Art Association organizes panel presentations events and exhibitions during the CAA annual convention and Media N Journal dedicates its summer edition to showcasing NMC conference proceedings and concurrent offsite events In 2015 we saw one panel presentation and two events the first a series of presentations in the Media Lounge onsite at the conference venue in the New York Hilton and the second our customary offsite Showcase event hosted this time around by Hunter College Pat Badani Editor in Chief Affective Movements, Methods and Pedagogies Anne Harris, Stacy Holman Jones, 2020-12-09 Affective Movements Methods and Pedagogies invites readers to think with affect about performance pedagogies and their inherent activist embodied and collective natures It works across multiple spheres to help readers understand how to deploy affective approaches rather than to simply think with affect theory about traditional methods The book is structured and curated across three main thematic sections affective movements methods and pedagogies each of which treats the core explorations of affect and performance through a different perspective It is concerned with the ways performance and theatrical methods work with and through a theoretics of affect The sixteen chapters include work that models theoretical practices in writing and demonstrates how theorising affect and its methods is itself a performative practice The contributors offer rich examples from diverse geopolitical as well as disciplinary contexts innovative methods and finally intersectional theoretics This collection will be of interest to higher education students exploring methodologies and academic researchers and teachers in the fields of performance studies communication critical studies sociology and the arts Tragic encounters and ordinary ethics Ruth Sheldon, 2016-10-20 For over four decades events in Palestine Israel have provoked raging conflicts within British universities around issues of free speech extremism antisemitism and Islamophobia But why is this conflict so significant for student activists living at such a geographical distance from the region itself And what role do emotive polarised communications around Palestine Israel play in the life of British academic institutions committed to the ideal of free expression This book draws on original ethnographic research with student activists on different sides of this conflict to initiate a conversation with students academics and members of the public who are concerned with the transnational politics of Palestine Israel and with the changing role of the public university It shows how in an increasingly globalised world that is shaped by entangled histories of European antisemitism and colonial violence ethnography can open up ethical responses to questions of justice

Religion, Materialism and Ecology Sigurd Bergmann, Kate Rigby, Peter Manley Scott, 2023-05-31 This timely collection of essays by leading international scholars across religious studies and the environmental humanities advances a lively discussion on materialism in its many forms While there is little agreement on what materialism means it is evident that there is a resurgence in thinking about matter in more animated and active ways The volume explores how debates concerning the new materialisms impinge on religious traditions and the extent to which religions with their material culture and beliefs in the Divine within the material can make a creative contribution to debates about ecological materialisms Spanning a broad range of themes including politics architecture hermeneutics literature and religion the book brings together a series of discussions on materialism in the context of diverse methodologies and approaches The volume investigates a range of issues including space and place hierarchy and relationality the relationship between nature and society human and other agencies and worldviews and cultural values Drawing on literary and critical theory and queer philosophical theological and social theoretical approaches this ground breaking book will make an important contribution to the environmental humanities It will be a key read for postgraduate students researchers and scholars in religious studies cultural anthropology literary studies philosophy and environmental studies

Medievalism on the Margins Karl Fugelso, Alicia C. Montoya, Vincent Ferré, 2015 Essays on the post modern reception and interpretation of the middle ages

Spirituality and Global Ethics Mahmoud Masaali, Rico Sneller, 2017-05-11 This volume addresses three fundamental questions about the interplay between the ethics of globality and spirituality What are the practical implications of spirituality for the condition of life in a turbulent era of violent religious non religious extremism In what way can spirituality the view of love compassion tolerance and mutual recognition encounter mistrust enmity separateness and violence How and in what way can spirituality contribute to the newly emerging global ethics Religious scholars distinguish between the esoteric and exoteric sides of belief systems Esotericism centres on the inner awareness and conceals a certain spirituality that is only transmittable to those who could successfully pass through a process of initiatic preparation and transpersonal practices to understand the mystical dimensions of existence In contrast exotericism takes the outer dimension of every day consciousness into account and favours the possibility of the popular understanding of the essence of existence In this perspective truth could be grasped by the public without the need of any transpersonal initiative and transformation of consciousness Esotericism extends beyond religion and has become the spiritual philosophy of life without the need of being essentially religious It has become common notably in the West to identify oneself as spiritualist without having religious affiliations The condition of globality has provided an unprecedented opportunity for spiritual perspectives to grow Ideas perspectives beliefs and philosophies of life are growing outside local national containers to express themselves in different global settings while the forces of globalisation are influencing local identities and cultures While evolving global transformations strengthen people s capability to leave institutionally ordered belief systems it simultaneously enables them to rearrange themselves around alternative perspectives These fundamental transformations cultivate a fabulous landscape for the growth of spirituality

Haunted Spaces in Twenty-First Century British Nature Writing Anneke Lubkowitz,2020-06-08 This study investigates the figure of haunting in the New Nature Writing It begins with a historical survey of nature writing and traces how it came to represent an ideal of natural space as empty of human history and social conflict Building on a theoretical framework which combines insights from ecocriticism and spatial theory the author explores the spatial dimensions of haunting and hauntology and shows how 21st century writers draw on a Gothic repertoire of seemingly supernatural occurrences and spectral imagery to portray natural space as disturbed uncanny and socially contested Iain Sinclair and Robert Macfarlane are revealed to apply psychogeography s interest in hidden histories and haunted places to spaces associated with wilderness and the countryside Kathleen Jamie s allusions to the Gothic are put in relation to her feminist re writing of the outdoors and John Burnside s use of haunting is shown to dismantle fictions of the far north This book provides not only a discussion of a wide range of factual and fictional narratives of the present but also an analysis of the intertextual dialogue with the Romantic tradition which enfolds in these texts
