Encounter with Disaster - a Medical Diary of Hiroshima, 1945 Averill Abraham Liebow, 1965 Encounter with Disaster Averill A. Liebow, 1971 Encounter with Disaster Averill A. Liebow, 1945 Hiroshima, 2018-06-05 I'll search you out put my lips to your tender ear and tell you I'll tell you the real story I swear I will from Little One by Toge Sankichi Three Japanese authors of note Hara Tamiki Ota Yoko and Toge Sankichi survived the atomic bombing of Hiroshima only to shoulder an appalling burden bearing witness to ultimate horror Between 1945 and 1952 in prose and in poetry they published the premier first person accounts of the atomic holocaust Forty five years have passed since August 6 1945 yet this volume contains the first complete English translation of Hara's Summer Flowers the first English translation of Ota's City of Corpses and a new translation of Toge's Poems of the Atomic Bomb No reader will emerge unchanged from reading these works Different from each other in their politics their writing and their styles of life and death Hara Ota and Toge were alike in feeling compelled to set down in writing what they experienced Within forty eight hours of August 6 before fleeing the city for shelter in the hills west of Hiroshima Hara jotted down this note Miraculously unhurt must be Heaven's will that I survive and report what happened Ota recorded her own remarks to her half sister as they walked down a street littered with corpses I'm looking with two sets of eyes the eyes of a human being and the eyes of a writer And the memorable words of Toge quoted above come from a poem addressed to a child whose father was killed in the South Pacific and whose mother died on August 6th who would tell of that day The works of these three authors convey as much of the real story as can be put into words The War Against Japan, 1941-1945 John J. Sbraga, 2015-06-12 With over 5 200 entries this volume remains one of the most extensive annotated bibliographies on the USA's fight against Japan in the Second World War Including books articles and declassified documents up to the end of 1987 the book is organized into six categories Part 1 presents reference works including encyclopedias pictorial accounts military histories East Asian histories historiographies Part 2 covers diplomatic political aspects of the war against Japan Part 3 contains sources on the economic and legal aspects of the war against Japan Part 4 presents sources on the military aspects of the war embracing land air and sea forces Religious aspects of the war are covered in Part 5 and Part 6 deals with the social and cultural aspects including substantial sections on the treatment of Japanese minorities in the USA Hawaii Canada and Peru Were We The Enemy? American Survivors Of Hiroshima Rinjiro Sodei, 2018-05-04 In August 1945 the first atomic bombs were dropped on Hiroshima and Nagasaki What is hardly known is that 4 000 Nisei Japanese Americans the sons and daughters of Japanese immigrants who had been sent back to Japan to be educated before World War II erupted were caught in the Hiroshima bombing This extraordinary book commemorates the 3 000 Nisei who died from the atomic blast in Hiroshima and documents the plight of another 1 000 hibakusha survivors of the bomb who returned to the West Coast after the war Branded as foreigners in wartime Japan and as enemies in postwar United States their existence as victims of the atomic blast has not been recognized by either the Japanese or the U S government both of which have refused to alleviate the medical and political problems of the survivors Drawing on primary sources and rich interview data Rinjiro Sodei has contributed an original scholarly work to the literature on World War II and the Asian American experience This book bears witness to the human calamities of the nuclear age and to the dignity of these Japanese Americans striving to obtain their rights and sustain their bicultural identity

Cultures of War: Pearl Harbor / Hiroshima / 9-11 / Iraq John W. Dower, 2010-09-17 Finalist for the 2010 National Book Award in Nonfiction The Pulitzer Prize winning historian returns with a groundbreaking comparative study of the dynamics and pathologies of war in modern times Over recent decades John W Dower one of America s preeminent historians has addressed the roots and consequences of war from multiple perspectives In War Without Mercy 1986 winner of the National Book Critics Circle Award he described and analyzed the brutality that attended World War II in the Pacific as seen from both the Japanese and the American sides Embracing Defeat 1999 winner of numerous honors including the Pulitzer Prize and the National Book Award dealt with Japan s struggle to start over in a shattered land in the immediate aftermath of the Pacific War when the defeated country was occupied by the U S led Allied powers Turning to an even larger canvas Dower now examines the cultures of war revealed by four powerful events Pearl Harbor Hiroshima 9 11 and the invasion of Iraq in the name of a war on terror The list of issues examined and themes explored is wide ranging failures of intelligence and imagination wars of choice and strategic imbecilities faith based secular thinking as well as more overtly holy wars the targeting of noncombatants and the almost irresistible logic and allure of mass destruction Dower s new work also sets the U S occupations of Japan and Iraq side by side in strikingly original ways One of the most important books of this decade Cultures of War offers comparative insights into individual and institutional behavior and pathologies that transcend cultures in the more traditional sense and that ultimately go beyond war making alone

Japanese Documentary Film Markus Nornes, 2003 Among Asian countries where until recently documentary filmmaking was largely the domain of central governments Japan was exceptional for the vigor of its nonfiction film industry And yet for all its aesthetic historical and political interest the Japanese documentary remains little known and largely unstudied outside of Japan This is the first English language study of the subject an enlightening close look at the first fifty years of documentary film theory and practice in Japan Beginning with films made by foreigners in the nineteenth century and concluding with the first two films made after Japan s surrender in 1945 Abe Mark Nornes moves from a prehistory of the documentary through innovations of the proletarian film movement to the hardening of style and conventions that started with the Manchurian Incident films and continued through the Pacific War Nornes draws on a wide variety of archival sources including Japanese studio records secret police reports government memos letters military tribunal testimonies and more to chart shifts in documentary style against developments in the history of modern Japan

Writing War in the Twentieth Century Margot Norris, 2000 The twentieth century will be remembered for great innovation in two particular areas art and culture and technological advancement Much of its prodigious technical inventiveness however was pressed into service in the conduct of warfare Why asks Margot Norris did violence and suffering on such an immense scale fail to arouse artistic and cultural expressions powerful enough to prevent the recurrence of these horrors Why was art not more successful through its use of dramatic emotionally charged material its ability to stir imagination and arouse empathy and outrage in producing an alternative to the military logic that legitimates war Military argument in the twentieth century has been fortified by the authority of the rationalism that we attribute to science Norris argues Warfare is therefore legitimized by powerful discourses that art's own arsenal of styles and genres has limited power to counter Art's difficulty in representing the violent death of entire generations or populations has been particularly acute Choosing works that have become representative of their historically violent moment Norris explores not only their aesthetic strategies and perspectives but also the nature of the power they wield and the ethical engagements they enable or impede She begins by mapping the altered ethical terrain of modern technological warfare with its increasing targeting of civilian populations for destruction She then proceeds historically with chapters on the trench poetry and modernist poetry of World War I Hemingway's A Farewell to Arms and Erich Maria Remarque's All Quiet on the Western Front both the book and the film of Schindler's List the conflicting historical stories of the Manhattan Project a comparison of American and Japanese accounts of Hiroshima Francis Ford Coppola's film Apocalypse Now and the effects of press censorship in the Persian Gulf War By looking at the whole span of the century's writing on war Norris provides a fascinating critique of art's ethical power and limitations along with its participation in as well as protest against the suffering that human beings have brought upon themselves
