Encounter With A Stranger

Richard Kearney, Kascha Semonovitch

Encounter With A Stranger:

Strange Encounters Sara Ahmed, 2013-02-01 Examining the relationship between strangers embodiment and community Strange Encounters challenges the assumptions that the stranger is simply anybody we do not recognize and instead proposes that he or she is socially constructed as somebody we already know Using feminist and postcolonial theory this book examines the impact of multiculturalism and globalization on embodiment and community whilst considering the ethical and political implication of its critique for post colonial feminism A diverse range of texts are analyzed which produce the figure of the stranger showing that it has alternatively been expelled as the origin of danger such as in neighbourhood watch or celebrated as the origin of difference as in multiculturalism The author argues that both of these standpoints are problematic as they involve stranger fetishism they assume that the stranger has a life of its own

Phenomenologies of the Stranger Richard Kearney, Kascha Semonovitch, 2011 What is strange Or better who is strange When do we encounter the strange This volume takes the question of hosting the Stranger to the deeper level of embodied imagination and the senses It asks How does the embodied imagination relate to the Stranger in terms of hospitality or hostility given the common root of hostis as both host and enemy How do humans sense the dimension of the strange and alien in different religions arts and cultures How do the five physical senses relate to the spiritual senses especially the famous sixth sense as portals to an encounter with the Other Is there a carnal perception of alterity which would operate at an affective prereflective preconscious level What exactly do embodied imaginaries of hospitality and hostility entail And what finally are the topical implications of these questions for an ethics and practice of tolerance and peace

Parental Development Jack Demick, Krisanne Bursik, Rosemarie DiBiase, 2014-02-25 This volume seeks to identify and define the parameters of a relatively new problem area parental development Drawing on the grand developmental theories of Sigmund Freud Lawrence Kohlberg Jean Piaget Lev Vygotsky Heinz Werner and their descendants this book has the potential to generate an area of common concern for those interested in either child adolescent or adult development through the novel application of developmental principles and considerations to the ecological context of parenting To that end this volume brings together theory and research from the subfields of adult and child adolescent development Chapter authors place the problem area of parental development in theoretical context and examine selected psychological part processes implicated by focusing on cognitive and psychosocial development The authors then deal with a range of issues that are perhaps less traditional and or more in line with the complex character of everyday life That is they utilize either relatively novel comparison groups or treat parents at later stages of development rather than those in young adulthood as is often the case Finally the authors uncover both similarities and differences among their theoretical perspectives with an eye toward delineating some possible future research directions

Hospitality to Strangers Dorothy M. Owens, 1999 In an era of transition and tension in American health care Dorothy M Owens offers a model of empathic communication that benefits both patients and physicians Drawing from concepts in the domains of psychology and theology she constructs a model of empathy that is ethical and reciprocal An integrated model of empathy recognizes the physical psychological spiritual and social nature of human beings Empathy is a clinically useful time effective communication skill that can be taught in medical and pastoral education Dr Owens s unique approach to empathy is applicable to other professional and personal relationships as well Strangers - part of everyone's life Reeswali Naik,2021-12-30 In all our lives we have stranger become an integral part of life The bond we form with them is beyond anyone s imagination While nowadays close ones changes into an outsider and outsider changes into a close ones thus affecting our lives largely This is the challenge that life gives us to enable us to discover and evolve through the various shades of association that is in store for us and thus giving us ineffable memories or atrocious nightmares This book is a collection of stories poems and recollections from writers all round the globe to share such familiar experiences or thoughts that they had with the readers It can be simple beautiful messy or disastrous but at the end its a part of our journey and it certainly thought us something and has a impact on us Exploring Animal Encounters Dominik Ohrem,Matthew Calarco,2018-07-28 This collection of essays offers multifaceted explorations of animal encounters in a range of philosophical cultural literary and historical contexts Exploring Animal Encounters encourages us to think about the richness and complexity of animal lives and human animal relations foregrounding the intricate roles nonhuman creatures play in the always already more than human sphere of ethics and politics In this way the essays in this volume can be understood as a contribution to alternative imaginings of interspecies coexistence in a time in which the issue of human relations with earth and earth others has come to the fore with unprecedented force and severity Border-Crossing Spirituality Jung Eun Sophia Park,2016-06-24 Border crossing is a significant experience in the global era when many people cross borders whether in cultural geopolitical relational or existential terms Border crossing can provide a great opportunity for spiritual growth yet it is often a violent and dangerous process Thus there is a need to explore border crossing spirituality to examine how various aspects of border crossing impact human life analyze why border crossing happens and explain how the act of border crossing provides transformation Border crossing is an action undertaken to expand one s own boundaries and from it emerges the borderland a third space where one s transformation can occur This book primarily focuses on various teachings of border crossing and the notion of being in between Almost every religious tradition has within it a spiritual teaching of border crossing and the importance of the borderland This book is by nature cross cultural interreligious and interspiritual Through the action of border crossing transformation occurs in the borderland and border crossing spirituality can be crystallized as living a radical hospitality valuing friendship remaining in the present and reclaiming subjectivity The human dilemma of displacement Alfred R. Brunsdon,2020-12-31 In this book social responsive theological research converges to provide practical theological and ecclesiological perspectives on the growing human dilemma of displacement The book presents the research of practical theologians a missiologist and a religious practitioner whose work pertains first and foremost to the South African context The different fields of expertise of the contributors within the broader field of practical theology worked towards a unique compilation of themes each relevant to the issue at stake The majority of chapters are theoretically orientated except where authors refer to empirical work conducted during previous research The main contribution of this collaborative work is to be sought in the practical theological and ecclesiological perspectives it provides It engages the critical questions of what kind of church we need and what kind of care we should provide in the face of the growing predicament of human displacement The theological and theoretical principles uncovered in the different chapters will be of use to theologians from all theological subdisciplines as well as to religious practitioners and leaders of faith communities that are challenged with the growing realities of strangers on their doorsteps and in their pews
