Encountering Ethnicities:

Encountering Ethnicities Teppo Korhonen, 1995 What is the difference between a refugee and an immigrant an evacuee and deportee What other terms are there for describing migrants What problems does the returnee face in trying to integrate with the culture of the old father land These are some of the topical questions of cultural encounter taken up by Finnish and Hungarian ethnologists in the articles in this book      Encountering Race in Albania Chelsi West Ohueri, 2025-06-15

Encountering Race in Albania is the first book to interrogate race and racial logics in Albania Chelsi West Ohueri examines how race is made remade produced and reproduced through constructions of whiteness blackness and otherness She argues that while race is often limited to Western processes of modernity that exclude Eastern Europe racialization processes are global and the ethnography of everyday Albanian socialities makes visible how race operates Historical and political science frameworks prevail in the study of post Cold War East European societies yet as West Ohueri shows anthropological and ethnographic knowledge can equip scholars to ask questions that they might otherwise not consider illustrating how racialization is ongoing and enduring in a period that she terms the communist afterlife Encountering Race in Albania through the unexpected optic of Albania a small formerly communist country in Southeast Europe offers significant insights into broader understandings of race in a global context      Urban Ethnic Encounters Freek Colombijn, Aygen Erdentug, 2003-08-29

visual imagery of race construction in Scandinavia Austro Hungary Germany and Russia It covers a period when historic disciplines of ethnography and anthropology were expanding and theorists of race were debating competing conceptions of biological geographic linguistic and cultural determinants Beginning in 1850 and extending into the early 21st century this book explores how paintings photographs prints and other artistic media engaged with these discourses and shaped visual representations of subordinate ethnic populations and material cultures in countries associated with theorizations of white identity The chapters contribute to postcolonial research by documenting the colonial style treatment of minority groups by exploring the anomalies and complexities that emerge when binary systems are seen from the perspective of the fine and applied arts and by representing the voices of those who produced images or objects that adopted altered or critiqued ethnographic and anthropological information In doing so Constructing Race on the Borders of Europe uncovers instances of unexpected connections establishes the fabricated nature of ethnic identity and challenges the certainties of racial categorization

The Enigma of Ethnicity Wilbur Zelinsky, 2001-04 In The Enigma of Ethnicity Wilbur Zelinsky draws upon more than half a century of exploring the cultural and social geography of an ever changing North America to become both biographer and critic of the recent concept of ethnicity In this ambitious and encyclopedic work he examines ethnicity's definition evolution significance implications and entanglements with other phenomena as well as the mysteries of ethnic identity and performance Zelinsky begins by examining the ways in which ethnic groups and ethnicity have been defined his own definitions then become the basis for the rest of his study He next focuses on the concepts of heterolocalism the possibility that an ethnic community can exist without being physically merged and personal identity the relatively recent idea that one can concoct one's own identity In his final chapter which is also his most provocative he concentrates on the multifaceted phenomenon of multiculturalism and its relationship to ethnicity Throughout he includes a close look at African Americans Hispanics and Jews as well as such less studied groups as suburbanized Japanese Cubans in Washington Koreans Lithuanian immigrants in Chicago Estonians in New Jersey Danish Americans in Seattle and Finns Reasonable nonpolemical and straightforward Zelinsky's text is invaluable for readers wanting an in depth overview of the literature on ethnicity in the United States as well as a well thought out understanding of the meanings and dynamics of ethnic groups ethnicity and multiculturalism

White Scholars/African American Texts Lisa Long, 2005-09-02 What makes someone an authority What makes one person's knowledge more credible than another's In the ongoing debates over racial authenticity some attest that we can know each other's experiences simply because we are all human while others assume a more skeptical stance insisting that racial differences create unbridgeable gaps in knowledge Bringing new perspectives to these perennial debates the essays in this collection explore the many difficulties created by the fact that white scholars greatly outnumber black scholars in the study and teaching of African American literature Contributors including some of the most prominent theorists in the field as well as younger scholars examine who is speaking what is being spoken and what is not and why framing African American literature in terms of an exclusive black white racial divide is problematic and limiting In highlighting the whiteness of some African Americanists the collection does not imply that the teaching or understanding of black literature by white scholars is definitively impossible Indeed such work is not only possible but imperative Instead the essays aim to open a much needed public conversation about the real and pressing challenges that white scholars face in this type of work as well as the implications of how these challenges are met

Ethnic Identity Richard D. Alba, 1990-01-01 Examines the implications of intermarriages between white Americans of differing ethnic backgrounds and looks at this new culture

Ethnicity and Communication in Physician-patient Encounters Janet Leslie Scott, 2005

The Habits of Race and Faith in a Religiously Diverse World Mara Brecht, 2024-07-08 Religious diversity cultural pluralism and interreligious encounter are widely viewed in modern life as socially and for many people of faith spiritually enriching One of the most significant but frequently overlooked benefits of interreligious encounter is that it empowers us to see ourselves and particularly our racialized identities in new and revealing ways In The Habits of Race and Faith in a Religiously Diverse World Mara Brecht places whiteness under particular scrutiny its tangled and entwined relationship with religious identity as well as strategic associations with dominance and privilege The analysis of whiteness gives way to fresh perspectives on Christian ideas about salvation both in connection to religious faith and racial embodiment Criminological Perspectives on Race and Crime Shaun L. Gabbidon, 2015-02-11 Ideal for use in either crime theory or race and crime courses this is the only text to look at the array of explanations for crime as they relate to racial and ethnic populations Each chapter begins with a historical review of each theoretical perspective and how its original formulation and more recent derivatives account for racial ethnic differences The theoretical perspectives include those based on religion biology social disorganization strain subculture labeling conflict social control colonial and feminism The author considers which perspectives have shown the most promise in the area of race ethnicity and crime Convivial Cultures in Multicultural Cities Alina

Rzepnikowska, 2019-09-20 The large scale migration brought about by the expansion of the EU over a decade ago led to migration from less ethnically diverse countries to multicultural and super diverse societies This book examines the complex encounters between Polish migrant women and local populations in Manchester and Barcelona with attention to the ways in which difference is negotiated and managed through everyday practices of conviviality which help to overcome hierarchies and create elements of sameness Illustrating how cultural differences may become important resources for interaction that facilitates positive relationships Convivial Cultures in Multicultural Cities draws on the narratives of Polish migrant women to shed new light on everyday social relations between migrant women and local populations including settled ethnic minorities and other migrants In doing so it contributes to our understanding of the positional nature of racial identification and complicates our ideas of whiteness and privilege White Awake Daniel Hill, 2017-09-19 You may be white but that doesn't mean you have no culture Charting his own journey toward understanding his white identity Daniel Hill shows us the seven stages we encounter on the path to cultural awakening This timely book will give you a new perspective on being white and also empower you to be an agent of reconciliation in our increasingly diverse and divided world Navigating Terrains of War Henrik E. Vigh, 2006-05-01 Through the concept of social navigation this book sheds light on the mobilization of urban youth in West Africa Social navigation offers a perspective on praxis in situations of conflict and turmoil It provides insights into the interplay between objective structures and subjective agency thus enabling us to make sense of the opportunistic sometimes fatalistic and tactical ways in which young people struggle to expand the horizons of possibility in a world of conflict turmoil and diminishing resources
