Evangelization as Interreligious Dialogue John C. Cavadini, Donald Wallenfang, 2019-08-21 What does Jesus have to do with Buddha What does Muhammad have to do with Krishna One of the most important tasks for theology in the twenty first century is interreligious dialogue Given the rapid process of globalization and the surge of information via the Internet travel and library networking today interreligious dialogue has become a necessary element within Christian theology that no longer can be avoided

Evangelization as Interreligious Dialogue features eleven essays plus an extensive introduction that exercise a live conversation between religious others Divided into four thematic sections 1 Catholic approaches to interreligious dialogue 2 dialogues between Judaism and Christianity 3 dialogues between Islam and Christianity and 4 dialogues between Hinduism Buddhism and Christianity this volume conducts a sustained theological reflection on the current state of interreligious dialogue by signaling its hopeful promises and unrelenting challenges The reader will be invited to encounter the religious other firsthand and put his or her most cherished theological assumptions to the test This book aims to provoke an expansion of horizons for theological imagination as it exposes the basic dialectic of identity and difference as played out in the interaction between diverse religious beliefs practices and experiences

European Churches and Chinese Temples as Neuro-Theatrical Sites Mark Pizzato, 2024-04-04 Compares monumental designs and performance spaces of Christian Buddhist and related sanctuaries exploring how brain networks animal human emotions and cultural ideals are reflected historically and affected today as inner theatre elements Integrating research across the humanities and sciences this book explores how traditional designs of outer theatrical spaces left cultural imprints for the inner staging of Self and Other consciousness which each of us performs daily based on how we think others view us But believers also perform in a cosmic theatre Ancestral spirits and gods or God watch and interact with them in awe inspiring spaces grooming affects toward in group identification and sacrifice or out group rivalry and scapegoating In a study of over 80 buildings shown by 40 images in the book plus thousands of photos and videos online Pizzato demonstrates how they reflect meta theatrical projections from prior generations They also affect the embodied embedded enacted and extended 4E cognition of current visitors who bring performance frameworks of belief hope and doubt to the sacred site This involves neuro social inner outer theatre networks with patriarchal maternal and trickster paradigms European Churches and Chinese Temples as Neuro Theatrical Sites investigates performative material cultures creating dialogs between theatre philosophy history and various cognitive affective social biological sciences It applies them to the architecture of religious buildings from Catholic Orthodox and Protestant in Europe plus key sites in Jerusalem and prior pagan temples to Buddhist Daoist Confucian and imperial in China It thus reveals individualist collectivist focal holistic analytical dialectical and melodramatic tragicomic trajectories with cathartic poetics for the future

Toward a Global Science Susantha Goonatilake,1998 Asian science such as mathematics Chinese printing gunpowder and the compass all contributed to the development of European science During the last few centuries however scientific contributions with Asian roots have diminished and been marginalized and deligitimised Yet the center of the world economy today is shifting to Asia with shifts in science and technology bound to follow Toward a Global Science is driven by the proposition that pre Renaissance acquisition of Asian knowledge did not exhaust Asian civilization s potential contribution There are many useful elements to modern science still lying hidden in Asian civilizational stores waiting to be mined The author gives details of recent contributions from South Asian medicine mathematics and psychology and explores how South Asian inputs can be useful in navigating the philosophical and ethical problems raised by two dominant technologies of the future namely biotechnology and information technology As an illustrative example it describes how a fruitful marriage of one technology virtual reality with South Asian philosophy can enliven both the technology as well as philosophy It also examines how Asian positions could be used to feed some key contemporary philosophical discussions on science Using a model of the civilizational construction of science the book views science without Eurocentric blinders It documents how science was built initially by transfers from non European civilizations and why the given historiography of science has to be rethought Throughout the book the author gives examples of parallels and antecedents between East and West in science and estimates the potential reservoir of Asian knowledge in each field The book also deals with the many knotty problems in recovering science from past traditions The author distinguishes between his secular efforts from religious and other attempts that claim the equivalence of all knowledge systems
