American Turkish Encounters Bilge Nur Criss, Selcuk Esenbel, Tony Greenwood, 2011-07-12 Turkey and the United States have been critically important to each other since the beginning of the Cold War The history of Turkish American relations includes not only strategic but also political social cultural and intellectual dimensions While critical to understanding Turkish American relations these dimensions rarely surface in today s discourse which reduces bilateral relations to issues currently being contested In reality the encounter between East and West embodied in Turkish American interactions ranges from the official and diplomatic to unofficial and informal exchanges at the social and individual level while often compatible and friendly such interactions occasionally have been less so Authors from both countries developed a variety of perspectives on their interactions through original research that will enable both specialists and general readers to appreciate its many facets Most scholarly works on the two nations have been limited to the analysis of US Turkish relations in the context of Cold War politics The editors intend that this volume will begin to fill a serious gap and encourage others to study American Turkish relations from as many aspects as possible This book shows that when seen in a historical framework the American Turkish encounter took place beyond the level of formal political and military ties during the Cold War period and has enduringly interacted at the level of educational social and cultural realms The History of Christian Missions in Guangxi, China Arthur Lin, 2020-01-29 The History of Christian Missions in Guangxi China describes the fascinating history of Catholic and Protestant missions in bandit infested Guangxi from the seventeenth century to the present Included is an overview of Guangxi s historical context and its development throughout the twentieth century Particular attention is given to the missionaries through abundant quotations and several short biographies Other chapters include an examination of the relationships between mission societies and the missionaries that served in Guangxi a detailed history of outreach to Guangxi s minorities including the Zhuang Yao Dong and Miao an analysis of the missionary methods and ministries of compassion a breakdown of the costs and challenges faced by the missionaries including martyrdom and death an evaluation of the receptivity levels and results in Guangxi over time The book ends with an appendix of missionary quotations on life in Guangxi to which contemporary missionaries in South China could easily relate Although this is a regional study readers will gain a much clearer picture of nineteenth and twentieth century missions and be spurred on to sacrificially make Christ known in the least reached parts of the world
