Letter-writing Manuals and Instruction from Antiquity to the Present Carol Poster, Linda C. Mitchell, 2007 Once nearly as ubiguitous as dictionaries and cookbooks are today letter writing manuals and their predecessors served to instruct individuals not only on the art of letter composition but also in effect on personal conduct Poster and Mitchell contend that the study of letter writing theory which bridges rhetorical theory and grammatical studies represents an emerging discipline in need of definition In this volume they gather the contributions of eleven experts to sketch the contours of epistolary theory and collect the historic and bibliographic materials from Isocrates to email that form the basis for its study Principal Should Know About Operational Leadership Jeffrey Glanz, 2005-11-28 Discover best practices for implementing efficient school management While principals may understandably devote a great deal of attention to supporting the cultural and instructional needs of their schools the core administrative challenge remains managing the school s personnel facilities and financial resources As the sixth volume of a seven part series What Every Principal Should Know About Operational Leadership provides an essential tool for new and veteran principals who want to run their school sites more efficiently and intentionally every day of the school year Filled with best practice examples resources reflection and self assessment opportunities and implementation ideas this quide also includes the following features Before we get started questionnaire and response analysis Case study and accompanying reflective questions What You Should Know About section framing each chapter Self Assessment resource for determining effectiveness of cultural leaders This book covers the essentials for organization and time management overseeing and evaluating facilities handling the budget addressing legal mandates recruiting and evaluating personnel working with an assistant principal and enhancing communication in individual and group settings How to Say the Right Thing Every Time Robert D. Ramsey, 2002-07-19 Filled with time tested techniques and relevant examples this user friendly guide empowers teachers with the confidence and tools necessary to communicate effectively efficiently and honestly in all situations The author uses clear cut language to the point insights and pertinent advice reflecting the many suggestions found within the book Key features include Specific ways to avoid the 20 most common communication barriers Proven how to s do s and don ts for talking with students erything from giving clear instructions and praise to discussing drugs and death Guidelines for successful parent teacher conferences plus tips for breaking bad news and dealing with angry adults Strategies for effective public speaking and handling performance reviews job interviews media interviews and special ceremonies Tactics for powerful written and other nonverbal communications This engaging resource inspires and instructs practitioners to deliver audience appropriate meaningful messages to promote positive student interaction as well as foster understanding and support from parents peers and the public General Encyclopedias in Print S. Padraig Walsh, 1969 British and American School Stories, 1910–1960 Nancy G. Rosoff, Stephanie Spencer, 2019-02-25 This book examines school and college fiction for girls in Britain and the United States written in the first half of the twentieth century to explore the formation and ideologies of feminine identity Nancy G Rosoff and Stephanie Spencer develop a transnational framework that recognises how both constructed and essential femininities transcend national boundaries The book discusses the significance and performance of female friendship across time and place which is central to the development of the genre and how it functioned as an important means of informal education Stories by Jessie Graham Flower Pauline Lester Alice Ross Colver Elinor Brent Dyer and Dorita Fairlie Bruce are set within their historical context and then used to explore aspects of sociability authority responsibility domesticity and possibility The distinctiveness of this book stems from the historical analysis of these sources which have so far primarily been treated by literary scholars within their national context Winner of the History of Education Society Anne Federal Trade Commission Bloomfield Prize for the best book on history of education published in English 2017 19 Decisions United States. Federal Trade Commission,1978 The Art and Science of Making the New Man in Early 20th-Century Russia Yvonne Howell, Nikolai Krementsov, 2021-12-02 The idea that morally mentally and physically superior new men might replace the currently existing mankind has periodically seized the imagination of intellectuals leaders and reformers throughout history This volume offers a multidisciplinary investigation into how the new man was made in Russia and the early Soviet Union in the first third of the 20th century The traditional narrative of the Soviet new man as a creature forged by propaganda is challenged by the strikingly new and varied case studies presented here The book focuses on the interplay between the rapidly developing experimental life sciences such as biology medicine and psychology and countless cultural products ranging from film and fiction dolls and museum exhibits to pedagogical projects sculptures and exemplary agricultural fairs With contributions from scholars based in the United States Canada the UK Germany and Russia the picture that emerges is emphatically more complex contradictory and suggestive of strong parallels with other new man visions in Europe and elsewhere In contrast to previous interpretations that focused largely on the apparent disconnect between utopian new man rhetoric and the harsh realities of everyday life in the Soviet Union this volume brings to light the surprising historical trajectories of new man visions their often obscure origins acclaimed and forgotten champions unexpected and complicated results and mutual interrelations In short the volume is a timely examination of a recurring theme in modern history when dramatic advancements in science and technology conjoin with anxieties about the future to fuel dreams of a new and improved mankind
