Ember, Melvin Ember, 2003-12-31 The central aim of this encyclopedia is to give the reader a comparative perspective on issues involving conceptions of gender gender differences gender roles relationships between the genders and sexuality The encyclopedia is divided into two volumes Topics and Cultures The combination of topical overviews and varying cultural portraits is what makes this encyclopedia a unique reference work for students researchers and teachers interested in gender studies and cross cultural variation in sex and gender It deserves a place in the library of every university and every social science and health department Contents Glossary Cultural Conceptions of Gender Gender Roles Status and Institutions Sexuality and Male Female Interaction Sex and Gender in the World's Cultures Culture Name Index Subject Index

Beyond War Douglas P. Fry, 2009-04-10 A profoundly heartening view of human nature Beyond War offers a hopeful prognosis for a future without war Douglas P Fry convincingly argues that our ancient ancestors were not innately warlike and neither are we He points out that for perhaps ninety nine percent of our history for well over a million years humans lived in nomadic hunter and gatherer groups egalitarian bands where warfare was a rarity Drawing on archaeology and fascinating recent fieldwork on hunter gatherer bands from around the world Fry debunks the idea that war is ancient and inevitable For instance among Aboriginal Australians warfare was an extreme anomaly Fry also points out that even today when war seems ever present the vast majority of us live peaceful nonviolent lives We are not as warlike as we think and if we can learn from our ancestors we may be able to move beyond war to provide real justice and security for the world

Cultural Creativity Robert Baron, Ana C. Cara, 2011-10-11 Global in scope and multidisciplinary in approach Creolization as Cultural Creativity explores the expressive forms and performances that come into being when cultures encounter one another Creolization is presented as a powerful marker of identity in the postcolonial creole societies of Latin America the Caribbean and the southwest Indian Ocean region as well as a universal process that can occur anywhere cultures come into contact An extraordinary number of cultures from Haiti Martinique Guadeloupe the southern United States Trinidad and Tobago Madagascar Mauritius Seychelles Reunion Puerto Rico Argentina Suriname Jamaica and Sierra Leone are discussed in these essays Drawing from the disciplines of folklore anthropology ethnomusicology literary studies history and material culture studies essayists address theoretical dimensions of creolization and present in depth field studies Topics include adaptations of the Gombé drum over the course of its migration from Jamaica to West Africa uses of ritual piracy involved in the appropriation of Catholic symbols by Puerto Rican brujos the subversion of official culture and authority through playful and combative use of creole talk in Argentine literature and verbal arts the mislabeling and trivialization toy blindness of objects appropriated by African Americans in the American South the strategic use of creole techniques among storytellers within the islands of the Indian Ocean and the creolized character of New Orleans and its music In the introductory essay the editors address both local and universal dimensions of creolization and argue for the centrality of its expressive manifestations for creolization scholarship

The Half Breed Tracts in Early National America David R. Renshaw, 2019-10-26 In 1824 and 1830 over one hundred thousand acres across Iowa Minnesota and Nebraska were set aside as a home for descendants of Native American women and white traders and trappers The treaties that established these so called Half Breed Tracts left undefined exactly who held claim to the land and by the end of the 1850s settlers and speculators had appropriated virtually every acre for themselves But in an era of ravenous westward expansion why did the process of dispossession require three decades of debate and legal maneuvering As David Renshaw argues the fate of the Half Breed Tracts complicates longstanding ideas about land tenure and community in early national America Midcontinental Journal of Archaeology, MCJA, 1997
