Encyclopedia of Archaeological Excavations in the Holy Land - Volume IV Michael Avi-Yonah, 1978 Lahav IV: The Figurines of Tell Halif Paul F. Jacobs, 2015-04-30 This volume appears as the fourth in a series of reports on the investigations of the Lahav Research Project LRP at Tell Halif located near Kibbutz Lahav in southern Israel The book and CD also titled The Figurines of Tell Halif contain the publication of the terra cotta and stone figurine assemblage discovered in the Phase III excavations by LRP The book presents the text of the report including relevant archaeological contexts while the CD is the primary source for detailed information about the figurines It presents color photographs of each artifact as well as artist's drawings and QuickTime movies along with descriptions and a working typology of the mixed Iron II Persian and Hellenistic period terra cottas Together book and CD offer the entire corpus of 794 figurine and statue fragments and provide an invaluable addition to the corpus of Levantine figurines The Neo-Assyrian Empire in the Southwest Avraham Faust, 2021 Using one of the world's richest archaeological datasets Avraham Faust reconstructs the outcomes of the Assyrian conquest in the southwestern region of the empire In doing so he sheds new light on the nature of Assyrian domination and the transformations of the diverse political and ecological zones the imperial take over brought in its wake Imperial Peripheries in the Neo-Assyrian Period Craig W. Tyson, Virginia R. Herrmann, 2019-01-15 Though the Neo Assyrian Empire has largely been conceived of as the main actor in relations between its core and periphery recent work on the empire's peripheries has encouraged archaeologists and historians to consider dynamic models of interaction between Assyria and the polities surrounding it Imperial Peripheries in the Neo Assyrian Period focuses on the variability of imperial strategies and local responses to Assyrian power across time and space An international team of archaeologists and historians draws upon both new and existing evidence from excavations surveys texts and material culture to highlight the strategies that the Neo Assyrian Empire applied to manage its diverse and widespread empire as well as the mixed reception of those strategies by subjects close to and far from the center Case studies from around the ancient Near East illustrate a remarkable variety of responses to Assyrian aggression economic policies and cultural influences As a whole the volume demonstrates both the destructive and constructive roles of empire including unintended effects of imperialism on socioeconomic and cultural change Imperial Peripheries in the Neo Assyrian Period aligns with the recent movement in imperial studies to replace global top down materialist models with theories of contingency local agency and bottom up processes Such approaches bring to the foreground the reality that the development and lifecycles of empires in general and the Neo Assyrian Empire in particular cannot be completely explained by the activities of the core The book will be welcomed by archaeologists of the Ancient Near East Assyriologists and scholars concerned with empires and imperial power in history Contributors Stephanie H Brown Anna Cannav Megan Cifarelli Erin Darby Bleda S D ring Avraham Faust Guido Guarducci Bradley J Parker The Bible Among Ruins Daniel Pioske, 2023-10-12 This book offers the first study of ruination in the Hebrew Bible Drawing on scholarship in biblical studies archaeology contemporary historical theory and philosophy he demonstrates how the ancient experience of ruins differed radically from that of the modern era 'To Aleppo gone ...': Essays in honour of Jonathan N. Tubb Irving Finkel, J.A. Fraser, St John Simpson, 2023-05-18 A festschrift in honour of Jonathan Tubb former Levant curator and Keeper of the Department of the Middle East at the British Museum 44 contributions reflect Jonathan's career and professional interests with a focus on the Jordan Valley and southern Levant but also north Syria Mesopotamia and the protection of endangered cultural heritage

Pharaohs of the Bible (Mizraim to Shishak) Eve Clarity,2012 Pharaohs of the Bible Mizraim to Shishak proves the Biblical history is accurate It explains how over 200 pharaohs of the 1st 17th dynasties reigned during only 600 years between Noah s flood and Joseph s famine This breakthrough book intertwines the history of the Old Testament with the archaeological facts and events of Egypt the Levant and the cultures around the Mediterranean Sea By correlating facts of famines in Egypt with the Bible several major connections were made For example thirty huge temporary silos were constructed at Tell el Daba Avaris soon after Ahmose I conquered it connecting Ahmose I with Joseph s 7 year famine and the huge grain silos in Boeotia Greece Hundreds of black and white maps charts and pictures simplify the complexity and immensity of the data to enable readers to follow God s remarkable revelation of history

Out of the Desert William H. Stiebing,2012-07-03 Two of the best known stories in the Bible are those of Moses leading his people out of Egypt and Joshua s conquest of the Promised Land Indeed they form one of the cornerstones of the Judeo Christian tradition But is the Bible a reliable source of information for Israel s early history Are the Exodus and Conquest actual historical events And if they are when and where did they occur Out of the Desert rigorously examines accounts of these historic events and traces the authenticity dates and explanations for the Israelites departure from Egypt and subsequent conquest of Canaan Clarifying these events in a straightforward informative manner Out of the Desert includes a generous number of charts and illustrations William H Stiebing Jr places the Exodus within its cultural context during the beginning of the Iron Age 1200 1100 B C a time of drought famine and collapse of social order which gave way to the emergence and dominance of the tribes that joined forces to become the confederation of Israel Many conventional ideas concerning the Exodus and Conquest are radically challenged in Out of the Desert Stiebing s accounts of archaeological digs and rival theories make the narrative lively and engrossing his unique insight into the field of modern archaeology provides a rare glimpse into the wonders of man's history The Levant in Transition: No. 4 P.J. Parr, 2018-12-13 The latter part of the 3rd millennium BC witnessed severe dislocations in the social economic and political structures of the lands at the eastern end of the Mediterranean Sea the Levant In the south in what is now Israel the Palestinian Territories and Jordan hitherto thriving urban centres disappeared to be replaced for several centuries The Archaeology of the Bronze Age Levant Raphael Greenberg, 2019-11-07 An up to date systematic depiction of Bronze Age societies of the Levant their evolution and their interactions and entanglements with neighboring regions The Archaeology of Israelite Samaria. Volume 2: The Eighth Century BCE Ron E.

Tappy, 2018-08-14 In this comprehensive study Professor Tappy rounds out the study of the Iron Age strata at Samaria that he began with the first volume of this work published in 1992 The Early Iron Age through the Ninth Century HSS 44 Tappy's goal is to provide a thorough going analysis of prior archaeologists work at this important north Israelite site with a view to providing a complete reconstruction of the depositional history of the site during the Iron Age The two volumes together are important not only for the history of the city of Samaria but for the archaeological sequences of the Iron Age in northern Israel Arch Of Society Thomas Levy, 1995-01-01 This volume marks a departure from earlier descriptive archaeological summaries of the Holy Land Taking an anthropological and socio economic perspective many of the leading archaeologists who work in Israel and Jordan today present timely and concise summaries of the archaeology of this region Chronologically organized each chapter outlines the major cultural transitions which occurred in a given archaeological period To explain the processes which were responsible for culture change a review is made of the most recent research concerning settlement patterns innovations and technology religion and ideology and social organization The material culture of every period of human history in the Holy Land is explored from the earliest prehistoric hominids through the Biblical and historical periods and up to modern 20th century times Each chapter is accompanied by settlement pattern maps and a plate highlighting the major artifacts which archaeologists use to identify the material culture of the period In addition windows are presented which focus on major social issues and controversies such as The Agricultural Revolution the Israelite Conquest of Canaan and Ancient Metal Working and Social Change This volume should provide students and the general reader with a useful reference volume concerning the archaeology of societies which lived and live in the Holy Land Material Culture

Matters John R. Spencer, Robert A. Mullins, Aaron J. Brody, 2014-05-12 Dr Seymour Gitin is completing his tenure as Director and Dorot Professor at the W F Albright Institute of Archaeological Research in Jerusalem Much of his long career has been spent helping young scholars expand their contacts and hone their skills This volume is a collection of articles by some of the many developing scholars and Albright fellows with whom Sy has shared his time and knowledge Their appreciation shows in the quality of their articles the breadth of their interests and their dedication to Sy Gitin The articles range from a discussion of tomb robbing in Palestinian areas to a geographical analysis of the Shephelah region to Islamic historical texts to Israelite cult stands to Middle Bronze Age burials In addition there are several articles by former members of the Tel Migne Ekron staff that draw on the finds from that site and further demonstrate Sy s willingness to mentor and to share the publication of the site s rich trove of materials This book not only honors Dr Gitin by the willingness of fellows to contribute to the volume it also expands our knowledge base of the southern Levant and shows that Material Culture Matters

The Anra Scarab

Fiona Richards,2001 The potential of the scarab seal is still neglected by many archaeologists They are primarily considered for chronological purposes and so their capacity as an historical document is under rated as is their value as an archaeological tool Luckily more recent studies are beginning to assess the archaeological and historical value of scarabs and in particular design scarabs revealing them as potential indicators of cultural interaction and it is within this genre that the anra identified always by a sequence of hieroglyphs which includes the letters n and r scarab is considered in this extensive study The aim of this work is to try and establish the status function meaning and significance of the anra scarab and possibly offer something new with regard to the nature of the relationships that existed between the countries of Africa and the Levant during the latter part of the Middle Bronze Age
