T&T Clark Encyclopedia of Second Temple Judaism Volume Two Loren T. Stuckenbruck, Daniel M.

Gurtner, 2019-12-26 The T T Clark Encyclopedia of Second Temple Judaism provides a comprehensive reference resource of over 600 scholarly articles aimed at scholars and students interested in Judaism of the Second Temple Period. The two volume work is split into four parts. Part One offers a prolegomenon for the contemporary study and appreciation of Second Temple Judaism, locating the discipline in relation to other relevant fields such as Hebrew Bible, Rabbinics, Christian Origins. Beginning with a discussion of terminology, the discussion suggests ways the Second Temple period may be described and concludes by noting areas of study that challenge our perception of ancient Judaism. Part Two presents an overview of respective contexts of the discipline set within the broad framework of historical chronology corresponding to a set of full colour custom designed maps. With distinct attention to primary sources, the author traces the development of historical, social, political and religious developments from the time period following the exile in the late 6th century B C E through to the end of the Bar Kokhba revolt 135 C E. Part Three focuses specifically on a wide selection of primary source literature of Second Temple Judaism, summarizing the content of key texts and examining their similarities and differences with other texts of the period. Essays here include a brief introduction to the work and a summary of its contents as well as examination of critical issues such as date, provenance, location, language and interpretative matters. The early reception history of texts is also considered and followed by a bibliography specific to that essay. Numerous high resolution manuscript images are utilized to illustrate distinct features of the texts. Part Four addresses topics relevant to the Second Temple Period such as places, practices, historical figures, concepts and subjects of scholarly discussion. These are often supplemented by images, maps, drawings or diagrams, some of which appear here for the first time. Copiously illustrated, carefully researched and meticulously referenced, this resource provides a reliable up to date and complete guide for those studying early Judaism in its literary and historical settings. Encyclopedia of Women Social Reformers Helen Rappaport, 2001-12-06 The first comprehensive guide to women activists from every part of the world, illuminating the broad range of women's struggles to reform society from the 18th century to the present. Despite being marginalized, disenfranchised, impoverished and oppressed, women have always stepped forward in disproportionate numbers to lead movements for social change. This two volume encyclopedia documents the visions, struggles and lives of women who have changed the world. This encyclopedia celebrates the lives and achievements of nearly 300 women from around the globe, women who have bravely insisted that the way things are is not the way they have to be. Nadeshda Krupskaya, the wife of Lenin, spearheaded the drive against illiteracy in post-revolutionary Russia. American Dorothy Day founded the Catholic worker movement. Begum Rokeya Hossain organized a girls school in Calcutta in 1911. Rachel Carson launched the modern environmental movement with her book Silent Spring. The stories of these women and the hundreds of others collected here will restore missing pages to our history and inspire a new generation of women to change the world

God, Adam, and You Michael M. Christensen, 2015-11-17 Barna research suggests just over half of Americans who profess to be transformed by Christ believe God expects them to be holy and only a third consider themselves to be holy This is disconcerting Many of these same believers hold that Adam's sin and overwhelming fleshly desires are at the root of their personal sins The purpose of this book is to re-examine Adam's legacy the flesh what sin really is and God's holiness expectations of us Do Adam's sin and fleshly desires force every person on this earth to sin in his likeness Is sinning daily in thought word and deed our highest expectation Can we love God in such a way that we can consistently obey his commands We will discover that the impediments to a holy life may be fewer than we think and that what God commands of us we really can do
