Enc Afl Fball Hawthorn MbK:

The Hard Way Harry Gordon, 1990 Mud, Muscle and Blood Richard Allsop, Peter Haby, 2008 1957 was a crucial turning point in the history of the Hawthorn Football Club. After 32 fruitless seasons the Hawks made the Finals for the first time. This book captures all the ebbs and flows of the 1957 season including a detailed report on the Final delivering a victory over Carlton.

Mighty Fighting Hawks Martin Blake, 2016-03-28 The rare feat of winning back to back flags in 2013 and 2014 cemented coach Alastair Clarkson's men as a truly great team and Hawthorn FC as a great club. At the end of the 2004 season Hawthorn was an unholy mess with no coach, no chief executive and no captain. Enter Clarkson who established a club culture based on endurance, courage, mateship and sacrifice and in 2008 won the first of his three premierships. It was an unlikely win since Geelong was clearly the best team of the year. All premierships are different and if the 2013 flag was about redemption following the 2012 loss to the Sydney Swans, the 2014 flag was about resilience. After a season where injuries, illness and the absence of Lance Franklin dominated the headlines, the Hawks shook off their arch rival Sydney in a stunning victory against the odds. Under Clarkson there is always a way to win. From Jeff Kennett's reign to the defection of Franklin from Sam Mitchell standing down as captain to make way for Luke Hodge to the key roles of Jarryd Roughead and Cyril Rioli, this is the story of the team that Alastair Clarkson built in a decade of success. This club is here to stay and we plan to be a juggernaut of the AFL. Andrew Newbold, president of Hawthorn Football Club, 28 September 2014.

Playing to Win Michael Gordon, 2014 Playing to Win is an insider's view of how the Hawthorn Football Club won its 11th premiership in 2013 and in the process established itself as Australia's most successful football club over the past 60 years. From an unexpected flag in 2008 to redemption in 2013, Playing to Win captures the memorable moments that enrich this club's already colourful history, a history that began as the perennial easy beats of the competition. Award-winning author Michael Gordon takes the reader inside the private meetings at the key moments during the highs and lows of a five-year journey, offering extraordinary insights into the pressures and realities of elite professional sport. Based on unparalleled access and frank interviews with all the key figures including Alastair Clarkson, Luke Hodge, Sam Mitchell, Jarryd Roughead and many more players and coaches, Playing to Win reveals how the Kennett Curse was overcome, how Jeff Kennett considered dropping the coach to the VFL in 2010 and the coach's formula for transforming his players when they crossed the white line in the 2013 Preliminary Final against Geelong. Playing to Win is compulsory reading for anyone who wants to understand how successful organisations work together to create a winning culture.

One For All Harry Gordon, Michael Gordon, 2009 The story behind the Club's 1991 premiership and the end of the most successful era in the modern history of the game, featuring candid interviews with Dermott Brereton, Gary Ayres, Chris Langford and John Platten. The first comprehensive account of the most bruising chapter in the Club's history, how Hawthorn came close to losing its separate identity in 1996 only to be saved by the Operation Payback campaign led by legendary skipper Don Scott. The Ian Dicker era from good to great with a volunteer workforce brought a new meaning to membership and planning for the future After 100 years at Glenferrie Oval the Club moves its headquarters to elite training and administration facilities at Waverley Park The inside account of how the Alastair Clarkson blueprint evolved and was implemented including the critical role played by Jason Dunstall Publisher
