fell back on surmises Was Nucky laying some deep scheme for mischief when they reached San Francisco John had believed fully that he and Nucky would be friends before Chicago was passed But he had been mistaken What in the world was he to do with the young gambler in San Francisco that paradise of gamblers He could employ a detective to dog Nucky but that was to acknowledge defeat If there were only some place along the line where he could leave the boy giving him a taste of out of door life such as only the west knows For a long time Seaton turned this idea over in his mind The train was pulling out of Albuquerque when he had a sudden inspiration He knew Nucky too well by now to ask him for information or for an expression of opinion But that night at dinner he said casually We re going to leave the main line
