Vernon Lee, 1905 Storied and Supernatural Places Ülo Valk, Daniel Sävborg, 2018-05-09 This book addresses the narrative construction of places the relationship between tradition communities and their environments the supernatural dimensions of cultural landscapes and wilderness as they are manifested in European folklore and in early literary sources such as the Old Norse sagas The first section Explorations in Place Lore discusses cursed and sacred places churches graveyards haunted houses cemeteries grave mounds hill forts and other tradition dominants in the micro geography of the Nordic and Baltic countries both retrospectively and from synchronous perspectives The supernaturalisation of places appears as a socially embedded set of practices that involves storytelling and ritual behaviour Articles show how places accumulate meanings as they are layered by stories and how this shared knowledge about environments can actualise in personal experiences Articles in the second section Regional Variation Environment and Spatial Dimensions address ecotypes milieu morphological adaptation in Nordic and Baltic Finnic folklores and the active role of tradition bearers in shaping beliefs about nature as well as attitudes towards the environment The meaning of places and spatial distance as the marker of otherness and sacrality in Old Norse sagas is also discussed here The third section of the book Traditions and Histories Reconsidered addresses major developments within the European social histories and mentalities It scrutinizes the history of folkloristics its geopolitical dimensions and its connection with nation building as well as looking at constructions of the concepts Baltic Nordic and Celtic It also sheds light on the social base of folklore and examines vernacular views toward legendry and the supernatural

Hidden Places Joseph Conforti, 2020-03-24 Across decades Maine has produced nationally recognized novelists of place based fiction From the late nineteenth century to the present writers have explored the experiences of living in far flung settings island and coastal villages northwoods lumbering communities unincorporated townships backcountry hamlets and mill cities and towns Taken together their body of work composes a remarkable literary map of a diverse and changing Maine Hidden Places explores the identity of Maine through its writers and the people and places they captured at moments in time Hidden Places traces the work of these writers to provoke readers into seeing and understanding Maine places with new awareness These Maine writers construe place as both a territory on the ground and a country of the imagination They help insiders see more clearly what is distinctive about their communities and encourage outsiders to better understand what might seem quaint or odd about the state Like a well drawn atlas Hidden Places seeks to capture a diverse state at the granular level one representation at a time It explores the identity of Maine through its writers and the people and places they wrote of Space and Place in Childrens Literature, 1789 to the Present Maria Sachiko Cecire,Hannah Field,Malini Roy,2016-03-09 Focusing on questions of space and locale in children s literature this collection explores how metaphorical and physical space can create landscapes of power knowledge and identity in texts from the early nineteenth century to the present The collection is comprised of four sections that take up the space between children and adults the representation of real world places fantasy travel and locales and the physical space of the children s book as object In their essays the contributors analyze works from a range of sources and traditions by authors such as Sylvia Plath Maria Edgeworth Gloria Anzald a Jenny Robson C S Lewis Elizabeth Knox and Claude Ponti While maintaining a focus on how location and spatiality aid in defining the child s relationship to the world the essays also address themes of borders displacement diaspora exile fantasy gender history home leaving and homecoming hybridity mapping and metatextuality With an epilogue by Philip Pullman in which he discusses his own relationship to image and locale this collection is also a valuable resource for understanding the work of this celebrated author of children s literature The Politics of Sacred Places Nimrod Luz,2023-09-07 The Politics of Sacred Places is a study of the socio political dimensions of sacred sites in Israel Palestine drawing on over 20 years of in depth ethnographic research which introduces cutting edge theories on secularization struggles for recognition and diversity issues This book focuses on contemporary sacred sites and their socio political meanings for minorities within a hegemonic and a secularizing state system It argues that sacred places provide a space that is less scrutinized by the state and where alternative visions of the socio political may be produced A plethora of sites and case studies are examined including the rural shrine of Maqam abu al Hijja in the lower Galilee the Mosque of Hassan Bek in the heart of Tel Aviv Jaffa and the most disputed sacred place in the region the Haram al Sharif in Jerusalem These sites are explored through mostly a phenomenological lens and in various contexts from the individual body to the global This book offers a critical analytical study of the socio political aspects of sacred sites in contemporary societies within the broader understanding of scale and the spatial turn in the study of religion 123 Places in Turkey Francis Russell,2017-10-10 This personal and well informed selection and description of the most interesting towns and individual buildings and archaeological sites in Turkey is the definitive guidebook for the discerning traveler The author has been visiting Turkey for nearly fifty years and is the perfect companion for those who want to know about more than the obvious attractions This book will immeasurably enhance any thoughtful traveler s visit but can also be read at home as an aid to planning or recalling a trip or simply as a guide to the astonishing and multi faceted artistic and architectural riches of that most fascinating country

Imagining Spaces and Places Saija Isomaa,Kirsi Saarikangas,2014-07-18 Imagining Spaces and Places seeks to produce an interdisciplinary dialogue between art history and literature studies and other fields of cultural analysis that work with the concepts of space place and various scapes such as cityscapes bodyscapes mindscapes and memoryscapes as well as the more familiar landscapes The volume was inspired by new lines of study that underline the experiential and multidimensional aspects of spaces We explore how art literature or urban spaces forge scapes by imposing or suggesting aesthetic evaluative or ideological orderings and perceptual as well as emotive perspectives on the raw material or on previous ways of spatial worldmaking We look at the role of cultural and artistic renderings of space in relation to everyday experiences of spaces We examine how the experiences of places are mediated in various art forms and other cultural discourses or practices and how these discourses contribute to the understanding of particular places and also to understanding space in more general terms Imagining Spaces and Places is addressed to scholars and teachers working at the intersection of cultural and spatial analyses as well as to their undergraduate and postgraduate students

Knowing Places Elizabeth Moores,2012 Enchanting and Enchanted Friedrich Wilhelm Hackländer,1907 Yaqui Homeland and Homeplace Kirstin C. Erickson,2016-10-15 In this illuminating book anthropologist Kirstin Erickson explains how members of the Yaqui tribe an indigenous group in northern Mexico construct negotiate and continually reimagine their ethnic identity She examines two interconnected dimensions of the Yaqui ethnic imagination the simultaneous processes of place making and identification and the inseparability of ethnicity from female identified spaces roles and practices Yaquis live in a portion of their ancestral homeland in Sonora about 250 miles south of the Arizona border A long history of displacement and ethnic struggle continues to shape the Yaqui sense of self as Erickson discovered during the sixteen months that she lived in Potam one of the eight historic Yaqui pueblos She found that themes of identity frequently arise in the stories that Yaquis tell and that geography and location space and place figure prominently in their narratives Revisiting Edward Spicer s groundbreaking anthropological study of the Yaquis of Potam pueblo undertaken more than sixty years ago Erickson pays particular attention to the cultural work performed by Yaqui women today She shows that by reaffirming their gendered identities and creating and occupying female gendered spaces such as kitchens household altars and domestic ceremonial spaces women constitute Yaqui ethnicity in ways that are as significant as actions taken by males in tribal leadership and public ceremony This absorbing study contributes new empirical knowledge about a Native American community as it adds to the growing anthropology of space place and gender By inviting readers into the homes and patios where Yaqui women discuss their lives it offers a highly personalized account of how they construct and reconstruct their identity
