Enchanted River The:

The Enchanted River Simon Fenwick, 2004 In the nineteenth century the Royal Watercolour Society was at the heart of the British artistic establishment Members included David Cox Peter De Wint and Samuel Palmer Edward Burne Jones William Holman Hunt Lawrence Alma Tadema and John Singer Sargent For much of the twentieth century it was considered out of touch with developments in British art until changing fashion brought about the re establishment of the RWS as a significant force in contemporary British painting In an engaging narrative Simon Fenwick records these changing fortunes and the controversies personal vendettas and financial crises which characterised much of its history He tells how Jane Austen visited the 1813 exhibitions looking for portraits of characters from Pride and Prejudice how Burne Jones resigned from the Society in 1870 over complaints about nudes in one of his paintings and how when Helen Allingham was elected to full membership in 1889 the President predicted that this would lead to lady members shrieking at RWS meetings and the breaking up of the Society
