Young, 1952 An Introduction to the Theology of Religions Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen, 2003-10-23 How does Christianity relate to other religions Beginning with a consideration of the biblical perspective Veli Matti Kärkkäinen offers a detailed and comprehensive survey of the diverse explanations proposed by teachers of the church down through the ages This indispensable guide is for anyone seeking to grasp Christianity's relationship to world religions Can Evangelicals Learn from World Religions? Gerald R. McDermott, 2000-08-15 More than ever before Christians need to explain why they follow Jesus and not the Buddha or Confucius or Krishna or Muhammed This evangelical theology of religions addresses the problem of truth and revelation and takes seriously the normative claims of other traditions McDermott shows readers what Christians can learn from world religions without sacrificing the finality of Christ Discovering World Religions Gabriel J. Gomes, 2012-07 In Discovering World Religions author Gabriel J Gomes provides a comprehensive overview of a wide range of world religions including Native American African traditional Hinduism Jainism Buddhism Confucianism Daoism Shinto Zoroastrianism Judaism

Tillich J. Heywood Thomas, 2000-12-13 Paul Tillich 1886 1965 was a remarkable theologian who was as much at home in a philosophical discussion as he was in the pulpit and as keenly interested in art and politics as in his life work as a professional theologian Tillich's attacks on Nazism led to the banning of his books his dismissal from Frankfurt University and ultimately his departure for the United States in November 1933 His many points of contact with key thinkers in theology and philosophy including Heidegger Otto Bultmann Adorno and Barth make him a compelling figure for those interested in the history of ideas in the Twentieth Century J Heywood Thomas critically reviews the philosophical background to Tillich's theology including his debts to Schelling Kant and Husserl He surveys Tillich's achievement as a philosophical theologian examining his ontological approach to Christology and salvation and his understanding of the church as a spiritual community Thomas concludes with an exploration of Tillich's contribution to the changed situation of theology today Zen and Western Thought Masao Abe, 1989-02-01 This collection of Abe's essays is a welcome addition to philosophy and comparative philosophy American Transcendentalism and Asian Religions Arthur Versluis, 1993 Arthur Versluis offers a comprehensive study of the relationship between the American Transcendentalists and Asian religions He argues that an influx of new information about these religions shook nineteenth century American religious consciousness to the core With the publication of ever more material on Buddhism Hinduism and Taoism the Judeo Christian tradition was inevitably placed as just one among a number of religious traditions Fundamentalists and conservatives denounced this influx as a threat but the Transcendentalists embraced it poring over the sacred books of Asia to extract ethical injunctions admonitions to self transcendence myths taken to support Christian doctrines and manifestations of a supposed coming universal religion

The Oxford Handbook of Global Religions Mark Juergensmeyer, 2006-10-12 This is a reference for understanding world religious societies in their contemporary global diversity Comprising 60 essays the volume focuses on communities rather than beliefs symbols or rites It is organized into six sections corresponding to the major living religious traditions the Indic cultural region the Buddhist Confucian the Jewish Christian and Muslim regions and the African cultural region In each section an introductory essay discusses the social development of that religious tradition historically The other essays cover the basic social facts the community's size location organizational and pilgrimage centers authority figures patterns of governance major subgroups and schisms as well as issues regarding boundary maintenance political involvement role in providing cultural identity and encounters with modernity Communities in the diaspora and at the periphery are covered as well as the central geographic regions of the religious traditions Thus for example Islamic communities in Asia and the United States are included along with Islamic societies in the Middle East The contributors are leading scholars of world religions many of whom are also members of the communities they study The essays are written to be informative and accessible to the educated public and to be respectful of the viewpoints of the communities analyzed

The Process of Buddhist-Christian Dialogue Paul O. Ingram, 2009-07-01 While process philosophers and theologians have written numerous essays on Buddhist Christian dialogue few have sought to expand the current Buddhist Christian dialogue into a trilogue by bringing the natural sciences into the discussion as a third partner This was the topic of Paul O Ingram s previous book Buddhist Christian Dialogue in an Age of Science The thesis of the present work is that Buddhist Christian dialogue in all three of its forms conceptual social engagement and interior are interdependent processes of creative transformation Ingram appropriates the categories of Whitehead s process metaphysics as a means of clarifying how dialogue is now mutually and creatively transforming both Buddhism and Christianity
