[The Glory Unveiled]

Now get up and stand on your feet. I have appeared to you to appoint you as a servant and as a witness of what you have seen and will see of me. [

Acts 26:16 NIV]

Encounter Christianity In Words About Jesus:

In Words about Jesus Alan Brown, Alison Seaman, 2002 In Encounter Christianity In Words about Jesus children find out about Jesus as a person through the words that he spoke and words others said about him Encountering Christ in the Eucharist Bruce T. Morrill, 2012 If changes in the church's liturgical practice were the most obvious development of Vatican II to be noticed by the faithful in the pew then inevitably shifts in eucharistic theology were not far behind The previous focus on Christ's presence in the sacrament itself under the species of bread and wine and the attendant forms of worship that this spawned have gradually yielded to deepening insights into the manifold ways in which Christ is present among the faithful Drawing upon the best of recent biblical historical and theological sources Bruce Morrill unfolds how the divine Spirit of Jesus works through ways Christ is present in the celebration of the Eucharist in the assembly presiding minister biblical word and ritual sacrament Mindful of challenges inherent in eucharistic theologies within and among church traditions and communities Morrill orients his theology on two key principles from Vatican II's Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy the celebration of the liturgy as participation in the paschal mystery and the multiple bodily symbolic ways Christ is present in the ritual celebration In the process he sheds new light on such topics as sacrifice covenant divine presence and absence and the tradition's relationship to Judaism There are some challenging implications here not least to the modern tendency to think of liturgy in terms of a personal transaction what I got out of it and to those who hear God's word only according to their own preconceived ideas God's is not a reign limited to our personal histories Morrill points out but rather is one that calls us to hear our story as part of one much larger at times comforting at others confronting us Morrill eloquently invokes these human modes of Christ's presence to draw participants into the mystery of the cross and resurrection into communion with the God whose love for humanity has been revealed unto death making the Eucharist the source and summit for lives shaped in the pattern of Christ's justice and mercy for the life of the world Encountering Christ in the Suffering Humanity (Mt 25:31-46) Cynthia Pinto, 2011 Encountering Christ Workbook Sophia Institute for Teachers, relationship between Islam and feminism is complex There are many Muslim scholars who fervently promote women s equality At the same time there is ambivalence regarding the general norms terminology and approaches of feminism and feminist theology This ambivalence is in large part a product of various hegemonic androcentric and patriarchal discourses that seek to dictate legitimate and authoritative interpretations These discourses not only fuel ambivalence they also effectively obscure valuable possibilities related to interreligious feminist engagement Divine Words Female Voices is the follow up to Jerusha Lamptey s 2014 book Never Wholly Other in which she introduced the idea of Muslima theology and applied it to the topic of religious diversity In this new book she extends her earlier arguments to contend that interreligious feminist engagement is both a theologically valid endeavor and a vital resource for Muslim women scholars She introduces comparative feminist theology as a method for overcoming challenges associated with interreligious feminist engagement reorients comparative discussions to focus on the two Divine Words the Qur an and Jesus and feminist theology and uses this reorientation to examine intersections discontinuities and insights related to diverse theological topics This book is distinctive in its responsiveness to calls for new approaches in Islamic feminist theology its use of the method of comparative theology its focus on Muslim and Christian feminist theology in comparative analysis and its constructive articulation of Muslima theological perspectives

Africa is today often seen because of its large number of Christians as the future hope of the Church a closer examination of African Christianity however shows that the Christian faith has not taken deep root in Africa Many Africans today declare themselves to be Christians but still remain followers of their traditional African religions especially in matters concerning the inner dimensions of their lives It is evident that in strictly personal matters relating to such issues as passage rites and crises most Africans turn to their African traditional religions As an incarnational faith part of the history of Christianity has been its encounter with other cultures and its becoming deeply rooted in some of these cultures The central question remains Why has the Christian faith not taken deep root in Africa This volume is concerned with answering this question The
