Thenafricavil Gandhi / Thenafricavil Gandhi / Ramachandra Guha,2015-01-01 Gandhi Before India
Gandhi's Passion Stanley Wolpert,2002-11-28 More than half a century after his death Mahatma Gandhi continues to inspire millions throughout the world Yet modern India most strikingly in its decision to join the nuclear arms race seems to have abandoned much of his nonviolent vision Inspired by recent events in India Stanley Wolpert offers this subtle and profound biography of India s Great Soul Wolpert compellingly chronicles the life of Mahatma Gandhi from his early days as a child of privilege to his humble rise to power and his assassination at the hands of a man of his own faith This trajectory like that of Christ was the result of Gandhi s passion his conscious courting of suffering as the means to reach divine truth

From his early campaigns to stop discrimination in South Africa to his leadership of a people's revolution to end the British imperial domination of India Gandhi emerges as a man of inner conflicts obscured by his political genius and moral vision Influenced early on by nonviolent teachings in Hinduism Jainism Christianity and Buddhism he came to insist on the primacy of love for one's adversary in any conflict as the invincible power for change His unyielding opposition to intolerance and oppression would inspire India like no leader since the Buddha creating a legacy that would encourage Martin Luther King Jr Nelson Mandela and other global leaders to demand a better world through peaceful civil disobedience By boldly considering Gandhi the man rather than the living god depicted by his disciples Wolpert provides an unprecedented representation of Gandhi's personality and the profound complexities that compelled his actions and brought freedom to India Cultures, Communities, Competence, and Change Forrest B. Tyler, 2013-04-17 Cultures Communities Competence and Change provides a transcultural psychosocial conception of the nature of individual and social activity The author presents an integrated view of how people develop a psychosocially based awareness of themselves and their milieus to shape what he refers to as their interested social systems In so doing he challenges current deficit prevention emphases in the helping disciplines and promotes a constructive prosocial model of individual and social approaches to change Emerging as Affirmative Pastoral Caregivers Beyond Gender Binaries Craig A. Rubano, 2023-11-13 Emerging as Affirmative Pastoral Caregivers Beyond Gender Binaries Gender Creative Promise uniquely brings a gender diverse theological imagination to the field of pastoral theology supplemented by deploying a gender creative interpretative lens on scripture The reader is introduced to an array of persons diverse in their gender variance four continua of gender sex identity expression attraction a gender affirmative psychotherapeutic model as a template for the field of pastoral theology common resilience strategies that transgender persons employ in the face of cultural oppression and aspersion benefits derived from religious affiliation that can enhance resilience and scripturally based principles for delivering affirmative pastoral caregiving beyond gender binaries The author encourages readers to look within and wrestle with the complexities of their own gendered selves while journeying alongside him to emerge as pastoral change makers in their places of teaching ministry and caregiving ethnicity gender and identity influence clinicians experiences as caregivers the featured practitioner authors reflect on endurance suffering and the politics of wellness across their personal and professional lives delicately capturing a new dimension of healthcare previously unfamiliar to wider audiences Medicine Meaning and Identity invites readers to reconsider the doctor not as a hero but rather as a complex whole person not merely as a healer but as an integral community member in acute need of healing

Cut Dead But Still Alive Dr. Gregory C. Ellison II, 2013-05-01 To cut dead means to refuse to acknowledge another with the intent to punish Gregory Ellison says that this is the plight of African American young men They are stigmatized with limited opportunity for education and disproportionate incarceration At the same time they are often resistant to help from social institutions including the church They are mute and invisible to society but also in their inward being Their voice and physical selves are not acknowledged leaving them ripe for hopelessness and volatility So if the need is so great yet the desire for help wanes where is the remedy Healing can begin by reframing the problem While to cut dead is destructive it also refers to pruning and repotting a disfigured plant giving it new possibilities for life In this provocative book Ellison shows how caregivers can sow seeds of life and nurture with guidance admonition training and support in order to help create a community of reliable others serving as an extended family

View From the Murney Tower Richard Allen, 2008-06-15 Salem Goldworth Bland 1859 1950 was among the most significant religious leaders in Canadian history A Methodist and later United Church minister Bland s long career and widespread influence made him a leading figure in the popularizing of liberal theology social reform and the Social Gospel movement He was also a man who struggled with the polarities of evangelical faith and worldly culture and who sought a unifying world view in the mentoring of Sir J William Dawson in the sciences George Monro Grant in public affairs and John Watson in philosophy The View from the Murney Tower is a two volume biography of Salem Bland by Richard Allen author of The Social Passion Religion and Reform in Canada 1914 28 This first volume begins with Bland s upbringing in the home of an educated industrialist turned preacher It goes on to explore his emergence as a liberating mind and eloquent speaker prepared to support new currents of scientific and social thought as well as to discuss their implications for Christian faith and life Allen concludes this first volume with Bland s departure from central Canada for the west in 1903 by which time he had become a somewhat controversial figure amongst conservative evangelicals throughout the country More than just biography however The View from the Murney Tower is also an examination of progressive religion in late Victorian Canada a time in which Darwinism and other Biblical social and intellectual controversies were profoundly affecting the growth of a young nation

A Psychology of Ultimate Concern Hetty Zock, 2023-12-28 Religious Mourning Nathan Carlin, 2014-04-24 Religious Mourning is about a common experience among those who study religion religious loss When people of faith study religion critically or when life experiences such as death and divorce trigger personal reflection on faith religious intellectuals often become estranged from their own tradition Sometimes this estrangement causes them to leave religion altogether But for those who study religion from a psychological perspective a certain kind of introspective and iconoclastic religiosity can be revived by means of academic writing Religious Mourning explores this phenomenon by focusing on psychobiographical writings about religious leaders including Donald Capps portrait of Jesus of Nazareth James Dittes portrait of Saint Augustine and William Bouwsma s portrait of John Calvin to show how these authors personal lives and especially their experiences of loss influence their scholarship As Capps Dittes and Bouwsma subversively scavenge the lives of Jesus Augustine and Calvin to reverse and restore a religion that is rich with experience including and especially their own they invite us to do the same The Study of History ,2000 History is a subject which never stands still It is always changing its philosophies its contours its leading questions its politics its conceptual status and its methodologies This bibliographical guide to the study of history is wide ranging in scope extending from the ancient world to the 20th century It deliberately concentrates on modern historians views provides a substantial section on the philosophy of history charts controversies and highlights the continual evolution and diversification of history The material is logically organized in major areas and subsections and cross references are given where appropriate An index of authors editors and compilers is also provided
