

Encounter with GOD

"In a solidly packed book of about 300 pages the Rev. Morton Kelsey sets forth his thesis that there is a spiritual reality which impinges on man's consciousness, and the consequences of an appreciation of this reality for the life of the church and the individual Christian, today."

"Father Kelsey is a master at succinctly describing the essence of someone's thought and in a few deft sentences analyzing its major strengths and weaknesses."

"The first half of this book should prove a landmark in Christian philosophy in this century. It throws down the gauntlet to theologians and philosophers of our time."

"The second half of the book directs itself to the implications of this philosophical point of view. Father Kelsey makes a careful presentation of twelve ways in which the individual can discover spirituality for himself."

Encounter With God A Theology Of Christi:

A Theology of Conversation Stephen Okey, 2018-10-10 Sometimes described as a theologian's theologian David Tracy's scholarship has impacted countless thinkers around the globe The complexity of his thought however has often made engaging his work into a daunting challenge Combining analysis of the most influential features of Tracy's theology theological method the religious classic public theology with a retrieval of his more overlooked interests Christology God Stephen Okey presents the essential themes of Tracy's career in accessible and insightful prose Encountering God through the Church Wade Rutland Howell, 2019-02-21 In this thought provoking examination of how people encounter God Wade Howell examines the way humans come in contact with the divine Howell presents a biblical theological and philosophical case for why people who are physical can have a relationship with God who is spirit With an emphasis on centrality of the local church Howell demonstrates how God designed the church to satisfy the most intimate human needs which God placed in humans so he could be the source of their fulfillment With a heart for people and a love for God's church Howell echoes Augustine in showing why our soul is restless until it finds rest in God through his church Encounter with God Morton Kelsey, 1987 Doxology: A Systematic Theology Geoffrey Wainwright, 1984 Described by the author as A systematic theology from a liturgical perspective or a theology of worship God Encountered Frans Jozef van Beeck, 1997 A Michael Glazier book Vol 2 pt 2 t p Vol 2 published by the Liturgical Press Collegeville Minn Includes bibliographical references and indexes v 1 Understanding the Christian faith v 2 The revelation of the glory pt 1 Introduction and fundamental theology pt 2 One God creator of all that is pt 3 Finitude and fall pt 4A The genealogy of depravity morality and immorality God Encountered: Understanding the Christian faith Frans Jozef van Beeck, 1997 God Encountered A Contemporary Catholic Systematic Theology Volume One Encountering God Nigel Leaves, 2015-05-19 The recent resurgence of atheism has reignited the 1960s debate about the death of God It is claimed that it is now time to throw off outmoded ideas of the existence of God Believing in God is considered to be a delusion and God can be dispensed with in the face of reason and science In this volume fourteen contributors thirteen Christian and one Jewish argue that God is very much alive They explore God's existence not from the arid disputations of philosophy but from their own experience of Encountering God today They write about their encounter with a God they have discovered in a great variety of places and situations They posit no distinction between religious and secular holy and unholy sacred and profane God is present in all of creation including nature the genome the body music the horror of the Holocaust and politics God is also to be encountered in the life of Jesus of Nazareth those of different faiths and even when debating the atheist Above all several contend the Bible provides opportunities for deep personal encounters with God This is a volume designed for both personal spiritual reflection and for use by religious study groups It will prove an invaluable resource for enabling others also to encounter God Encountering God throws off any veils of religiosity as fourteen contributors open up their hearts about their personal experiences of encountering God in different ways through music politics nature Jesus bodiliness and justice to name a few The breadth of their encounters points to an expansive Mystery within creation explored but never limited by our groping descriptions Reading this book will send you into the world with both a renewed passion and wider vision to encounter and keep alive what Nigel Leaves calls the rumour of God It would be an encouraging book for a group sharing their own experiences Dr Val Webb Australian theologian and author of ten books including Nigel Leaves is Canon of St John s Anglican Cathedral Brisbane where he is responsible for adult theological education He is Adjunct Lecturer in theology at Charles Sturt University He is author of four books including The God Problem 2006 and Religion Under Attack 2011 and is currently at work on a new book entitled Which Jesus Whose Christ He is passionate about bridging the gap between academic theology and the faith of the ordinary believer arguing that everyone is a theologian He is much respected as a conference speaker and workshop facilitator He is married to a fellow Anglican priest and is a keen golfer Encountering Christ in the Suffering Humanity (Mt 25:31-46) Cynthia Pinto, 2011 The Theology of Priesthood Donald Goergen, Ann Garrido, 2000 The Theology of Priesthood is the result of a two year seminar and dialogue on the priesthood sponsored by the Central Province of Dominican Friars The goal of the seminar was to promote dialogue around varied theological issues and pastoral concerns representing diverse viewpoints in order to deepen our understanding of priesthood in the Roman Catholic tradition The focus was on the historical liturgical and theological aspects of priesthood that require further reflection The Oxford Handbook of Catholic Theology Lewis Ayres, Medi Ann Volpe, Thomas L. Humphries (Jr.), 2019 This Handbook provides an introduction to all the major aspects of Catholic theology As well as covering basic topics of doctrine and moral theology the book considers some of Catholic theology s most important sources between 200 and 1870 and all the main movements and developments in Catholic theology since 1870 The Importance of Inner Healing and Deliverance for Effective Discipleship Johnathan Lee Shoo Chiang, 2019-12-18 Personal encounters with God are vital for the current generation of believers the postmodern millennial generation who affirm truth through experience Instead of the traditional view of inner healing and deliverance IHD as a hospital unit of the church this dissertation turned book will explain the biblical theological and current relevance of incorporating IHD into the discipleship structure of the local church With field research based in Singapore and Taiwan a grounded theory based on empirical research attests to a framework that enables believers to personally and powerfully encounter God experience divine healing and wholeness and become equipped for ongoing sanctification

Meeting God on the Cross Arnfríður Guðmundsdóttir, 2010 The cross of Christ has proven to be no less of a stumbling block for Christians living in the end of the twentieth century and the beginning of the twenty first than it was in the first century when the newly established community of friends and followers of Jesus Christ sought to define the foundation of their faith over against the critiques of their Jewish and Greek contemporaries This book presents a theological reception of the contemporary feminist challenge to classical christology by means of an explicit feminist retrieval and reconstruction of a theology of the cross Gudmundsdottir argues that a feminist theology of the cross serves a dual purpose in feminist christology it discloses the patriarchal distortion of traditional christology and can also reveal lost dimensions in the understanding of the person and work of Jesus Christ Although Gudmundsdottir argues that feminist critique is an indispensable element of contemporary christology she also claims that there is a redemptive message in the cross of Christ that is retrievable for women today Despite its potential for abuse and indeed its well documented history of misuse against women in the past a theology of the cross proclaims Jesus as a divine co sufferer who brings good news to the poor and oppressed and as such can be a source of healing and empowerment for suffering women The constructive task of this book is to show that a theology of the cross can indeed become a theology of hope today offering women meaning and strength from a God who takes human form and enters redemptively into their situations of suffering

T&T Clark Handbook of Theological Anthropology Mary Ann Hinsdale, Stephen Okey, 2021-01-28 Including classical modern and postmodern approaches to theological anthropology this volume covers the entire spectrum of thought on the doctrines of creation the human person as imago Dei sin and grace The editors have gathered an exceptionally diverse range of voices ensuring ecumenical balance Protestant Roman Catholic and Orthodox and the inclusion of previously neglected perspectives women African American Asian Latinx and LGBTQ The contributors revisit authors from the Great Tradition early church medieval and modern and discuss them alongside critical and liberationist approaches ranging from feminist decolonial and intersectional theory to critical race theory and queer performance theory This is a much needed overview of a rapidly evolving field
