baptism of the Holy Spirit is increasingly taught and applied to God's people the Church becomes the powerhouse God intended it to be Drawing upon scripture and personal experiences the author presents an enlightening look at how God wants to use His Church mightily in this momentous period of the world through the baptism of the Holy Spirit providing practical steps towards achieving that Increasing The Knowledge Of Baptism In The Holy Spirit is foundational practical and helpful for Christian and Church leaders It will make you rethink much of what you think you know about the Holy Spirit the body of Christ and God's mission to the world

Pentecostal Theology Keith Warrington, 2008-08-07 Pentecostals traditionally do not think theologically so much as do it practically This book will present Pentecostal theology as well as the particular style of Pentecostal thinking and praxis that makes it different Pentecostalism is not just distinctive because of its belief base but also because of the worldview it owns The latter is based on a certainty that a religion that does not work is not worth much Consequently they look for expressions of life and vitality in their faith These dominate rather than an expression of the cerebral though this is changing Nevertheless the sense of the immediate the God of the now not the distant past underlie how they do theology Pentecostal theology tends to be seen through the eyes of people not theologians through the community not traditions though they have them through their faith and worship not ancient creeds It is a theology of the dynamic seen through the lens of experience It is a functional theology that exists to operate to incorporate an experiential dimension Pentecostal theology does not operate as other theologies which often only detail a list of beliefs it does this but also and more importantly it explores them in the context of praxis Thus this volume incorporates praxis as part of the enquiry relating to theology

Types of Pentecostal Theology Christopher A. Stephenson, 2016-10 In this the first critical study of the major theologians of pentecostalism Christopher A Stephenson establishes four original categories that classify recent pentecostal theologians methodologies in systematic constructive theology

Manifesting the Spirit Mbanyane Mhango, 2021-09-30 Fewer subjects have generated intense debate in Christian thought and practice than sacraments A reductionist view of the term sacrament often causes this debate and engenders tension between the so called sacramental and non sacramental churches largely based on whether one views the Water Baptism and the Lord's Supper as ordinances or as sacraments means of encountering God Drawing from the theological view that Christ is the primordial sacrament of the encounter with God this book posits that all believers are sacraments of an encounter with God This claim has ecumenical import Conversion Baptism the Lord's Supper the Empowerment Gifts and Fruit of the Spirit Worship Testimonies of Triumphs or Sufferings Eschatological Hope etc enable believers to manifest the Spirit Pentecost inaugurated all believers as both macrocosmic and microcosmic sacraments The notion of sacramentality of believers intersects with the theological triad of Orthodoxy Orthopraxy and Orthopathy

Studebaker, 2008-03-01 This book brings together the papers presented at the McMaster Divinity College 2007 Pentecostal Forum Defining Issues in Pentecostalism Classical and Emergent It highlights the defining topics past and present of Pentecostal theology The chapters are grouped under Pentecostal theology and biblical studies with selections on classical and contemporary issues in each category This book provides an introduction to the classical doctrines of Pentecostalism and key contemporary developments in Pentecostal theology in one volume Professors desiring to introduce students to Pentecostalism will find here a concise and accessible introduction to the defining historical and contemporary issues

Essentials of Pentecostal Theology Tony Richie, 2020-01-20 Only a few decades past academia tended to scoff at the very idea of serious Pentecostal theology Today profound and variegated theological implications of this dynamic movement are the object of exploration and development across the entire spectrum of the Christian theological corpus Arguably an acute need has arisen for identification and evaluation of the Pentecostal movement's original and ongoing theological essentials What is Pentecostal theology really all about anyway This volume realizes that Pentecostal theology is at its heart a working theology undergirding and energizing believers worship of God in prayer and praise in holy living and in witness to a personal experience of the risen Lord and Savior manifested in the continuing power of the Holy Spirit Authentic implementation if not explicit articulation of fervent Pentecostal theology often occurs in the vitality of local churches house fellowships and various mission settings in America and around the world Birthed in the fires of revival movements essential Pentecostalism including Pentecostal theology continues to burn brightest wherever it is fueled most directly

From Pentecost to the Triune God Steven M. Studebaker, 2012-12-19 In From Pentecost to the Triune God Steven Studebaker puts forth a provocative Pentecostal Trinitarian theology arguing that the Holy Spirit completes the fellowship of the triune God and therefore shapes the identities of the Father and the Son The Holy Spirit Studebaker maintains is not simply a passive end product of a procession from the Father and Son but rather a dynamic person who plays an active role in the Trinity and a constitutional consummational role in the history of redemption In the course of his study Studebaker shows the theological yield of the Pentecostal experience of the Holy Spirit and uncovers the biblical narratives of the Spirit from creation to Pentecost A constructive and ecumenical contribution to

Trinitarian theology From Pentecost to the Triune God also engages major historical and contemporary figures such as Augustine the Cappadocians Weinandy and Zizioulas as well as representatives from the evangelical and charismatic traditions Finally Studebaker applies his Pentecostal Trinitarian theology to the theology of religions and creation care proposing that Christians embrace an inclusive posture toward people of other religious traditions and have an earth orientation that sees creation care as Christian formation

The Greatest Letter Ever Written French L. Arrington, From studying Paul's letter to the Romans we can learn the content of the Christian faith like nowhere else in the New Testament Paul's words are loaded with divine truth and require careful study and thought Indeed the letter to the Romans is a theological jewel but Paul's discussions in the letter are sensible and practical As the name of the letter indicates Paul wrote it to a church in a city known as Rome At the same time without knowing it he wrote it to the whole world and for all the ages supporting the efforts of cross cultural ministry and providing a key to understanding the Bible So even though this great letter was addressed to the saints in Rome during the first century its message is eternal and its mandates are universal the Holy Spirit Yacob Godebo,2025-07-03 The Scriptures teach the church that in biblical times the coming of the Holy Spirit equally entailed objective gift of divine reality and subjective experience of his presence gifts and works There was objective pouring out and imparting of the Holy Spirit from the divine side and subjective experiential demonstration from the receivers side which resulted from the gifts endowed and power imparted along with the Holy Spirit Having given them either verbally uttered or visibly performed gifts the Holy Spirit then moved believers towards practical demonstration through subjective experience Believers subjective experience took place only as a result of the objective gift of the Holy Spirit and the resulting endowment and empowerment Thus in the objective content of his manifestation the Holy Spirit is the objective gift of God to indwell his people In the subjective content of his manifestation the Holy Spirit endows people with audibly uttered or visibly performed gifts The subjective experience of the Holy Spirit's presence therefore is an original theological input from God just like the objective impartation of the Holy Spirit Practitioners were just objects of divine purpose and their subjective experience was divine provided and divine initiated genuine experience beyond their consciousness and calculation Reception of the Holy Spirit therefore means equally an experience of his presence gifts power and works in the church and in with and through believers from Hosanna to Maranatha
