Encountering The Of Genesis:

Encountering God in Genesis Brenda Frost, 2015-09-03 The Bible is God's love letter to us providing many guiding principles for living life the way God intended. The book of Genesis is particularly important as it introduces God the creator of everything. In Encountering God in Genesis author Brenda Frost examines this special book in which we learn many things about God as He interacts with and reveals Himself to His creation. Presenting a Bible study organized into eleven weeks with five days of studies, Encountering God in Genesis provides deeper insight through observation, asking questions based on the text being studied, correlation looking at other texts in the Bible that cover similar topics, commentary providing deep discussion of each idea, vocabulary explaining the meaning of important words, and application posing questions that apply what's been studied to our daily lives. Filled with rich lessons, the book of Genesis is quoted or referred to more than one hundred times in the New Testament and by Jesus Himself. Genesis is the foundation of the entire Bible and serves as the backbone to understanding the rest of Scripture. Encountering God in Genesis helps to enhance your knowledge of this important foundation and provides guidance for living your life according to God's will. \(Encountering Biblical Studies\) Bill T. Arnold, 2003-01-01 This accessible introduction to the Book of Genesis examines introductory issues, overarching themes, and the overall argument of the book. Encountering the Book of Genesis Bill T. Arnold, 1998 Encountering the Divine George Savran, 2005-04-05 An examination of the literary and theological dynamics of the divine human encounter as reflected in theophany narratives in the Hebrew Bible. The point of departure for this study is a type scene analysis which reveals a common structure to theophany narratives. Beginning with the separation of the protagonist from human society, the text moves to a visual and verbal revelation by the Deity and records a range of human reactions to the experience. Each of the texts concludes with a description of a more externalized reaction which marks the carrying over of the experience into a larger societal framework. The analysis develops the underlying structural and contentual similarity among texts which have traditionally been understood as belonging to different literary genres. The discussion offers a nuanced treatment of the range of literary strategies employed by the narrative for addressing these elements. In addition to a detailed analysis of each of the above components of the type scene, there is discussion of issues such as the idea of the lethal nature of the encounter and intertextual relations between the narratives.
