Encounters With Chinese Writers 1st Edition:

International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature The International Who's Who of Authors and Writers offers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence Entries detailing career works published literary awards and prizes membership and contact addresses where available An extensive listing of major international literary awards and prizes and winners of those prizes A directory of major literary organizations and literary agents A listing of members of the American Academy of Arts and Letters AB Bookman's Weekly, 1998 Gu Hongming's Eccentric Chinese Odyssey Chunmei Du, 2019-05-17

Known for his ultraconservatism and eccentricity Gu Hongming 1857-1928 remains one of the most controversial figures in modern Chinese intellectual history A former member of the colonial elite from Penang who was educated in Europe Gu in his late twenties became a Qing loyalist and Confucian spokesman who also defended concubinage footbinding and the queue Seen as a reactionary by his Chinese contemporaries Gu nevertheless gained fame as an Eastern prophet following the carnage of World War I often paired with Rabindranath Tagore and Leo Tolstoy by Western and Japanese intellectuals Rather than resort to the typical conception of Gu as an inscrutable eccentric Chunmei Du argues that Gu was a trickster sage figure who fought modern Western civilization in a time dominated by industrial power utilitarian values and imperialist expansion A shape shifter Gu was by turns a lampooning jester defying modern political and economic systems and at other times an avenging cultural hero who denounced colonial ideologies with formidable intellect symbolic performances and calculated pranks A cultural amphibian Gu transformed from an imitation Western man to a Chinaman again and reinterpreted performed and embodied authentic Chineseness in a time when China itself was adopting the new identity of a modern nation state Gu Hongming's Eccentric Chinese Odyssey is the first comprehensive study in English of Gu Hongming both the private individual and the public cultural figure It examines the controversial scholar's intellectual and psychological journeys across geographical national and cultural boundaries in new global contexts In addition to complicating existing studies of Chinese conservatism and global discussions on civilization around the World War I era the book sheds new light on the contested notion of authenticity within the Chinese diaspora and the psychological impact of colonialism China and Ashkenazic Jewry: Transcultural Encounters Kathryn Hellerstein, Lihong Song, 2022-04-04 In the past thirty years the Sino Jewish encounter in modern China has increasingly garnered scholarly and popular attention This volume will be the first to focus on the transcultural exchange between Ashkenazic Jewry and China The essays here investigate how this exchange of texts and translations images and ideas has enriched both Jewish and Chinese cultures and prepared for a global inclusive world literature The book breaks new ground in the field covering such new topics as the images of China in Yiddish and German Jewish letters the intersectionality of the Jewish and Chinese literature in illuminating the implications for a truly global and inclusive world literature the biographies of prominent figures in Chinese Jewish connections the Chabad engagement in contemporary China Some of the fundamental debates in the current scholarship will also be addressed with a special emphasis on how many Jewish refugees arrived in Shanghai and how much interaction occurred between the Jewish refugees and the resident Chinese population during the wartime and its aftermath The Encounter of Chinese and Western

Philosophies Benoît Vermander, 2023-09-05 Vermander revisits the encounter between Chinese and Western philosophy while unfolding questions about the way comparative philosophy is conducted today In the vulgate of intellectual history Western thought has constructed a substantialist view of reality that puts relations and processes into a subordinate position The same view explains for the primacy given to the autonomy of individual beings In contrast according to the same vulgate Chinese thought has been stressing the fluidity of all phenomena and forms of life to best adapt to their overarching patterns The critique of these representations is a preliminary for tackling the following question in today's context what style of cross cultural philosophical engagement should be imagined and fostered Cross cultural philosophical dialogue is indeed indispensable to the revival of philosophies that could be both local and genuinely dialogic The first two chapters focus upon the dominant model propounded by Western sinologists when it comes to comparing the Western philosophical tradition with the Chinese one The third chapter shifts to Chinese narratives about local comparative and global philosophies notably assessing its self positioning vis vis Western authors topics and concepts Chapter 4 offers a general reading of ancient Chinese classics alternative to the one that presently dominates the landscape described in Chapters 1 to 3 Chapter 5 harnesses the results and insights already gathered offering a blueprint as to the way to positively draw upon different philosophical traditions to engage common questions and pursue shared endeavors A last chapter presents four cases of ongoing transcultural philosophical dialogues and the promises they bear while the conclusion recapitulates the journey and opens further perspectives Once it develops outside pre formatted narratives the web shaped by our philosophies and wisdoms suggests the outlines of a world that we could inhabit together Transactions of the Pharmaceutical

Meetings, 1877 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature in Translation Cosima Bruno, Lucas Klein, Chris Song, 2023-10-19 Offering the first systematic overview of modern and contemporary Chinese literature from a translation studies perspective this handbook provides students researchers and teachers with a context in which to read and appreciate the effects of linguistic and cultural transfer in Chinese literary works Translation matters It always has of course but more so when we want to reap the benefits of intercultural communication In many universities Chinese literature in English translation is taught as if it had been written in English As a result students submit what they read to their own cultural expectations they do not read in translation and do not attend to the protocols of knowing engagements and contestations that bind literature and society to each other The Bloomsbury Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature in Translation squarely addresses this pedagogical lack Organised in a tripartite structure around considerations of textual social and large scale spatial and historical circumstances its thirty plus essays each deal with a theme of translation studies as emerged from the translation of one or more Chinese literary works In doing so it offers new tools for reading and appreciating modern and contemporary Chinese literature in the global context of its translation offering in depth studies about eminent Chinese authors and their literary masterpieces in translation The first of its kind this book is essential reading for anyone studying or researching Chinese literature in translation

Contemporary Chinese Fiction Writers

Laifong Leung, 2016-07-28 In the years since the death of Mao Zedong interest in Chinese writers and Chinese literature has risen significantly in the West In 2000 Gao Xingjian became the first Chinese writer to receive the Nobel Prize for Literature followed by Mo Yan in 2012 and writers such as Ha Jin and Da Sijie have also become well known in the West Despite this progress the vast majority of Chinese writers remain largely unknown outside of China This book introduces the lives and works of eighty contemporary Chinese writers and focuses on writers from the Rightist generation Bai Hua Gao Xiaosheng Liu Shaotang writers of the Red Guard generation Li Rui Wang Anyi Post Cultural Revolution Writers as well as others Unlike earlier works it provides detailed often first hand biographical information on this wide range of writers including their career trajectories major themes and artistic characteristics In addition to this each entry includes a critical presentation and evaluation of the writer's major works a selected bibliography of publications that includes works in Chinese works translated into English and critical articles and books available in English Offering a valuable contribution to the field of contemporary Chinese literature by making detailed information about Chinese writers more accessible this book will be of interest to students and scholars Chinese Literature Contemporary Literature and Chinese Studies

Intransitive

Encounter Nan Da, 2018-12-25 Why should the earliest literary encounters between China and the United States and their critical interpretation matter now How can they help us describe cultural exchanges in which nothing substantial is exchanged at least not in ways that can easily be tracked All sorts of literary meetings took place between China and the United States in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries involving an unlikely array of figures including canonical Americans such as Washington Irving Ralph Waldo Emerson and Henry Wadsworth Longfellow Chinese writers Qiu Jin and Dong Xun and Asian American writers like Yung Wing and Edith Eaton Yet present day interpretations of these interactions often read too much into their significance or mistake their nature missing their particularities or limits in the quest to find evidence of cosmopolitanism or transnational hybridity In Intransitive Encounter Nan Z Da carefully re-creates these transpacific interactions plying literary and social theory to highlight their various expressions of indifference toward synthesis interpollination and convergence Da proposes that interpretation trained on such recessive moments and minimal adjustments can light a path for Sino U S relations going forward offering neither a geopolitical showdown nor a celebration of hybridity but the possibility of self contained cross cultural encounters that do not have to confess to the fact of their having taken place Intransitive Encounter is an unconventional and theoretically rich reflection on how we ought to interpret global interactions and imaginings that do not fit the patterns proclaimed by contemporary literary studies Global Elements in Chinese Literature Sihe Chen,2022-11-28 How has modern Chinese literature emerged from the collision of domestic social upheaval foreign inspiration and sparks of creative genius during the past century Sihe Chen explores this question from a global perspective analysing how Chinese authors assimilated Western literary movements to create new forms of expression adapted to a society in rapid transformation The author then examines these global influences in the works of selected contemporary Chinese novelists and poets He shows that the problems these writers confront are common to all peoples and that Chinese literature expresses not only the story of China but also that of humanity Theaters of Desire: Authors, Readers, and the Reproduction of Early Chinese Song-Drama, 1300-2000 P. Sieber,2003-07-17 Blending a flair for textual nuance with theoretical engagement Theaters of Desire not only contributes to our understanding of the most influential form of early Chinese song drama in local and international cultural contexts but adds a Chinese perspective to the scholarship on print culture authorship and the regulatory discourses of desire The book argues that particularly between 1550 and 1680 Chinese elite editors rewrote and printed early plays and songs so called Yuan dynasty zaju and sanqu to imagine and embody new concepts of authorship readership and desire an interpretation that contrasts starkly with the national and racially oriented reception of song drama developed by European critics after 1735 and subsequently modified by Japanese and Chinese critics after 1897 By analyzing the critical and material facets of the early song and play tradition across different historical periods and cultural settings Theaters of Desire presents a compelling case study of literary canon formation Chinese Contributions to International Discourse of Human Rights Pinghua Sun,2022-04-06 This book discusses human rights law focusing on Chinese contributions to international human rights viewed from a perspective of global governance The original research presented here integrates a variety of research methods inter disciplinary approaches historical and comparative methods documentary research and so on The research findings can be described briefly as follows In global governance the Universal Declaration of Human Rights UDHR serves as a historic cross cultural heritage while Pengchun Chang the Chinese representative made great contributions to the establishment of the international human rights system After examining the characteristics of the Chinese discourse on human rights in global governance the book suggests fundamental principles for improving human rights standards in China In addition it explores Chinese concepts of human dignity concerning the Declaration on Human Dignity for everyone everywhere The target readers are global scholars and students of law politics philosophy international relations human rights law religion and culture The book will provide these readers a vivid picture of China s contributions to international human rights and a better understanding of the significance of traditional Chinese culture and wisdom The Cambridge Guide to Women's Writing in English Lorna Sage, 1999-09-30 This Guide aims to consolidate and epitomise the re-reading of women's writing that has gone on in the last twenty-five years. This is an opportunity for stock-taking a timely project when so much writing has been rediscovered, reclaimed and republished. There are entries on writers, on individual texts and on general terms, genres and movements, all printed in a single alphabetical sequence. The earliest written documents in medieval English, the visionary writings of Julian of Norwich and Margery Kempe, are covered in an historical and geographical sweep that takes us up to the present day. The book reflects the spread of literacy, the history of colonisation and the development of post-colonial cultures using and changing the English language. The entries are written by contributors from all the countries covered. The result is a work of reference with a unique feeling for the vitality, wealth and diversity of women's writing. Words and visions around/about Chinese transnational mobilities □□ Valentina Pedone, Miriam Castorina, 2023 This collection gathers the contributions of ten scholars on the topic of transnational cultural and physical mobility originating in China. These contributions aim to open conversations among Chinese Studies scholars by applying a Mobility Studies perspective. Exploring diverse narratives and forms of representation from people of Chinese heritage, the book is divided into three parts that each look closely at the relationship between movement and cultural production. The first part is dedicated to four types of mobility of people from China to Italy: namely tourist mobility (Miriam Castorina), labor mobility (Valentina Pedone), student mobility (Xu Hao) and mobility of social elites (Andrea Scibetta). The second part is dedicated to examples of reverse mobility from Italy to China (Gao Changxu, Chiara Lepri, Giuseppe Rizzuto). The third part focuses on case studies based on mobilities from China to territories other than Italy (Rebecca Ehrenwirth, Martina Renata, Prosperi, Giulia Rampolla). American Book Publishing Record, 2003 Modern Chinese Women Writers Michael S. Duke, 1989-11-22 The essays in this volume consider the state of current writing of the world's best Chinese women writers. All the contributors relate their authors to the life and work of other contemporary Chinese women writers and compare work coming from PRC, Taiwan and overseas Chinese. The essays make a contribution to the fields of Modern Chinese literature and women's studies and although they are primarily intended to bear witness to the quality of women's writing, they also attempt to elucidate the complex issues of Chinese women's lives in the contemporary world. The Routledge Handbook to Auschwitz-Birkenau Sarah M. Cushman, Joanne Pettitt, Dominic Williams, 2025-08-12 This handbook examines Auschwitz-Birkenau as both a site and a symbol of Nazi genocide. Scholars from a range of disciplinary perspectives consider Auschwitz's history by engaging with Holocaust historiography and its place in Holocaust memory and representation, illustrating their mutual influence. The chapters bring new insights to topics that other studies of Auschwitz have explored before, such as the Sonderkommando, the Czech family camp and literary representations of Auschwitz. Other chapters cover recent developments and more neglected areas such as the experience and memory of Romani prisoners, the fate of Soviet prisoners of war and Auschwitz's presence on social media. The handbook also responds to a number of recent trends and new paradigms in Holocaust Studies, including contributions from the fields of Environmental Studies Spatial Studies and Gender Studies As a crucial overview of the topic of Auschwitz Birkenau and an introduction to its most recent and fruitful scholarly approaches this handbook will be a valuable resource for undergraduates from second year and up as well as for graduate students and researchers seeking a survey of the field

Transforming Author Museums Ulrike Spring,Johan Schimanski,Thea Aarbakke,2021-10-15 Literary museums today must respond to new challenges the traditional image of the author s home museum as a sacred place of literary pilgrimage centered around a national hero has been questioned and literary museums have begun to develop new strategies centered not only on biography but also literary texts imagined spaces different readers historical contexts architectural concepts and artistic interventions As this volume shows the changing of spaces asks how literary museums create new ways of interlinking real and literary spaces texts objects readers and tourists

Conflicting Memories ,2020-09-07 Conflicting Memories is a study of how the Tibetan encounter with the Chinese state during the Maoist era has been recalled and reimagined by Chinese and Tibetan authors and artists since the late 1970s Written by a team of historians anthropologists and scholars of religion literature and culture it examines official histories biographies memoirs and films as well as oral testimonies fiction and writings by Buddhist adepts The book includes translated extracts from key interviews speeches literature and filmscripts Conflicting Memories explores what these revised versions of the past chose as their focus which types of people produced them and what aims they pursued in the production of new post Mao descriptions of Tibet under Chinese socialism Contributors include Robert Barnett Benno Weiner Fran oise Robin Bianca Horlemann Alice Travers Alex Raymond Chung Tsering D a Pejchar Mortensen Charlene Makley X nia de Heering Nicole Willock M Maria Turek Geoffrey Barstow Gedun Rabsal Heather Stoddard Organ Nyima Conflicting Memories is a truly marvellous book It has assembled critical readings of Tibetan memories of their fateful encounters with the Chinese Communists who came uninvited as their liberators and friends Supplemented with excerpts from key Tibetan writings or oral reminiscences the volume brings forth hitherto unheard of Tibetan voices Yet these were not hidden voices but often commissioned by Chinese authorities or in dialogue with them each trying to juggle the promissory pronouncements and an unsavoury reality Taken together the contrapuntal reading of these memories masterfully showcases Tibetan people s resourcefulness in dealing with a regime that often redefines its relations with Tibet while always aiming for total ownership

URADYN E BULAG author of Collaborative Nationalism The Politics of Friendship on China s Mongolian Frontier Conflicting Memories offers an invaluable collection aiding us to think through the complex and much contested ramifications of Tibet s incorporation into Maoist China The mix of analytical articles by some of the best scholars now working in the area and original documents translated from the writings of astute Tibetan observers is particularly welcome The volume will be required reading for all serious students of contemporary Tibet

MATTHEW KAPSTEIN author of The Tibetans This remarkable book offers unequalled access to the Tibetan experience of Communist nation building By examining how the Maoist encounter has been remembered and misremembered across many media under the influence of ever changing political conditions the authors communicate both the trauma of those years and the persisting difficulty of coming to terms with it for Chinese as well as Tibetans The chapters enhanced by numerous first hand accounts and illustrations represent the best scholarship of this field Strongly recommended for readers interested in the history of the People s Republic and its ethnic minorities DONALD S SUTTON co author of Contesting the Yellow Dragon Ethnicity Religion and the State in the Sino Tibetan Borderland with XIAOFEI KANG This groundbreaking work sheds unprecedented light on the various processes of historical rewriting about Tibet since the death of Mao The multivocal composition of the book offers rich and diverse accounts of a set of key events and epochal moments that attest to the numerous obstacles in retelling the Maoist past and the experience of sufferi

Chinese Modern Peter G.
