

Mark E. Moore

A person with reddish-brown hair, wearing a light blue shirt, is kneeling on a dirt path in a forest, facing away from the viewer. The path is surrounded by lush green foliage and trees. The scene is bathed in a soft, golden light, suggesting a sunrise or sunset. The overall mood is peaceful and contemplative.

Doane, 2019-12-02 His Eminence Robert Cardinal Sarah prefect of the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments recently commented on the fire at Notre Dame cathedral He said the Church is only of interest because she allows us to encounter Jesus She is only legitimate because she passes on Revelation to us When the Church becomes overburdened with human structures it obstructs the light of God shining out in her and through her The Church should be like a cathedral Everything in Her should sing to the glory of God She must unceasingly direct our gaze toward him like the spire of Notre Dame pointed toward heaven Encounter Jesus Transforming Catholic Culture in Crisis is a call to rebuild a Catholic culture that has wandered from her spiritual root system In the West and the United States the light that shined starting in the Acts of the Apostles has become dim and in some places extinguished The specifics to what apostolic spirituality embodies will convict challenge and call the clergy consecrated religious and laity to take seriously what it means to be a catholic Christian Just as architects

design the rebuilding of the Notre Dame Cathedral may this book serve as a blueprint for transformation in the culture of the church

Pentecostal and Charismatic Studies William Kay, Anne E. Dyer, 2017-10-30 The Pentecostal and Charismatic movement is one of the miracles of the 20th century Without government support without an advertising campaign often without the notice of journalists and academics and sometimes in the face of persecution and ridicule it has spread its message around the world and now attracts in the region of 500 million people Many of its original and formative documents are unknown and out of print This book collects together samples from the writings of key Pentecostals and charismatics going back about 100 years and over a range of issues and practices shows how they vary and how they have developed historically These texts have lain in out of print magazines and archives and so far as we know have never been collected before in this way This book allows you to hear the authentic voice of the Pentecostal and charismatic movements drawing especially from sources in English

Conversations at the Well Jung Eun Sophia Park, Teresa Maya, 2019-08-29 Are religious women in the United States disappearing and finally dying out Or is there any new way of religious life emerging Conversations at the Well tries to respond to this question In the twenty first century of the global world newly emerging religious life would be rooted with the Jesus Movement and develop in the spirit of collaboration networking and intercultural living As the liminal space religious life is located at the margins subverting the existing social order and creating a new vision for the world This book explores an alternative meaning of religious life within the context of the apostolic mission In this new religious life the concept of community is not limited to living as a community in the convent but extended into collaborating friendship Primarily the apostolic religious life is deeply related to social justice delinking the global capitalism in which many people suffer from human trafficking immigration and exile The new leader of religious women would require skill in handling uncertainty amplifying resources and opening to the new reality In this new religious life spirituality would be articulated as freedom and liberation to let go of the old frame as well as letting the new life become reality In this way as radical disciples religious women in the twenty first century embody the Jesus Movement building bridges between different cultures and people

Encountering Christ Cardinal Jorge Bergoglio, 2017-03-31 When Cardinal Jorge Mario Bergoglio stepped out onto the balcony of St Peter's as the new Pope many were unfamiliar with him Many wondered who he was where he was from and how he would lead the Church in these trying times When his name was announced Francis the world had its first indication that this was going to be a Pope of firsts But for those who already knew Pope Francis as Cardinal Bergoglio there was nothing surprising about the choice of that name As the archbishop of Buenos Aires Cardinal Bergoglio had already developed a reputation as a man of unusual humility simplicity love for the poor and evangelical spirit Encountering Christ gives the reader a glimpse into the heart and mind of Pope Francis It offers a selection of homilies letters and addresses delivered from 2009 2013 as archbishop of Buenos Aires These texts contain many of the themes that have already emerged as central to Pope Francis pontificate love for the poor the dangers of a self referential Church and the need to go out and bring Christ to the world As the world learns more about Pope Francis in the months and years to come these texts offer an introduction into the spiritual priorities of our new Holy Father Make Room for God M. Discipleship in a Post-Christian Age Thiago Silva,2025-05-20 This is an age where Christianity is no longer the assumed foundation of culture Instead secularism relativism and individualism shape how people think live and even approach faith Many within the church have unknowingly embraced a shallow self focused spirituality that offers comfort without transformation How can the church recover a robust life giving vision of discipleship in such a world With a little help from C S Lewis this book offers a way forward Lewis s insights rooted in reason imagination and community speak powerfully to this modern crisis equipping believers to engage both mind and heart Through cultural analysis and biblical wisdom this book calls the church to rediscover discipleship as an intellectual imaginative and relational pursuit one that forms resilient thoughtful and deeply rooted followers of Christ Whether picked up by a pastor church leader or everyday disciple longing for deeper faith this book will challenge and inspire readers to cultivate a Christianity that is not only true but beautiful and compelling in an increasingly post Christian world The Dialectics of Discipleship Chris Swann,2023-08-24

Interrogating Barth s discipleship shaped vision of sanctification this book investigates both Lutheran and Calvinian source material to develop an account that differs markedly from other Lutheran and Calvinist perspectives Highlighting the robustly theological and Christ centred character of Barth s account Chris Swann demonstrates that far from merely valorising human activity Barth advances an understanding of human moral agency action and suffering that is real but relative to the agency of God in Christ to which it corresponds analogously With a focus on the role the image of discipleship plays in giving conceptual structure and shape to Barth s distinctive account of the correspondence between divine agency and sanctified human agency this book evaluates the ramifications of his discipleship shaped vision of sanctification In doing this it gives special attention to Barth s own personal mixed record with regard to Christian discipleship Ultimately Swann retrieves a number of important resources for contemporary theological ethics from Barth s theology of discipleship

Encountering Christ in the Suffering Humanity (Mt 25:31-46) Cynthia Pinto,2011 Being Faithful: Christian Commitment in Modern Society Judith A. Merkle,2010-09-02 This book explores how the Christian life is lived in a pluralistic situation where different contexts of belonging give rise to different moral challenges While it is characteristic of modern life to exist in a postmodern situation where there is an erosion of comprehensive systems of meaning we still live today in contexts of belonging We still seek to gather out of the fragments of modern life the sustenance of a network of belonging belief and practice which comprise a faithful life The construction of such a life not only for us but for others serves as the framework for our moral commitments Furthermore sustaining and transforming social frameworks which shape various aspects of human life form the life task of adult Christians Encountering Jesus, Encountering Scripture David Crump, 2013-05-26 Personal experiential faith is seldom given a seat at the table of academic theology and biblical studies David Crump however with the assistance of Sren Kierkegaard s religious philosophy claims that authentic understanding and thus authentic Christian commitment can only arise from the personal commitment that is faith Examining the various biblical historical cultural theological and academic hurdles demanding a truly Kierkegaardian leap of faith before one can meet the resurrected Jesus Crump s Encountering Jesus Encountering Scripture provides a very insightful discussion of key New Testament texts and issues revealing how Truth is discovered only through the subjectivity of faith Make Room for God Germaine Hustedde PHJC, 2022-05-22 MAKE ROOM FOR GOD is an invitational exploration of one s journey through life using an enhanced mode of awakening It is a pathway for the earnest searcher to live at a deeper and enriched level of existence Drawing on theories of psychologists and philosophers the author presents an interesting well crafted and readable text constructed on the principles of formative spirituality drawing on contemporary thinkers and classical spiritual masters Each chapter concludes with a Prayer Poem and several reflective questions to enable the reader to enter more fully into the inward journey Personal biographical inserts gives the book a unique and interesting flavor which will inspire the reader A Maryknoll Liturgical Year Judy Coode, Kathy McNeely, 2013-09-01 Reflections by Maryknoll missionaries relate the Sunday Gospel readings to the world of the poor and marginalized Maryknoll missionaries bring a special perspective to their reading of the Gospels From their immersion among the poor in many cultures around the world they witness daily stories of love faith and hope that open new angles on Jesus message and its meaning for our world In this book which follows the Sunday readings for the liturgical year Maryknoll sisters priests brothers and lay missionaries share personal reflections on the Gospel in light of their mission experience From a village in Tanzania to a refugee camp in Central America to an orphanage in Jamaica stories of compassion generosity and forgiveness illuminate the scriptural texts while also enlarging our solidarity with the human family The experience of these missionaries has enriched their own faith Reading their reflections will enrich your own Christ's Call to Discipleship James Montgomery Boice, 2013-09-06 Boice describes what it means to live a life of true discipleship recognizing Christ s dominion not only as Savior but also as Lord Popular radio speaker author and pastor James Montgomery Boice describes what it means to live a life of true discipleship recognizing Christ s dominion not only as Savior but also as Lord Dr Boice explores the meaning path cost and rewards of being a true disciple As the author asserts in the preface I believe that if America could produce a
