

Feminism, Communism and Global Socialism: Encounters and Entanglements

CELIA DONERT

The promise of women's emancipation and equal rights under socialism exerted a powerful influence over global feminist movements during the twentieth century. Equality between men and women was central to the ideology of socialist regimes in the Soviet bloc and China, even though this aim was not always achieved in practice. By the early 1970s, when "second-wave" feminism emerged in the United States and Western Europe, women in most socialist countries enjoyed equal educational and employment opportunities, childcare facilities, access to abortion and extended maternity leave. Thus many of the demands of Western feminist movements after 1968 were already taken for granted by women living in socialist states. With the significant exception of China, where the economic reforms introduced by the post-Mao government were accompanied by the coercive and often violent one-child policy after 1979–80, the last two decades of state socialism witnessed a further expansion of measures to safeguard the social protection of motherhood and thus to boost flagging birth rates while enabling women also to work in paid employment. Despite the constraints and inadequacies of the paternalistic welfare policies implemented by socialist regimes, many women experienced the collapse of state socialism in 1989–91 as a loss of social rights as well as an era of tantalizing new freedoms, among them the possibility of establishing organizations that explicitly identified as "feminist."

This chapter explores the shifting relationship between feminism, communism and global socialism between 1968 and 1995. During this period, ideas about women's emancipation, women's rights and feminism circulated between East and West, as well as among the countries of the Soviet bloc, China and postcolonial states. The Vietnam War and the global protest movements around 1968 acted as a trigger for these transnational encounters,

Encounters With Communism:

Seeing Red David Bonavia,1987      European Encounters Carlos Reijnen,Marleen Rensen,2014-04-20 European Encounters explores the making and remaking of ideas of Europe between 1914 and 1945 as a result of intellectual encounters and intellectual exchange Against the background of the first half of the twentieth century European intellectuals feverishly chased new and uncharted territories most often across national borders Their encounters with other intellectuals or ideas cultures concepts and practices produced new understandings of Europe and triggered projects for Europe s future West European writers turned to Russian literature Catholic politicians from Northern Europe embraced corporatist and fascist solutions from Mediterranean Europe scientist pointed at science and their network as sources of peace and reconciliation and others committed themselves to the European federalism of the Pan Europa Movement This volume unravels the encounters and exchanges that lie at the roots of this attempt at rethinking Europe      Encounters in the Rubble Erica J. Lansberg,2025-08-12 The US occupation of Germany after World War II was a time in which encounters between American soldiers and young German civilians were especially ubiquitous Overall German children and youth played a fundamental role in the US occupation impacting both personal and political relations Using a blend of sources ranging from German children s diaries to official US military records this work provides a wide reaching examination of the youngest civilians under occupation in the postwar aftermath of the Nazi regime It centers on the personal experiences of both German children and American military personnel during the occupation and also examines the ways that young Germans impacted transatlantic policies especially in the context of the emerging Cold War including during the Berlin Airlift This work thus considers the youngest members of the occupied German population as important historical actors during a time of major transition from war to peace marked by encounters made in the rubble      Modern Chinese Theologies Chloë Starr,2023 Chinese Theologies introduces the vibrant development of Chinese theology in its many forms across the twentieth and twenty first centuries It also challenges prevalent narratives regarding the lack of Chinese theologies and engages questions of the construction of theology in their own traditions nations      Encounters in My Travels Dixie Lee Harris,2006 Harris details her travels through 67 countries over twelve years Questions about how a person s values form his or her life and how life expresses those values evoke additional philosophical thought about this volume      Encounter Between Marxian Philosophy and Theology of Humanisation in India Mervin Shinoj Boas,2007      Marxism and Film Activism Ewa Mazierska,Lars Kristensen,2015-07-01 In Theses on Feuerbach Marx writes The philosophers have only interpreted the world differently the point is to change it This collection examines how filmmakers have tried to change the world by engaging in emancipatory politics through their work and how audiences have received them It presents a wide spectrum of case studies covering both film and digital technology with examples from throughout cinematic history and around the world including Soviet Russia Palestine South America and France Discussions range from the classic Marxist cinema of Aleksandr Medvedkin Chris Marker and Jean Luc Godard to recent media such as 5 Broken Cameras 2010 the phenomena of video blogging and bicycle activism films

Communism's Public Sphere Kyrill Kunakhovich, 2023-01-15 Communism's Public Sphere explores the political role of cultural spaces in the Eastern Bloc Under communist regimes that banned free speech political discussions shifted to spaces of art theaters galleries concert halls and youth clubs Kyrill Kunakhovich shows how these venues turned into sites of dialogue and contestation While officials used them to spread the communist message artists and audiences often flouted state policy and championed alternative visions Cultural spaces therefore came to function as a public sphere or a rare outlet for discussing public affairs Focusing on Krak w in Poland and Leipzig in East Germany Communism's Public Sphere sheds new light on state society interactions in the Eastern Bloc In place of the familiar trope of domination and resistance it highlights unexpected symbioses like state sponsored rock and roll socialist consumerism and sanctioned dissent By examining nearly five decades of communist rule from the Red Army's arrival in Poland in 1944 to German reunification in 1990 Kunakhovich argues that cultural spaces played a pivotal mediating role They helped reform and stabilize East European communism but also gave cover to the protest movements that ultimately brought it down

Encountering Althusser Katja Diefenbach, Sara R. Farris, Gal Kirn, Peter Thomas, 2013-01-10 French philosopher Louis Pierre Althusser 1918 1990 helped define the politico theoretical conjuncture of pre and post 1968 Today there is a recrudescence of interest in his thought especially in light of his later work published in English as Philosophy of the Encounter Verso 2006 This has led to renewed debates on the reformulation of conflicting notions of materialism on the event as both philosophical concept and political construction and on the nature of politics and the political These original essays by leading scholars aim to provide a new assessment of Althusser's thought especially in relation to contemporary debates Organized in four sections that represent the main currents in Althusser's scholarship the book discusses materialism and the different formulations of the relationship between politics and philosophy Althusser's interpretations of political thinkers including Machiavelli Deleuze and Gramsci the resources he provides to critique political economy and politics in post Marxist thought and the theorization of ideology and politics Encountering Althusser is a groundbreaking resource that highlights Althusser's continuing relevance to contemporary radical thought Transatlantic Intellectual Networks, 1914-1964 Hans Bak, Céline Mansanti, 2019-11-13 The twelve essays in this book by scholars from the U S France Germany the Netherlands and the Czech Republic offer new transnational perspectives in transatlantic historical literary and cultural studies They explore the special role of American and European intellectuals as agents of transatlantic cultural transfer and examine the mechanisms and instruments through which artists writers and intellectuals communicated across oceans and national borders in the half century between 1914 and 1964 Their focus is on transatlantic networks and the instruments of culture through which such networks become operative as sites of cross cultural exchange circulation and interaction magazines caf's publishing houses book fairs agents translators and mediators and last but not least transatlantic personal friendships Contending that the dynamics of transatlantic cultural transfer need to be understood as reciprocal and multi directional they also exemplify the shift within transatlantic intellectual history from a traditional concern with European U S relations to a multidirectional triangular exploration of cultural political and intellectual relations between Europe the United States and Latin America The Encounter Susan Grogan, 2007-05 Supernatural rulers of darkness are behind an American Hiroshima fulfilling Biblical prophecy and ushering in the one world government of the Antichrist Jaron Fuller and Mandy Harris are conducting a Bible prophecy conference in Los Angeles unaware of the impending disaster Will they leave before Los Angeles is vaporized by the approaching nuclear missile The Diaspora Encounter Francisco Cruz, 2023-01-03 As a historian of a different making Francisco seeks to capture the heart of his past and that of spirituality through lifetime memories from boyhood days in Shanghai and Macau to day dreams as a young man in Hong Kong from new family life in San Francisco as a naturalized citizen to rebirth of mind through a number of pilgrimages to Fatima Medjugorje and Moscow with his extended family Together with his spiritual partner and second wife of 30 years Terry he witnessed the crowning of the Blessed Virgin Mary at the Red Square in Moscow for the 75th Anniversary of the Fatima Apparition in Portugal As just two amongst one thousand plus of God's children from bishops to priests theologians brothers sisters youths and other laypersons that were there that day they joined together at the 1992 World Youth Congress in Moscow to share a very special message with the world about the need for change It was a message of WARNING as prophesized by the Blessed Virgin the Mother of God on Sunday the 13th of May in the year 1917 But more importantly it was also a call for love and spiritual renewal There has been no phenomenon like it ever before recorded but the miracle of the sun in Fatima continues to shine bright even at the darkest of times and is the hope behind this book Many of history's greatest thinkers have wrestled with the question of belief and non belief in God through their literary circles and often simply by the way they have lived their lives 1 Is there a God and 2 Why would He care about me Those are profound and universal questions considered in the first two books of this family story and re visited here in this third encounter in trilogy Though it might seem unlikely that any new arguments can be raised from either side between Science and Theology on Christendom ultimately each reader needs to ask through his or her own voice of Faith this question of GOD and His existence It is at that spiritual juncture of question and answer that mankind may decide which path to follow As seminarian students Terry and Francis took three years of theology at St Patrick Seminary University in Menlo Park under the Diaconate Formation Program with the hopes of Francisco becoming a deacon with the Class of 2006 Though God had other plans for Francisco both husband and wife humbly served at the Cathedral of St Mary of the Assumption in San Francisco and at St Bruno Church of the San Francisco Archdiocese for three decades This soulful dialogue is for anyone seeking out answers about Judeo Christian ethics and the belief that GOD reveals all in time

Britain's Encounter with Revolutionary China, 1949-54 James Tuck-Hong Tang, 2016-07-27 This book examines Britain's recognition of the newly established Peoples Republic of China in 1950 and the developments leading to the establishment of formal Anglo Chinese diplomatic relations in 1954 The importance of the USA in Anglo Chinese relations is also highlighted by this study Based on archival materials and interviews this is an attempt to apply a decision making framework to study the formulation and implementation of Britain's China policy and to explore revolutionary China's conduct in international relations

The SAGE Handbook of Marxism Beverley Skeggs, Sara R. Farris, Alberto Toscano, Svenja Bromberg, 2021-11-17 The past decade has witnessed a resurgence of interest in Marxism both within and without the academy Marxian frameworks concepts and categories continue to be narratively relevant to the features and events of contemporary capitalism Most crucially an attention to shifting cultural conditions has lead contemporary researchers to re confront some classical and essential Marxist concepts as well as elaborating new critical frameworks for the analysis of capitalism today The SAGE Handbook of Marxism showcases this cutting edge of today's Marxism It advances the debate with essays that rigorously map and renew the concepts that have provided the groundwork and main currents for Marxist theory and showcases interventions that set the agenda for Marxist research in the 21st century A rigorous and challenging collection of scholarship this book contains a stunning range of contributions from contemporary academics writers and theorists from around the world and across disciplines invaluable to scholars and graduate students alike Part 1 Reworking the critique of political economy Part 2 Forms of domination subjects of struggle Part 3 Political perspectives Part 4 Philosophical dimensions Part 5 Land and existence Part 6 Domains Part 7 Inquiries and debates

Encounter with a Terrorist Ranganathan Magadi, 2009-05-12 This is the story of an innocent who meets a terrorist in the making in his younger days and in later years the terrorist pursues him with rancor and rewrites his destiny till he succeeds in killing him

Philosophy of the Encounter Louis Althusser, 2020-05-05 In the late 1970s and 1980s Louis Althusser endured a period of intense mental instability during which he murdered his wife and was committed to a psychiatric hospital Spanning this deeply troubling period this fourth and final volume of political and philosophical writings reveals Althusser wrestling in a creative and unorthodox fashion with a whole series of theoretical problems to produce some of his very finest work In his profound exploration of questions of determinism and contingency Althusser developed a philosophy of the encounter which he links to a hidden and subterranean tradition in the history of Western thought which stretches from Epicurus through Spinoza and Machiavelli to Marx Derrida and Heidegger Places of Encounter, Volume 2 Aran MacKinnon, Elaine McClarnand MacKinnon, 2018-03-09 First Published in 2018 Using a place based approach by focusing on specific locations at critical historical moments of historical transformation Places of Encounter provides a unique alternative to world history anthologies or survey texts Students will experience the narrative of historic individuals as well as modern scholars looking back over documentation to offer their own views of the past providing students with the perfect opportunity to see how scholars form their own views about history This text can be purchased as two volumes providing a breadth of information for survey courses in world history
