Encounters With Great Painters:

Encounters With Great Painters Claude Azoulay, 2001-05 In this unique series of colorful photo essays interviews anecdotes gathered from the popular French magazine Paris Match we enter the private worlds of 11 legendary modern artists including Matisse Dali Picasso Miraculous Encounters Bruce Edelstein, Davide Gasparotto, 2018 Jacopo Carucci known as Pontormo 1494-1557 was the leading painter in mid sixteenth century Florence and one of the most original and extraordinary Mannerist artists His extremely personal style was much influenced by Michelangelo though he also drew from northern art especially the work of Albrecht Dürer This catalogue brings together a small but important group of preparatory drawings and finished paintings that center on Pontormo's great masterpiece The Visitation one of the most moving and mesmerizing works by the artist The Visitation represents the intense moment of encounter between the Virgin Mary and her cousin Elizabeth who reveal to each other that both are pregnant The painting is presented for the first time along with its highly finished preparatory drawing which is squared for transfer to the larger surface of the panel The combination of rigorous research and gorgeous reproductions reveals the painter's creative process as never before Other acclaimed paintings including Portrait of a Halberdier and Portrait of Carlo Neroni will also be shown alongside their preparatory drawings Readers will encounter Pontormo both as a religious painter and a painter of portraits in this original and nuanced account of the celebrated artist Encounters & Reflections Arthur C. Danto, 1997-01-01 Provides a collection of essays on modern art covering such artists as Andy Warhol David Hockney and Robert Mapplethorpe The Great Encounter of China and the West, 1500-1800 D. E. Mungello, 2024-09-17 For the Chinese the drive toward growing political and economic power is part of an ongoing effort to restore China's past greatness and remove the lingering memories of history's humiliations This widely praised book explores the 1500-1800 period before China's decline when the country was viewed as a leading world culture and power Europe by contrast was in the early stages of emerging from provincial to international status while the United States was still an uncharted wilderness D. E. Mungello argues that this earlier era ironically may contain more relevance for today than the more recent past Building on the author's decades of research and teaching this compelling book illustrates the vital importance of history to readers trying to understand China's renewed rise Tales of the boyhood of great painters Marian Jervis (Lady Jervis-White-), 1872 Ruskin's Artists Robert Hewison, 2017-11-22 This was first published in 2000 A study of John Ruskin's engagement with art and architecture as a critic a patron and a teacher It offers insights into both his writings and the visual economy of the Victorian world Each essay examines Ruskin's relationship with an individual artist or a distinct aspect of art practice J. M. W. Turner D. G. Rossetti W. Holman Hunt and E. Burne Jones are among those artists discussed whose personal relationships with Ruskin affected his critical writing Ruskin's attitude to women artists and his approach to the teaching of art are given special attention Encounter with Spurgeon Helmut Thielicke, 2016-11-24 In his introductory essay to this selection from the writing and preaching of C. H. Spurgeon

Helmut Thielicke himself among the best preachers of the twentieth century expresses his surprise and delight at his discovery of the great Victorian preacher. He draws out those qualities which made Spurgeon one of the most influential ministers of his day and explains what it was that attracted him to the self-educated Baptist preacher. They share a recognition of the urgency of their message. We stand in need of the simple way in which Spurgeon dares to say that what really and ultimately counts is to save sinners. Warmth, immediacy and directness are Spurgeon's hallmarks, qualities which Thielicke's own remarkable sermons share but which he felt much preaching of his day lacked. It is still a convincing testament to Spurgeon's continuing vitality and relevance that Thielicke, one of the greatest modern preachers, should say: "Sell all that you have and buy Spurgeon." An Audience of Artists Catherine Craft, 2012-05-30. An Audience of Artists turns this time line for the postwar New York art world on its head, presenting a new pedigree for these artistic movements. Drawing on an array of previously unpublished material, Catherine Craft reveals that Neo-Dada, far from being a reaction to Abstract Expressionism, actually originated at the heart of that movement's concerns about viewers' originality and artists' debts to the past and one another. Furthermore, she argues, the original Dada movement was not incompatible with Abstract Expressionism. In fact, Dada provided a vital historical reference for artists and critics seeking to come to terms with the radical departure from tradition that Abstract Expressionism seemed to represent. Tracing the activities of artists such as Robert Motherwell, Barnett Newman and Jackson Pollock alongside Marcel Duchamp's renewed embrace of Dada in the late 1940s, Craft explores the challenges facing artists trying to work in the wake of a destructive world war and the paintings, objects, writings and installations that resulted from their efforts. Jacket Hobbema and Heidegger Rivca Gordon, Hayim Gordon, 2008. This book shows how the beautiful landscape paintings of Meindert Hobbema, a seventeenth-century painter of the Dutch Golden Age, are in accord with the thought of Martin Heidegger, a twentieth-century philosopher on beauty and truth. Since little is known about Hobbema's life, this work concentrates on ideas that are central to Heidegger's philosophy of art and beauty and the way these ideas are attuned to Hobbema's landscapes. Heidegger holds that the beauty of a great work of art calls out from that work and is firmly linked to the disclosure of hidden truths concerning essences of beings. This book illustrates in detail that beauty and such truths indeed call out from Hobbema's paintings. Surrealism, Science Fiction and Comics Gavin Parkinson, 2015. The first book to look at the relationship either between Surrealism and Science Fiction or between Surrealism and comics. Gari Melchers, Painter Gari Melchers, 1928. Reports and Papers Read at the Meetings of the Architectural Societies of the Archdeaconry of Northampton, the Counties of York and Lincoln (etc.), Great Artists Charlotte Gerlings, 2012-12-15. The masters of the Renaissance to the abstract expressionists: this fascinating volume showcases the most influential Western artists from eight hundred years of art history. Featured artists include Michelangelo, Salvador Dalí, Pablo Picasso and Andy Warhol. Full-color photographs of numerous works of art add to the book's beauty, appeal and informational value. Encounter Stephen Spender, Irving Kristol, Melvin
