Encounters With Lincoln Images And Words:

Encounters with Lincoln Thomas John Trimborn, 2005 This unique collection of images of Abraham Lincoln portrays one of America's greatest figures from an artist's point of view Brief historical narratives help us view this multidimensional man with new appreciation The book stirs our imagination and is a reminder of the inspiring legacy of our beloved sixteenth president Lincoln Lore, 2006 Lincoln Richard Carwardine, 2007-01-09 As a defender of national unity a leader in war and the emancipator of slaves Abraham Lincoln lays ample claim to being the greatest of our presidents But the story of his rise to greatness is as complex as it is compelling In this superb prize winning biography acclaimed historian Richard Carwardine examines Lincoln's dramatic political journey from his early years in the Illinois legislature to his nation shaping years in the White House Here Carwardine combines a new perspective with a compelling narrative to deliver a fresh look at one of the pillars of American politics He probes the sources of Lincoln's moral and political philosophy and uses his groundbreaking research to cut through the myth and expose the man behind it Reports and Documents United States. Congress, 1960 Report United States. Congress. House, Campaign Expenditures Committee United States. Congress. House. Special Committee to Investigate Campaign Expenditures, 1960 Lincoln Herald, 2007 Words, Books, Images, and the Long Eighteenth Century Antoinina Bevan Zlatar, Mark Ittensohn, Enit Karafili Steiner, Olga Timofeeva, 2021-12-15 The essays collected in this volume engage in a conversation among lexicography the culture of the book and the canonization and commemoration of English literary figures and their works in the long eighteenth century The source of inspiration for each piece is Allen Reddick's scholarship on Samuel Johnson 1709-1784 the great English lexicographer whose Dictionary 1755 included thousands upon thousands of illustrative quotations from the best authors and more recently on Thomas Hollis 1720-1774 the much less well known bibliophile who sent gifts of books by a pantheon of Whig authors to individuals and libraries in Britain Protestant bastions in continental Europe and America Between the covers of Words Books Images readers will encounter canonical English authors of prose and poetry Bacon Milton Defoe Dryden Pope Richardson Swift Byron Mary Shelley and Edward Lear But they will also become acquainted with the agents of their canonization and commemoration the printers and publishers of Grub Street the biographer John Aubrey the lexicographer and biographer Johnson the bibliophile Hollis and the portrait painter Reynolds No less crucially they will meet fellow readers of then and now women and men who peruse poach snip and savour a book's every word and image Lincoln's Smile and Other Enigmas Alan Trachtenberg, 2008-01-22 A new assemblage of masterly essays from a foremost scholar of American history and culture Alan Trachtenberg has always been interested in cultural artifacts that register meanings and feelings that Americans share even when they disagree about them Some of the most beloved ones like the famous last photograph of Abraham Lincoln taken at the time of his second inaugural are downright puzzling and it is their obscure riddlelike aspects that draw his attention in the scintillating essays of Lincoln's Smile and Other Enigmas With matchless authority Trachtenberg moves from the daguerreotypes that entranced Americans from the start and that Hawthorne made much of in The House of Seven Gables to literary texts of which he is a peerless interpreter. Howell's novels, Horatio Alger's stories, Huckleberry Finn, the cityscapes of Walt Whitman and Stephen Crane. In his exploration of the ways that nineteenth and early twentieth century writers tried to make sense of the modern American city, he also addresses subjects as diverse as Louis Sullivan's Auditorium Building, the Brooklyn Bridge and the early works of Lewis Mumford. The celebrated author of Reading American Photographs concludes his important new book with readings not only of the photographs of Walker Evans, Wright Morris and Eugene Smith but of the city images of film noir. Cultural Encounters in the New World Harald Zapf, Klaus Löscher, 2003

Lincoln's Campaign Biographies Thomas A. Horrocks, 2014-03-31 During the 1860 and 1864 presidential campaigns Abraham Lincoln was the subject of over twenty campaign biographies. In this innovative study Thomas A. Horrocks examines the role that these publications played in shaping an image of Lincoln that would resonate with voters and explores the vision of Lincoln that the biographies crafted, the changes in this vision over the course of four years and the impact of these works on the outcome of the elections. Horrocks investigates Lincoln's campaign biographies within the context of the critical relationship between print and politics in nineteenth century America and compares the works about Lincoln with other presidential campaign biographies of the era. Horrocks shows that more than most politicians of his day Lincoln deeply appreciated and understood the influence and the power of the printed word. The 1860 campaign biographies introduced to America Honest Abe, the Rail Splitter, a trustworthy rugged candidate who appealed to rural Americans. When Lincoln ran for reelection in 1864 the second round of campaign biographies complemented this earlier portrait of Lincoln with a new paternal figure, Father Abraham, more appropriate for Americans enduring a bloody civil war. Closing with a consideration of the influence of these publications on Lincoln's election and reelection, Lincoln's Campaign Biographies provides a new perspective for those seeking a better understanding of the sixteenth president and two of the most critical elections in American history. Lincoln's Body: A Cultural History Richard Wightman Fox, 2015-02-09 An astonishingly interesting interpretation. Fox is wonderfully shrewd and often dazzling. Jill Lepore, New York Times Book Review. Abraham Lincoln remains America's most beloved leader. The fact that he was lampooned in his day as ugly and grotesque only made Lincoln more endearing to millions. In Lincoln's Body, acclaimed cultural historian Richard Wightman Fox explores how deeply and how differently Americans, black and white, male and female, Northern and Southern, have valued our sixteenth president from his own lifetime to the Hollywood biopics about him. Lincoln continues to survive in a body of memory that speaks volumes about our nation.

Photography and Doubt Sabine T. Kriebel, Andrés Mario Zervigón, 2016-11-25 Recent decades have seen photography's privileged relationship to the real come under question. Spurred by the postmodern critique of photography in the 1980s and the rise of digital technologies soon thereafter, scholars have been asking who and what built this understanding of the medium in the first place. Photography and Doubt reflects on this interest in photography's referential power by discussing it in rigorously historical terms How was the understanding of photographic realism cultivated in the first place What do cases of staged and manipulated photography reveal about that realism's hold on audiences across the medium's history Have doubts about photography's testimonial power stimulated as much knowledge as its realism Edited by Sabine T Kriebel and Andr s Mario Zervig n Photography and Doubt is the first multi-authored collection specifically designed to explore these questions Its 13 original essays illustrated with 73 color images explore cases when the link between the photographic image and its referent was placed under stress and when photography was as attuned to its myth-making capabilities as to its claims to authenticity Photography and Doubt will serve as a valuable resource for students and scholars in art history visual and media studies philosophy and the history of science and technology

Encounter, 1989      The Tlingit Encounter with Photography Sharon Gmelch, 2008-10-31 Based on research in 13 North American archives including the Penn Museum's Shotridge Collection examination of hundreds of photographs and extensive oral history interviews with both Tlingit and non-Natives Sharon Bohn Gmelch presents valuable insights on the reactions of Native subjects to being photographed and their own early use of photography Today these now historical images are being reclaimed from public archives by the Tlingit contributing to a new sense of empowerment and pride in their rich heritage This is the first book to explore the photographic imagery of the Tlingit during a critical period of change from the 1860s through the 1920s It also provides the first full treatment of the Tlingit photography of Elbridge W Merrill a neglected figure in the history of ethnographic photography The author has included 129 rare photographic images a map bibliography and index
