Encounters With Silence:

Encounters with Silence Karl Rahner, 1960 This book illustrates one of the finest functions of the theologian to show that the study of theology reaches its heights when it blossoms into prayer Worship Encounters with Silence 1904-84 Rahner, Karl Rahner, 1963 Vulnerability and Flourishing Lledo Gomez, Christina, Sheveland, John N., 2025-04-30 The Reality of Love Ingild Rosok, 2018-01-12 Love is one and love is all we need This book argues against the traditional theological view that God's love differs from human love If God is love and love is one we will find God embodied in all kinds of genuine love experiences By analyzing Karl Rahner's theology of love the author explores how God penetrates and embraces the whole of reality suggesting implications for Christian spirituality and spiritual direction Encounters With Silence. Translated Karl Rahner, 1962 Encounters in Thought Aaron K. Kerr, 2019-10-17 Thinking is a dynamic process resulting from practices of integration Thought encounters in openness wonder receptivity and contemplation confer upon us intellectual work that is uniquely our own Digital patterns however distract us from these creative encounters Our intellectual searching is weakened and fragmented by frenetic consumption of information We miss out on reason's innate pull toward integration and concrete reality This book is an invitation to enter into openness wonder receptivity and contemplation with deeper understanding and intentionality We can do this by considering exemplars persons who lived out the integrity of their hard won beliefs Each process of integration is applied also so that practical knowledge and practice become a way into this intellectual restoration We need deeper knowledge won in the slow orbit of encounters Encounters in thought are precisely what each generation needs to apprehend the cosmos nature authority truth and moral action Responsibility to this ecologic age requires a reform of reason this book is just one attempt to convey a way toward this restoration Cinematic Encounters with Disaster Simon R. Troon, 2024-06-13 Cinematic Encounters with Disaster takes Hollywood's disaster movies and their codified versions of natural disaster post apocalyptic survival and extra terrestrial threat as the starting point for an analytical trajectory that works toward new understandings of how cinema shapes and informs our conceptions of disaster and catastrophe It examines a range of films from distinct regional and industrial contexts Hollywood indie movies different kinds of documentaries from the US and elsewhere and auteurist realist cinema from Europe and Asia Moving across and beyond critical and industrial categories that often inform thinking about cinema this book contends that different approaches to film style can push us to imagine disaster in distinct ways with distinct ethical connotations Framed by contemporary concerns around the global climate crisis and the advent of the Anthropocene questions about how films can best offer responses to historical exigency guide the book's explorations of spectacular 2010s blockbusters like Gravity 2013 and San Andreas 2015 environmental documentaries including the paradigmatic An Inconvenient Truth 2006 post disaster films by auteurs including Abbas Kiarostami and Lav Diaz and more Conceiving of disaster as intersubjective ethics between humans and nonhuman alterity forces of nature errant technology monsters ghosts and other entities it analyses how formal techniques and narrative strategies render encounters in which human protagonists are confronted with the threat of death and respond in ways that can be instructive for our planet's present juncture     The Faith Lives of Women and Girls Nicola Slee, Fran Porter, Anne Phillips, 2016-03-16 Identifying illuminating and enhancing understanding of key aspects of women and girls faith lives The Faith Lives of Women and Girls represents a significant body of original qualitative research from practitioners and researchers across the UK Contributors include new and upcoming researchers as well as more established feminist practical theologians Chapters provide perspectives on different ages and stages of faith across the life cycle from a range of different cultural and religious contexts Diverse spiritual practices beliefs and attachments are explored including a variety of experiences of liminality in women's faith lives A range of approaches ethnographic oral history action research interview studies case studies and documentary analysis combine to offer a deeper understanding of women's and girls faith lives As well as being of interest to researchers this book presents resources to enhance ministry to and with women and girls in a variety of settings     Encounters with Silence Karl Rahner (s.j.), 1975

A Spirituality of Everyday Faith Declan Marmion, 1998 Because spirituality is such a ubiquitous term today any attempt to elucidate it more fully is only to be welcomed Volume 23 in the LTPM series represents a significant contribution in this regard Beginning with the apostle Paul Declan Marmion shows how the meaning of the term spirituality changed over the centuries He then offers a useful working definition of spirituality and explores the complicated relationship between spirituality academic theology and religious experience In the main body of the book Marmion focuses on the spiritual basis of Karl Rahner's theology Exhibiting a comprehensive knowledge of the primary and secondary literature in this area Marmion uses Rahner's notion of spirituality to treat such important themes as the nature of God mystical experience prayer love of neighbor and more     Experiences in Researching Conflict and Violence Rivas, Althea-Maria, Browne, Brendan Ciarán, 2019-08-07 This international edited collection brings together personal accounts from researchers working in and on conflict and explores the roles of emotion violence uncertainty identity and positionality within the process of doing research as well as the complexity of methodological choices It highlights the researchers own subjectivity and presents a nuanced view of conflict research that goes beyond the messiness inherent in the process of research in and on violence It addresses the uncomfortable spaces of conflict research the potential for violence of research itself and the need for deeper reflection on these issues This powerful book opens up spaces for new conversations about the realities of conflict research These critical self reflections and honest accounts provide important insights for any scholar or practitioner working in similar environments     Ethical Encounters Janne Korkka, 2013-09-01 The problems of knowing and representing the other are acute every time we encounter a text as writers or readers Ethical Encounters engages with the representation of encounters with alterity in the writings of the Canadian author Rudy Wiebe Drawing on Emmanuel Levinas's philosophy on the ethics of encountering the other the book argues that Wiebe's writings show that the self's knowledge offers an inadequate basis for ethically valid representations of those encounters In the search for ethical ways of engaging with alterity Wiebe s writings offer new ways of employing silence and the presence of the unknowable as means to explore encounters with alterity Ethical Encounters shows that dividing Wiebe s work into two sharply distinct categories of Mennonite and First Nations writings overlooks important connections between the author s central works and may seriously hinder the interrogation of narrative engagement with alterity While such human encounters resonate against ethical strategies of representation the greatest challenge for the ethics of encounter in Wiebe s texts arises in encounters with the alterity of space Ethical Encounters engages with both physical and narrative spaces which are not permanently fixed in landscape or geography or in human perceptions of place arguing that the most radical expressions of alterity in Wiebe s writings emerge in encounters with the spaces of the Canadian North The study raises questions about the relationship between the self and the other as they concern knowing what does the self know when it claims to know another person or space How does the narrating self negotiate the seeming collapse of its own knowledge when it encounters others whose stories cannot be known Ethical Encounters casts new light not just on Wiebe s writings but also on how we as authors and readers engage with expressions of alterity which refuse to be transformed into familiar knowable forms Janne Korkka is post doctoral researcher and coordinator of the North American Studies programme in the Department of English University of Turku Finland His main research interests lie in the problems of representing space and encountering alterity in Canadian writing He is co editor of Seeking the Self Encountering the Other Diasporic Narrative and the Ethics of Representation 2008 He teaches Canadian and postcolonial literatures and North American Studies and publishes mainly on Canadian writing Fatal Words and Friendly Faces Larry G. Ehrlich, 2000 On February 19 1998 the AAA Foundation for Traffic Safety reported that more than 12 000 people had been injured in incidents of road rage In light of modernity s rapid strides forward in electronic communication and lagging efforts to explore human nature Larry G Ehrlich s book focuses on the architecture of human communication behavior It is divided into three sections which deal with intrapersonal interpersonal and public communication This readable book not only offers a discussion on the most recent research in information technology and on relationships in a global community but it is a truly inter disciplinary approach to communication behavior The Gnostics Jacques Lacarriere, 2014-08-01 Gnostics have always sought to know rather than to accept dogma and doctrine often to their peril This inquiry into Gnosticism examines the character history and beliefs of a brave and vigorous spiritual quest that originated in the ancient Near East and continues into the present day Lawrence Durrell writes This is a strange and original essay more a work of literature than of scholarship though its documentation is impeccable It is as convincing a reconstruction of the way the Gnostics lived and thought as D H Lawrence s intuitive recreation of the vanished Etruscans The American Ecclesiastical Review Herman Joseph Heuser, 1961 Language, Culture, and Communication Nancy Bonvillain, 2019-03-20 Language Culture and Communication Eight Edition introduces students to the topics and theories of the board field of linguistic anthropology by examining the multifaceted meanings and uses of language It emphasizes the ways in which language encapsulates speakers meanings and intentions Through language structure and language use speakers convey messages about their own identities their understandings of the world and their place in it The book includes discussion of cultural and symbolic meanings conveyed by language and the social and political dimensions of language use By using data this book documents both similarities and differences in human language New to this Edition Introduction of the theme of intersectionalities and the theme of discourse and texts Chapter 3 expansion of discussion on the re examination of linguistic relativity Chapter 5 expansion of discussion of how social stratification and racial differences can influence the way politeness is interpreted and the contextual expression of politeness Chapter 6 New section on digital telephone technologies and innovative literacy practices using cell phones New section on use of social media platforms with national and international statistics and practices Expansion of Deaf communities and controversy over cochlear implants Chapter 8 New section on the inclusions and exclusions of Moroccan immigrant children in Spain through communicative interactions and norms Chapter 9 Expansion of section on race New section on the covert expression of racist meanings Chapter 10 New section on gendered speech in Lakota New section on men s and women s speech in Yanyuwa Australia New section on conversational style and the gendering of work places New section on language and sexuality Chapter 11 Updates on the distribution of languages worldwide New section on the development of the American standard Chapter 12 Expansion of discussion of language and nation building Expansion of discussion of language shift and language revitalization programs Chapter 13 expansion of social ideologies and prejudices expressed in public media     Encounters with the Posthuman and the Environment Inci Bilgin Tekin,Zeynep Talay Turner,2024-10-29 With the advent of posthumanism many scholars in the humanities have started to explore a transforming conception of the human recognizing the limits of anthropocentrism both within and between disciplines Posthumanism may be defined in various ways but the emphasis in this volume is on the idea of constitutive alterity not simply in the relationship between human beings and other human beings but in that between human beings and other species and life forms and between human beings nature and technology As a result Encounters with the Posthuman and the Environment is located at a crossover between posthumanism and environmental humanities Between them they move not only between disciplines but also between levels of abstraction from the most general reflection to the most everyday empirical detail At the same time all the chapters are case studies whether they address particular aspects of philosophical or scientific posthumanism analyze particular pieces of film theatre art literature or recall for us instructive episodes from social history The aim at any rate is to give a feel for the range and depth of the posthumanist problematic within the wider context of environmental humanities     The Politics of Art ,2022-06-08
