The Wahhabi Mission and Saudi Arabia David Commins, 2009-03-30 Wahhabism has been generating controversy since it first emerged in Arabia in the 18th century In the wake of September 11th instant theories have emerged that try to root Osama Bin Laden's attacks on Wahhabism Muslim critics have dismissed this conservative interpretation of Islam that is the official creed of Saudi Arabia as an unorthodox innovation that manipulated a suggestible people to gain political influence David Commins book questions this assumption He examines the debate on the nature of Wahhabism and offers original findings on its ascendance in Saudi Arabia and spread throughout other parts of the Muslim world such as

Afghanistan and Pakistan He also assesses the challenge that radical militants within Saudi Arabia pose to the region and draws conclusions which will concern all those who follow events in the Kingdom The Wahhabi Mission and Saudi Arabia is an essential reading for anyone interested in the Middle East and Islamic radicalism today Sharia and the Making of the Modern Egyptian Reem A. Meshal,2014-01-01 In this book the author examines sijills the official documents of the Ottoman Islamic courts to understand how sharia law society and the early modern economy of sixteenth and seventeenth century Ottoman Cairo related to the practice of custom in determining rulings In the sixteenth century a new legal and cultural orthodoxy fostered the development of an early modern Islam that broke new ground giving rise to a new concept of the citizen and his role Contrary to the prevailing scholarly view this work adopts the position that local custom began to diminish and decline as a source of authority These issues resonate today several centuries later in the continuing discussions of individual rights in relation to Islamic law Reconsidering Islam in a South Asian Context M. Reza

Pirbhai,2009-09-30 Despite late reconsideration a dominant paradigm rooted in Orientalist essentialisations of Islam as statically legalistic and Muslims as uniformly transgressive when local customs are engaged continues to distort perspectives of South Asia s past and present This has led to misrepresentations of pre colonial Muslim norms and undue emphasis on colonial reforms alone when charting the course to post coloniality This book presents and challenges staple perspectives with a comprehensive reinterpretation of doctrinal sources literary expressions and colonial records spanning the period from the reign of the Great Mughals to end of the British Raj 1526 1947 The result is an alternative vision of this transformative period in South Asian history and an original paradigm of Islamic doctrine and Muslim practice applicable more broadly Muslim Bodies Susanne Kurz,Claudia Preckel,Stefan Reichmuth,2016 Der Sammelband ist aus einem

Stranger Gods Roger Young Clark, 2001. It shows how Rushdie employs cosmology, mythology and mysticism to structure otherworldly dramas. Die Welt des Islams, 2005. The Middle East, 13th Edition Ellen Lust, 2014. Lust and her outstanding contributors have fully revised the text to take into account the watershed events that have taken place in the Middle East since the 2011 uprisings. The book also adds important coverage with a new thematic chapter on religion, society and politics in the region which examines the role of both Islam and Judaism. New to this edition: Every chapter has been thoroughly revised to cover all of the major changes in the region since the uprisings of 2011. The Overview section now contains a chapter on religion, society and politics in the Middle East that examines the role of both Islam and Judaism. Expanded coverage of the role of social movements and activism in the chapter Actors and Public Opinion. Country chapters have been revised to more explicitly address religion, society and politics. In light of user feedback, the thematic chapters have been reordered to fit more naturally with teaching progression preferred by most faculty. The Medieval Islamic Republic of Letters Muhsin J. al-Musawi, 2015-04-15. In The Medieval Islamic Republic of Letters, Arabic Knowledge Construction, Muhsin J. al-Musawi offers a groundbreaking study of literary heritage in the medieval and premodern Islamic period. Al-Musawi challenges the paradigm that considers the period from the fall of Baghdad in 1258 to the collapse of the Ottoman Empire in 1919 as an Age of Decay followed by an Awakening, al-nahdah. His sweeping synthesis debunks this view by carefully documenting a republic of letters in the Islamic Near East and South Asia that was vibrant and dynamic, one varying considerably from the generally accepted image of a centuries-long period of intellectual and literary stagnation. Al-Musawi argues that the massive cultural production of the period was not a random enterprise; instead, it arose due to an emerging and growing body of readers across Islamic lands who needed compendiums, lexicons and commentaries to engage with scholars and writers. Scholars too developed their own networks to respond to each other and to their readers. Rather than addressing only the elite, this culture industry supported a common readership that enlarged the creative space and audience for prose and poetry in standard and colloquial Arabic. Works by craftsmen, artisans and women appeared side by side with those by distinguished scholars and poets. Through careful exploration of these networks, The Medieval Islamic Republic of Letters makes use of relevant theoretical frameworks to situate this culture in the ongoing discussion of non-Islamic and European efforts. Thorough, theoretically rigorous and nuanced, al-Musawi's book is an original contribution to a range of fields in Arabic and Islamic cultural history of the twelfth to eighteenth centuries. Dialogue as an Imperative to Ecumenical and Interreligious Problems in Nigeria Casmir Chimezie Obi, 2015-08-06 The Church is the Sacrament of Communion with God and unity among all men Cf Vatican II doc L G 1 Christ prayed for this unity amongst his adherents in accordance with the unity between him and God the Father Cf Jn 17 21 This unity will be a sign by which the outside world is to believe in him hence calling on the Church to rise up to this demand Efforts were made by the Church to respond to this demand but it was at the Second Vatican Council that the search for unity became an imperative With this Council the Church acknowledged the possibility of Salvation for the members of other Christian traditions and people of other religions The Church has done a lot to promote this unity through the teachings of the Magisterium and the activities of the recent Popes It is then important to study the situation of Nigeria where this call of the Vatican II has received scant response both in ecumenical and interreligious relations Having done pastoral work in places with interdenominational and interreligious rivalry in Nigeria I became concerned and worried The present religious crises in Nigeria has escalated to an issue of grave concern with the Boko Haram insurgency My motivation is to demonstrate the teaching of the Church regarding interdenominational and interreligious dialogue within Nigeria There has been no sustained effort to build bridges of religious unity in the country This research will demonstrate the necessity of ecumenical dialogue as a prelude to interreligious dialogue in Nigeria On the global level the need for various religions to foster relationships has become an imperative Two important bodies CAN and NIREC will be studied in this book The work aims at demonstrating the involvement of the Nigerian Christians and Muslims in ecumenical and interreligious dialogue Essentially concerned with the Catholic view of ecumenical and interreligious dialogue its application to the Nigerian situation No in depth study of the religions involved It is rather the fact of their existence the role dialogue will play with them to solve religious problems in Nigeria Though ATR was considered in this work but the issue of dialogue will only involve Nigerian Muslims Christians The research wishes to provoke further study on dialogue between ATR and any of the other two religions

Two issues involved the reality importance of the Catholic teachings on ecumenical interreligious dialogue and their application to the Nigerian situation Key methods involved in this work are literary research and analysis through theological historical critical descriptive analytical expository approaches      International Handbook on Globalisation, Education and Policy Research Joseph Zajda,2005-12-05 The aim of this Handbook is to present a global overview of developments in education and policy change during the last decade It has the objective of providing both a strategic education policy statement on recent shifts in education and policy research globally and offers new approaches to further exploration development and improvement of education and policy making The Handbook attempts to address some of the above issues and problems confronting educators and policy makers globally Different articles seek to conceptualize the on going problems of education policy formulation and implementation and provide a useful synthesis of the education policy research conducted in different countries and practical implications The Handbook by focusing on such issues as the OECD 2001 model of the knowledge society and associated strategic challenge and deliverable goals OECD 2001 139 UNESCO driven lifelong learning paradigm and its relevance to education policy makers globally different models of policy planning and equity questions that are raised by centralization decentralization diversity uniformity and curriculum standardization issues the crises of educational quality the debate of standards and excellence and good and effective teaching will contribute to a better and more holistic understanding of the education policy and research nexus offering possible strategies for the effective and pragmatic policy planning and implementation at the local regional and national levels      Library Journal,2005
