Encyclopaedia Of Islam Nedsam:

The Encyclopaedia of Islam Hamilton Alexander Rosskeen Gibb,1995 The Encyclopaedia of Islam Second Edition sets out the present state of our knowledge of the Islamic World It is a unique and invaluable reference tool an essential key to understanding the world of Islam and the authoritative source not only for the religion but also for the believers and the countries in which they live Saracens and Franks in 12th - 15th Century European and Near Eastern Literature Aman Y. Nadhiri,2016-06-10 Saracens and Franks in 12th 15th Century European and Near Eastern Literature examines the tension between two competing discourses in the medieval Muslim Mediterranean and medieval Christian Europe one rooted in the desire to understand the world and one s place in it and another promoting an ethnocentric narrative To this end it examines the construction of an image of the Other for Muslims in the Eastern Mediterranean and for Christians in Western Europe in works of literature particularly in the works produced in the centuries preceding the Crusades and it explores the ways in which both Muslim and Christian writers depicted the Enemy in historical accounts of the Crusades The author focuses on medieval works of ethnography and geography travel literature Muslim and Christian accounts of the Crusades and the romances of Western Europe to trace the evolution of the image of the Eastern Mediterranean Muslim in medieval Western Europe and the Western European Christian in the medieval Muslim world first to understand the construct in the respective scholarly communities and then to analyze the ways in which this conception informs subsequent works of non fiction and fiction in the Western European context in which this Muslim or Christian Other plays a prominent role In its analysis of the medieval Mediterranean Muslim and European Christian approaches to difference this book interrogates the premises underlying the concept of the Other challenging formulations of binary opposition such as the West versus Islam Muslims

The encyclopaedia of Islam H.A.R. Gibb,B. Lewis,Ch Pellat,Joseph Schacht,E. van Donzel,C.E. Bosworth,W.P. Heinrichs,G. Lecomte,P.J. Bearman,Th Bianquis,1995 A History of Natural Philosophy Edward Grant,2007-01-22 Natural philosophy encompassed all natural phenomena of the physical world It sought to discover the physical causes of all natural effects and was little concerned with mathematics By contrast the exact mathematical sciences were narrowly confined to various computations that did not involve physical causes functioning totally independently of natural philosophy Although this began slowly to change in the late Middle Ages a much more thoroughgoing union of natural philosophy and mathematics occurred in the seventeenth century and thereby made the Scientific Revolution possible The title of Isaac Newton s great work The Mathematical Principles of Natural Philosophy perfectly reflects the new relationship Natural philosophy became the Great Mother of the Sciences which by the nineteenth century had nourished the manifold chemical physical and biological sciences to maturity thus enabling them to leave the Great Mother and emerge as the multiplicity of independent sciences we know today The Animal Names of the Arab Ancestors William C. Young,2024-02-06 In the Arab world people belong to kinship groups lineages and tribes Many lineages are named after animals birds and plants Why This survey evaluates five old explanations totemism emulation of predatory animals ancestor eponymy nicknaming and Bedouin proximity to nature It suggests a new hypothesis Bedouin tribes use animal names to obscure their internal cleavages Such tribes wax and wane as they attract and lose allies and clients they include attached elements as well as actual kin To prevent outsiders from spotting attached groups Bedouin tribes scatter non human names across their segments making it difficult to link any segment with a human ancestor Young s argument contributes to theories of tribal organization Arab identity onomastics and Near Eastern kinship

The Alawis of Syria Michael Kerr, Craig Larkin, 2015-01-12 A wide ranging exploration of the cultural and historical hinterland of Syria s powerful Shia minority Dār al-islām / dār al-ḥarb, 2017-07-31 This is the first collection of studies entirely devoted to the terminological pair dār al islām dār al arb the abode of Islam and the abode of war apparently widely known as representative of the Islamic vision of the world but in fact almost unexplored A team of specialists in different fields of Islamic studies investigates the issue in its historical and conceptual origins as well as in its reception within the different genres of Muslim written production In contrast to the fixed and permanent categories they are currently identified with the multifaceted character of these two notions and their shifting meanings is set out through the analysis of a wide range of contexts and sources from the middle ages up to modern times Contributors are Francisco Apell níz Michel Balivet Giovanna Calasso Alessandro Cancian ric Chaumont Roberta Denaro Maribel Fierro Chiara Formichi Yohanan Friedmann Giuliano Lancioni Yaacov Lev Nicola Melis Luis Molina Antonino Pellitteri Camille Rhon Quer Francesca Romana Romani Biancamaria Scarcia Amoretti Roberto Tottoli Raoul Villano Eleonora Di Vincenzo and Francesco Zappa

The Ayyubid Era. Art and Architecture in Medieval Syria Abd al-Razzaq Moaz, , , , , , , Yasser Tabbaa, Zina Takieddine, Verena Daiber, Dina Bakkour, Wa'al Hafian, Haytham Hasan, Balázs Mayor, Benjamin Michaudel, 2015 This new MWNF Travel Book was conceived not long before the war started All texts refer to the pre war situation and are our expression of hope that Syria a land that witnessed the evolution of civilisation since the beginnings of human history may soon become a place of peace and the driving force behind a new and peaceful beginning for the entire region Bilad al Sham testifies to a thorough and strategic programme of urban reconstruction and reunification during the 12th and 13th centuries Amidst a period of fragmentation visionary leadership came with the Atabeg Nur al Din Zangi He revived Syria s cities as safe havens to restore order His most agile Kurdish general Salah al Din Saladin assumed power after he died and unified Egypt and Sham into one force capable of re conquering Jerusalem from the Crusaders The Ayyubid Empire flourished and continued the policy of patronage Though short lived this era held long lasting resonance for the region Its recognisable architectural aesthetic austere yet robust and perfected survived until modern times The Ayyubid Era Art and Architecture in Medieval Syria describes eight thematic Itineraries including among others the cities of Damascus Bosra Homs Hama Aleppo and Raqqa

Mamluk Historiography Revisited - Narratological Perspectives Stephan Conermann, 2018-08-13 This volume discusses Mamluk historical texts with an emphasis on literary stylistic analysis

basically ignoring issues of factuality versus fictivity None of the authors set out to write fiction nor would their audience have received their accounts as such The events depicted were a matter of historical record but their meaning was geared both to contemporary and to general concerns The fact of telling them is part and parcel of the historian s task the means of telling them has to do with the historian s choice of style and style is all important in conveying meaning Were these accounts not considered true the purpose behind their telling and the meaning they convey would arguably be lost but were they not told in the most effective manner their meaning might not be clearly grasped

The Evolution of Social Institutions Dmitri M.

Bondarenko,Stephen A. Kowalewski,David B. Small,2020-09-12 This book presents a novel and innovative approach to the study of social evolution using case studies from the Old and the New World from prehistory to the present This approach is based on examining social evolution through the evolution of social institutions Evolution is defined as the process of structural change Within this framework the society or culture is seen as a system composed of a vast number of social institutions that are constantly interacting and changing As a result the structure of society as a whole is also evolving and changing The authors posit that the combination of evolving social institutions explains the non linear character of social evolution and that every society develops along its own pathway and pace Within this framework society should be seen as the result of the compound effect of the interactions of social institutions specific to it Further the transformation of social institutions and relations between them is taking place not only within individual societies but also globally as institutions may be trans societal and even institutions that operate in one society can arise as a reaction to trans societal trends and demands The book argues that it may be more productive to look at institutions even within a given society as being parts of trans societal systems of institutions since despite their interconnectedness societies still have boundaries which their members usually know and respect Accordingly the book is a must read for researchers and scholars in various disciplines who are interested in a better understanding of the origins history successes and failures of social institutions
