God's Will and God's Desire Jamie Dech, 2005-04-11 Many Christians are Calvinistic but reluctantly so They recognize that lost men do not seek God those who choose to follow Jesus do so because God first chose them But they are haunted by questions Why does a sovereign God who desires that all should come to faith in Christ choose in His sovereignty to save only some Couldn't He just save them all And if we are chosen from before the foundation of the world then does it really make any difference in the end if we evangelize or pray for the unsaved This book is a must read for any reluctant Calvinist because it deals with questions about evangelism and the sovereignty of God that typically seem to be left unanswered by the traditional Calvinist and Arminian positions But it does so with the challenging perhaps even uncomfortable conclusion that our prayers and obedience are a real and vital part of the process of narrowing the gap between God's will to save some and His desire to save all And so our prayer life and our walk with God are crucial because we as believers will be held
