Indigenous Research Methodologies in Sámi and Global Contexts, 2021-05-03 This book addresses the conceptualization and practice of Indigenous research methodologies especially in Sámi and North European academic contexts. It examines the meaning of Sámi research and research methodologies, practical levels of doing Indigenous research today in different contexts as well as global debates in Indigenous research. The contributors present place specific and relational Sámi research approaches as well as reciprocal methodological choices in Indigenous research in North-South relationships. This edited volume is a result of a research collaboration in four countries where Sámi people live. By taking the readers to diverse local discussions, the collection emphasizes communal responsibility and care as a key in doing Indigenous research. Contributors are Rauni Lehtimäki, Hanna Guttorm, Lea Kantonen, Pigga Keskitalo, Ilona Kivinen, Britt Kramvig, Petter Morottaja, Eljas Niskanen, Torjer Olsen, Marja Liisa Olthuis, Hanna Outakoski, Attila Paksi, Jelena Porsanger, Aili Pyhälä, Rauna Rahko, Ravantti, Torkel Rasmussen, Erika Katjaana Sarivaara, Irja Seurujärvi, Kari Trond Trosterud, and Pirjo Kristiina Virtanen.

Sámi Religion, Trude A. Fonneland, Tiina Äikäs, 2021-02-05 Sámi Religion: Religious Identities, Practices, and Dynamics explores expressions of Sámi religion in contemporary cultures, the role it plays in identity politics and heritagization processes, and the ways the past and present are entangled. In recent years, attitudes towards Sámi religion have changed both within religious, cultural, political, and educational contexts as a consequence of what can be called the Indigenous turn. Contemporary indigenous religion is approached as something that adds value by a range of diverse actors and for a variety of reasons. In this Special Issue, we take account of emic categories and connections focusing on which notions of Sámi religion are used today by religious entrepreneurs and others who share and promote these types of spiritual beliefs and how Sámi religion is taking shape on a plenitude of arenas in contemporary society.

Encyclopedia of Violence, Peace, & Conflict, Lester R. Kurtz, 2008 The 2nd edition of Encyclopedia of Violence, Peace, and Conflict provides timely and useful information about antagonism and reconciliation in all contexts of public and personal life. Building on the highly regarded 1st edition (1999) and publishing at a time of seemingly inexorably increasing conflict and violent behaviour, the world over, the Encyclopedia is an essential reference for students and scholars working in the field of peace and conflict resolution studies and for those seeking to explore alternatives to violence and share visions and strategies for social justice and social change. Covering topics as diverse as Arms Control, Peace Movements, Child Abuse, Folklore, Terrorism, and Political Assassinations, the Encyclopedia comprehensively addresses an extensive information area in 225 multi-disciplinary, cross-referenced and authoritatively authored articles.

The Proposed Nordic Sámi Convention, Nigel Bankes, Timo Koivurova, 2013-01-31 In 2005, an expert group representing the governments of Norway, Sweden, and Finland and the Sámi parliaments of these countries agreed upon a draft text of a Nordic Sámi Convention. Key parts of the text deal with the recognition of Sámi land and resource rights. More recently, the three governments have embarked on negotiations to move from this draft text to a final convention that may be adopted and ratified by all three countries. Negotiations commenced in the Spring of 2011 and should be completed within five years This collection of essays explores the national and international dimensions of indigenous property rights and the draft Convention which recognises the Saami as one people divided by international boundaries Part one of the book seeks to provide a global and theoretical context for these developments in the Nordic countries with a series of essays dealing with the moral and legal reasons for recognising indigenous property interests and different conceptualisations of the relationship between indigenous peoples and settler societies including recognition reconciliation and pluralism Part two of the book examines some international legal issues associated with the Convention including the background to the Convention Part three turns to examine aspects of the recognition of Saami property interests in each of the three Nordic states while Part four provides some comparative experiences examining the recognition of indigenous property rights in a number of jurisdictions including Canada Australia and a number of South American states An additional essay considers gender issues in relation to indigenous property rights An Urban Future for Sápmi?

Christopher Cumo,2013-04-25 Readers of this expansive three volume encyclopedia will gain scientific sociological and demographic insight into the complex relationship between plants and humans across history Comprising three volumes and approximately half a million words this work is likely the most comprehensive reference of its kind providing detailed information not only about specific plants and food crops such as barley corn potato rice and wheat but also interdisciplinary content that draws on the natural sciences social sciences and humanities The entries underscore the fascination that humans have long held for plants identifies the myriad reasons why much of life on earth would be impossible without plants and points out the intertwined relationship of plants and humans and how delicate this balance can be While the majority of the content is dedicated to the food plants that are essential to human existence material on ornamentals fiber crops pharmacological plants and carnivorous plants is also included Rethinking Cultural Transfer and Transmission Petra Broomans,Sandra van Voorst,Karina Smits,2012 Rethinking Cultural Transfer and Transmission Reflections and New Perspectives formulates new directions within the studies on cultural transfer and transmission including gender aspects of cultural transfer the importance of cultural transfer for minority literatures and approaches to writing a cultural transfer and transmission history The articles collected in this volume demonstrate that the field of cultural transfer and transmission is developing quickly and offers a variety of research possibilities New aspects are scrutinised and new insights gained from rediscovered material and although the discussion of the theoretical points of departure and the methods used has only just begun it is already providing us with interesting results and insights This book is Volume 4 in the book series Studies on Cultural Transfer Transmission Plant Ecology, Herbivory, and Human Impact in Nordic Mountain Birch Forests Frans E. Wielgolaski, 2005-03-07 This work analyzes vegetation and soils and investigates the influence of climate change insect pests grazing pressure by sheep and reindeer construction of roads and other consequences of increasing tourism in the Nordic mountain birch forests Cultural Heritage in Transit Deborah Kapchan, 2014-04-03 Are human rights universal The immediate response is yes of course However that simple affirmation assumes agreement about definitions of the human as well as what a human is entitled to under law bringing us quickly to concepts such as freedom property and the inalienability of both The assumption that we all mean the same things by these terms carries much political import especially given that different communities national ethnic religious gendered enact some of the most basic categories of human experience self home freedom sovereignty differently But whereas legal definitions often seek to eliminate ambiguity in order to define and protect the rights of humanity ambiguity is in fact inherently human especially in performances of heritage where the rights to sense to imagine and to claim cultural identities that resist circumscription are at play Cultural Heritage in Transit examines the intangibilities of human rights in the realm of heritage production focusing not only on the ephemeral culture of those who perform it but also on the ambiguities present in the idea of cultural property in general who claims it who may use it who should not but does In this volume folklorists ethnologists and anthropologists analyze the practice and performance of culture in particular contexts including Roma wedding music Trinidadian wining Moroccan verbal art and Neopagan rituals in order to draw apart the social political and aesthetic materialities of heritage production including inequities and hierarchies that did not exist before The authors collectively craft theoretical frameworks to make sense of the ways the rights of nations interact with the rights of individuals and communities when the public value of artistic creations is constituted through international law Contributors Valdimar Tr Hafstein Deborah Kapchan Barbro Klein Sabina Magliocco Dorothy Noyes Philip W Scher Carol Silverman
