Brian Arnold, President of Phoenix Seminary The Encyclopedia of Christianity, Volume 1 \(A-D\) Erwin Fahlbusch, Jan Lochman, John Mbiti, Jaroslav Pelikan, Lukas Vischer, 2025-04-14. A major intellectual resource. Jaroslav Pelikan from the foreword: The multiple award winning Encyclopedia of Christianity EC, copublished by Brill and Eerdmans, is a monumental five volume work presenting the history and current state of the Christian faith in its rich spiritual and theological diversity around the world. Volume 1 A-D contains 465 articles featuring articles on all but the smallest countries of the world, including the former communist nations that have gained independence since 1989, the latest statistical information from David B. Barrett on the religious affiliation and ecclesiastical breakdown of each country and continent, articles on doctrines, denominations and social and ethical issues in relation to the churches, biographical articles on prominent figures through church history. The Encyclopedia of Christianity is also available online Historical Dictionary of Lutheranism Günther Gassmann, Mark W. Oldenburg, 2011-10-10. The Reformation of the 16th century was a complex and multifaceted political, social, cultural and religious process. Most historians agree, however, that in the framework of this process it was the religious and theological efforts to reform and renew the late medieval church, decadent and irrelevant in many ways, that were the initiating forces that set a broad historical movement in motion. Among these reforming religious and theological forces, the Lutheran reform movement was the most important and influential one. It was the historical impact of the theological genius of the Wittenberg professor Martin Luther (1483-1546) that profoundly changed and shaped the face of Europe and beyond. Today, Lutheranism has become a worldwide communion of churches that stretches from Germany to Siberia, Papua New Guinea, Madagascar and Surinam. The second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Lutheranism presents information on major theological issues, historical developments of Lutheranism worldwide, Lutheran ecumenical and missionary involvement and activities, worship and liturgy, spirituality, social ethics, inter-religious and Jewish relations, Lutheranism and the arts, theology and important representatives of Lutheranism. This is done

Green, Jacqueline Lapsley, Rebekah Miles, Allen Verhey, 2011-11 Leading scholars from the fields of biblical studies and ethics provide a one stop reference book on the vital relationship between Scripture and ethics Beyond Retribution Christopher D. Marshall, 2001 Recently a growing number of Christians have actively promoted the concept of restorative justice and attempted to develop programs for dealing with crime based on restorative principles But is this approach truly consistent with the teaching of Scripture To date very little has been done to test this claim Beyond Retribution fills a gap by plumbing the New Testament on the topics of crime justice and punishment Christopher Marshall first explores the problems involved in applying ethical teachings from the New Testament to mainstream society He then surveys the extent to which the New Testament addresses criminal justice issues looking in particular at the concept of the justice of God in the teachings of Paul and Jesus He also examines the topic of punishment reviewing the debate in social thinking over the ethics and purpose of punishment including capital punishment and he advocates a new concept of restorative punishment The result of this engaging work is a biblically based challenge to imitate the way of Christ in dealing with both victims and offenders
