Smith's deck has become the gold standard for identifying and analyzing contemporary Tarot and other meditation decks based on archetypes. Developments in both visual and literary history and theory have influenced Tarot since its fifteenth century invention as a game and subsequent adaptations for esotericism, cartomancy and meditation. This analysis considers Tarot in relation to established modern and postmodern art movements such as Symbolism, Surrealism and Pattern and Decoration Art as well as the concepts and theories informing both the dominance and the dissolution of the modernist grid and hierarchical priorities. This work also explores the close connection between Tarot and the invention of the literary novel and includes new material on the representation of Tarot in film and fiction. A new chapter addresses the growing influence of the archetypal shadow and shadow work on Tarot as an artistic form, narrative genre and practice in the new millennium.
