Student Encyclopedia of African Literature Douglas Killam, Alicia L. Kerfoot, 2007-12-30 African literature is a vast subject of growing output and interest Written especially for students this book selectively surveys the topic in a clear and accessible way Included are roughly 600 alphabetically arranged entries on writers genres and major works Many entries cite works for further reading and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Africa is a land of contrasts and of diverse cultures and traditions It is also a land of conflict and creativity The literature of the continent draws upon a fascinating body of oral traditions and lore and also reflects the political turmoil of the modern world With the increased interest in cultural diversity and the growing centrality of Africa in world politics African literature is figuring more and more prominently in the curriculum This book helps students learn about the African literary achievement Written expressly for students this book is far more accessible than other reference works on the subject Included are nearly 600 alphabetically arranged entries on authors such as Chinua Achebe Athol Fugard Buchi Emecheta Nadine Gordimer and Wole Soyinka major works such as Things Fall Apart and Petals of Blood and individual genres such as the novel drama and poetry Many entries cite works for further reading and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography

Dimensions of the Impersonal in Clarice Lispector Wojciech Sawala, 2025-09-18 This book explores the fictional work of Clarice Lispector 1920 1977 the eminent twentieth century Brazilian writer It employs the theoretical framework of affirmative biopolitics by Roberto Esposito engaging with Michel Foucault and Giorgio Agamben alongside voices like Mircea Eliade Anthony Giddens and Agata Bielik Robson The focus is on rethinking and valuing impersonality crucial for understanding the anthropological metaphysical ethical and political implications in Lispector's works The main thesis posits that Lispector's writings from journalistic chronicles to significant books like The Passion According to G. H. present a complex anthropological vision marked by an ontological and ethical deadlock between personality and impersonality This vision suggests that humans are trapped in a personal mode of existence separated from their ontological essence leading to a metaphysical guilt The book analyzes this deadlock both in individual and communal political contexts highlighting the cryptotheological dimension in Lispector's mystical and messianic themes rooted in Jewish tradition

Dream Nation María Acosta Cruz, 2014-03-19 Over the past fifty years Puerto Rican voters have roundly rejected any calls for national independence Yet the rhetoric and iconography of independence have been defining features of Puerto Rican literature and culture In the provocative new book Dream Nation Mar a Acosta Cruz investigates the roots and effects of this profound disconnect between cultural fantasy and political reality Bringing together texts from Puerto Rican literature

history and popular culture Dream Nation shows how imaginings of national independence have served many competing purposes They have given authority to the island's literary and artistic establishment but have also been a badge of countercultural cool These ideas have been fueled both by nostalgia for an imagined past and by yearning for a better future They have fostered local communities on the island and still helped define Puerto Rican identity within U S Latino culture In clear accessible prose Acosta Cruz takes us on a journey from the 1898 annexation of Puerto Rico to the elections of 2012 stopping at many cultural touchstones along the way from the canonical literature of the Generación del 30 to the rap music of Tego Calder Dream Nation thus serves both as a testament to how stories symbols and heroes of independence have inspired the Puerto Rican imagination and as an urgent warning about how this culture has become detached from the everyday concerns of the island's people A volume in the American Literature Initiatives series     Sacred Surrealism, Dissidence and International Avant-Garde Prose Vivienne Brough-Evans, 2016-05-05 Vivienne Brough Evans proposes a compelling new way of reevaluating aspects of international surrealism by means of the category of divin fou and consequently deploys theories of sacred ecstasy as developed by the Collège de Sociologie 1937-39 as a critical tool in shedding new light on the literary oeuvre of non-French writers who worked both within and against a surrealist framework The minor surrealist genre of prose literature is considered herein rather than surrealism's mainstay poetry with the intention of fracturing preconceptions regarding the medium of surrealist expression The aim is to explore whether International surrealism can begin to be more fully explained by an occluded strain of dissident surrealist thought that searches outside the self through the affects of ekstasis Bretonian surrealism is widely discussed in the field of surrealist studies and there is a need to consider what is left out of surrealist practice when analysed through this Bretonian lens The Collège de Sociologie and Georges Bataille's theories provide a model of such elements of dissident surrealism which is used to analyse surrealist or surrealist-influenced prose by Alejo Carpentier Leonora Carrington and Gellu Naum respectively representing postcolonial feminist and Balkan locutions The Collège and Bataille's dissident surrealism diverges significantly from the concerns and approach towards the subject explored by surrealism Using the concept of ekstasis to organise Bataille's theoretical ideas of excess and inner experience and the Collège's thoughts on the sacred it is possible to propose a new way of reading types of International surrealist literature many of which do not come to the forefront of the surrealist literary oeuvre     The Modern World Sarolta Takacs, Mounir Farah, 2015-03-04 Designed to meet the curriculum needs for students from grades 7 to 12 this five-volume encyclopedia explores world history from approximately 5000 C.E. to the present Organized alphabetically within geographical volumes on Africa Europe the Americas the Middle East and Southwest Asia and Asia and the Pacific entries cover the social political scientific and technological economic and cultural events and developments that shaped the modern world Each volume includes articles on history government and warfare the development of ideas and the growth of art and architecture religion and philosophy music science and technology and daily
