Egyptian Woodworking And Furniture:

Egyptian Woodworking and Furniture Geoffrey Killen, 2008-03-04 Gives a description of Egyptian woodworking since the earliest times This book examines the sources of wood and other materials used by Egyptian carpenters It also explains the techniques used to embellish timber and the complex joints employed in carcase construction and describes woodworking tools and processes throughout the Dynastic period Ancient Egyptian Furniture Geoffrey Killen, 2017-03-31 In this revised second edition Dr Killen continues his survey of Egyptian furniture making techniques with a study of boxes chests and footstools and traces their evolution from the earliest times Wooden papyrus and alabaster boxes and chests were used to hold protect and store valuable objects toilet utensils instruments tools garments curtains game pieces and papyri amongst other things Those from the Old Kingdom usually had flat lids and solid board sides tied together at the corners During later periods carcase construction became so sophisticated with the introduction of frame and panel work that it was possible to construct barrel shrine and pent shaped lids Later chests were elaborately painted some with funerary scenes painted with hieroglyphs or had gilt fretwork decoration applied to the sides and lid This book is copiously illustrated with drawings and photographs and contains a catalogue of additional known pieces of Egyptian furniture preserved in museum collections

Ancient Egyptian Furniture Geoffrey Killen, 2017-03-31 This revised second edition examines the common forms of furniture used in ancient Egypt so much of which has been preserved by the dry Egyptian climate and has long been admired for the quality of its design and construction The story begins with the earliest known pieces and ends with the spectacular discoveries from the 18th dynasty represented mainly by the magnificent furniture from the tomb of Tutankhamun The insight which Dr Killen brings in the detailed explanations of the materials techniques and designs of the master craftsmen of ancient Egypt gives this book a special significance There is a catalogue of known pieces from museums around the world classified by type beds stools chairs and tables with detailed analyses of the materials tools and joinery The splendid photographs and drawings illustrate each piece and technique Ancient Egyptian Furniture Geoffrey Killen, 2017 Full descriptions and discussions of surviving Egyptian furniture fully illustrated catalogues of surviving pieces detailed analyses of the materials tools and joinery All Things Ancient Egypt Lisa K. Sabbahy, 2019-04-24 Written by specialists in the field of Egyptology this book is a readable introduction to ancient Egypt covering all anticipated subjects and stressing the monuments and material culture of this remarkable ancient civilization The rich natural resources of ancient Egypt provided a wealth of raw material for its structures sculptures and art while its geographic isolation helped to ensure the survival of its rich culture for centuries While other references focus on the people and battles central to Egyptian history this reference explores the material culture and social institutions of ancient Egypt The book focuses on pharaonic Egypt covering the period from roughly 5000 BCE to the beginning of the Greco Roman Period in 320 BCE At the front of the work a timeline provides a quick look at the major events in Egyptian history and an introduction surveys ancient Egypt's physical geography and history Alphabetically arranged reference entries written by expert contributors then provide fundamental information about the buildings jewelry social practices and other topics related to the material culture and institutions that made up the Egyptian world Excerpts from primary source historical documents provide evidence for what we know about ancient Egyptian culture and suggestions for further reading direct users to additional sources of information

Ancient Egyptian Furniture Geoffrey Killen, 2017-03-31 In this third volume Dr Killen investigates how woodworking in ancient Egypt developed in the 19th and 20th dynasties It establishes the range of wooden furniture manufactured during this period by surveying examples depicted in Ramesside Theban and Memphite tombs Ancient records show how the procurement of furniture occurred at Deir el Medina while the design and manufacturing of these furniture forms can be traced through a series of furniture sketches that are annotated with a range of marks and signs These designs are seen in surviving examples of furniture from settlements such as Medinet el Gurob To facilitate the manufacture of furniture procedures were developed that were managed by cooperatives of Egyptian artisans These groups established a recognisable Egyptian furniture style that was employed throughout the Ramesside world Depictions of furniture used by the ruling Ramesside elite are examined including a remarkable collection of furniture used by Rameses III illustrations of which could once be found in a painted wall scene in his tomb KV11 and still seen carved on the walls of his temple at Medinet Habu These illustrations show how royal furniture was used as a symbolic tool to promote the Ramesside Empire at the edges of its sphere of influence Temple furniture was also used to serve a religious purpose in the rituals performed by Ramesside priests these forms are also analysed in this volume This third volume contains a catalogue of known Egyptian furniture preserved in world museums that augments those catalogues found in the first two volumes of this series The author also provides a distribution list with illustrations of a number of replica pieces of woodwork made by him that can now be found preserved in several museums and collections The purpose of these replica pieces has been to analyse the design and construction techniques used by Egyptian carpenters using a range of replica woodworking tools

Ancient Egyptian Furniture Geoffrey Killen, 2017-03-31 In this revised second edition Dr Killen continues his survey of Egyptian furniture making techniques with a study of boxes chests and footstools and traces their evolution from the earliest times Wooden papyrus and alabaster boxes and chests were used to hold protect and store valuable objects toilet utensils instruments tools garments curtains game pieces and papyri amongst other things Those from the Old Kingdom usually had flat lids and solid board sides tied together at the corners During later periods carcass construction became so sophisticated with the introduction of frame and panel work that it was possible to construct barrel shrine and pent shaped lids Later chests were elaborately painted some with funerary scenes painted with hieroglyphs or had gilt fretwork decoration applied to the sides and lid This book is copiously illustrated with drawings and photographs and contains a catalogue of additional known pieces of Egyptian furniture preserved in museum collections
